6th Annual McCabe Conference – A Virtual Opportunity

McCabe Virtual Conference 2023 Program

Were you unable to attend the national conference in Nashville? Were you there but missed some of the sessions you wanted to attend because they conflicted with other good options? Here is your chance to hear those presentations. The 6th Annual McCabe Conference will be a virtual NOSS event on Friday, June 23rd. Links to registration details and the program can be found below. This conference is named for Dr. Bob McCabe, one of the original modern advocates of and researchers in developmental education. His book, No One To Waste: A Report to Public Decision Makers and Community College, is a must-read.

The cost of the conference is $75 for NOSS members and $100 for non-members. The day will feature four concurrent sessions with three options per session. The conference will be held from 12:00-3:30 p.m. Eastern time.
