

Unit 1- Movement Vocabulary

Transcontinental Railroad-the first railroad built to connect the east coast of the U.S. to the west coast of the U.S.

Assimilation-the process of adopting the language and culture of a dominant group

Culture-a pattern of behavior shared by a society, or group of people

Equality- the state of being equal, especially in status, rights, and opportunities

Immigrant- someone who comes to live permanently in a foreign country.

Homesteaders- people who moved to the Great Plains and claimed land under the Homestead Act.

Famine- a long period of hunger; no food available

Discrimination - unfair treatment of a certain group of people

Exodusters- African Americans who moved west during the Reconstruction era (after the Civil War) to escape discrimination

Sodbusters- farmers who had to "bust through sod" to get to the fertile soil beneath it to plant.

Unit 1- Movement Vocabulary

Transcontinental Railroad-the first railroad built to connect the east coast of the U.S. to the west coast of the U.S.

Assimilation-the process of adopting the language and culture of a dominant group

Culture-a pattern of behavior shared by a society, or group of people

Equality- the state of being equal, especially in status, rights, and opportunities

Immigrant- someone who comes to live permanently in a foreign country.

Homesteaders- people who moved to the Great Plains and claimed land under the Homestead Act.

Famine- a long period of hunger; no food available

Discrimination - unfair treatment of a certain group of people

Exodusters- African Americans who moved west during the Reconstruction era (after the Civil War) to escape discrimination

Sodbusters- farmers who had to "bust through sod" to get to the fertile soil beneath it to plant.