I will use my interactive PowerPoint, A Voyage Around the Solar System, as a fun assessment for after a week of learning about the planets and the System. This PowerPoint directly aligns with a 1st grade Science Standard, and would be used as a fun activity for students to test what they have learned.