Monday, October 31

Void Moon begins 8:14 -8:42 pm PST [Capricorn to Aquarius]

- Emerging out of intense productivity and solitude towards socialization
- Hold off: on any big announcements/launches as this energy makes us distracted and like we're lingering in limbo
- Earth to Air = Introducing flow and balancing heavy with light energies

Industry Robin Hood

First Quarter in Aquarius begins at 11:36 pm PST

- Empower your people by sharing information that is uncommonly spoken about in your industry as a way to set your audience free
- Share knowledge, resources and encourage self-empowered learning
- Teach others what you know and invite non-traditional thinking
- Tell the story of your struggle and freedom
- Waxing Crescent: Beginnings of momentum, increasing productivity
- First Quarter: Active momentum, increasing energy, building & progress

If you're high energy/in a work mood: This world is gradually becoming a more precarious place and it's important that you strengthen your community. This means having more conviction for your beliefs, being the Robin Hood of your world and setting people free from confusion and suffering. The reasons you created your services, programs and offerings are rooted in your wanting to free others from their problems, problems you understand because you experienced them yourself. Show your audience why you're so fiercely passionate about your business and how it changed your life. Show your people a better way to live because it is you they will come to for that strength and hope. The deeper you connect to your own story and 'why', the stronger of a pillar you will be for others.

If you're low energy/in a self-care mood: The energy of this moon can be as intense and exhausting as it is inspiring. One of the best uses of it can be to lean into your friendships, and your community and openly express yourself in a safe space where your mind is valued. What you have to say matters and if coming out to your public audience feels difficult to do, practice this with those you're close to.

Social Media:

- Share your message and market openly the content you created during the precious Capricorn Moon. Promotional materials get a boost now.
- Showing up in your community through a live stream, challenge, or public event

- Speak about what is most important to you and what you want to rally others towards
- Let your passion lead and your voice ring far and true

Moon Boosts:

Gemini Mars gives us a boost to our communications and speeds things up on the business front. This can make the moon a bit more touchy but also allows for a flow of passionate ideas to come through.

Aquarius Saturn brings stability and foundation to our communities so that the networking efforts that we make will build us up together.

Tuesday, November 1

First Quarter in Aquarius - All Day

Void Moon from 4:07 - 11:46 am PST [Aquarius to Pisces]

- A suspended space between the logical and artistic minds
- Good time for daydreaming the bigger picture of your life
- Hold off: on any big announcements/launches as this energy makes us distracted and like we're lingering in limbo
- Air to Water = slowing down and feeling

First Quarter in Pisces begins at 11:47 am PST

Big Hearted Give

- Give generously to your audience (wisdom, love, compassion, presence)
- Acts of compassion & kindness help replenish you
- Volunteer, do good for loved ones and ease others
- Nurture meaningful connections and lean into why you love helping
- First Quarter: Active momentum, increasing energy, building & progress
- Waxing Gibbous: Active & busy, implementing new skills and pushing for completion of tasks and projects

If you're high energy/in a work mood: The mix of active First Quarter and the loving Pisces energies makes for an excellent time to do good for others and be of divine service. Pisces is on the axis of Service/Charity and when we flow with this energy we gain access to creative power natural to Goddess energy. We may find the impulse to make beautiful things and nurture compassion in our connections with clients and our audience as a whole. Know that when you give from a place of pure love, it isn't a requirement that you empty your own cup but instead pour from the overflowing cup of universal energy.

If you're low energy/in a self-care mood: If even performing rituals feels like too much for you right now, let yourself do nothing at all. Pisces is the sign of complete release and sometimes the best way to connect with the divine is to simply relax in all senses of the word - even from the need to connect to spirit at all. It may seem ironic, but let go of all expectations and routines can be liberating.

Social Media & Clients:

- Invite your audience to share their creativity and passion projects, to connect with a community of artists and express themselves openly
- These moons are times of emotional vulnerability that can be channelled into creative work
- Our boundaries might be thinner now. Try not to take on the burdens of others since you might feel like an emotional sponge
- Share your healing gifts but keep in mind when it's necessary to reel yourself back and preserve well-being

Moon Boost:

Pisces Neptune Rx

- Dreamy, creative, forgiving, compassionate, boost to intuition and spiritual abilities.
- Rx adds depth and spiritual intensity that allows us to see things slightly differently than we normally would so that we can make changes that need to be made.

Sun, Mercury, Venus & South Node in Scorpio

- Sun shines a light on the darkest aspects of our lives right now, especially where fears and limiting beliefs are concerned. Let any truth that is wanting to be revealed come to the surface right now to be dealt with.
- Mercury influences the way we think and communicate, so our words have an added edge to them. We're more open to a deep creative flow now and to the creations, we bring to life with our hands (think writing, healing, sculpting, etc).
- Venus: Relationships and business partnerships alike could feel intense at this time and the best way to channel these feelings is to lead with honesty and not let drama get the better of you.
- South Node: it will feel more important than ever to step away from what we can't control and into navigating our own spaces and choosing what we allow into them. Also, lean into your own intuition to determine what's true for you and trust in your truth to guide you.

- Promote, launch and market your 1:1 services, programs, and courses
- Use live video to let your passions and creations be seen
- Excellent time to start any free "challenges" that help your audience finally reach their goals and hit major milestones
- Push through procrastination, it's time for action!
- Waxing Gibbous: Active & busy, implementing new skills and pushing for completion of tasks and projects

If you're high energy/in a work mood: Consider this a colossal burst of creative energy that can make you uncharacteristically brave in pushing a project forward. This is not the time to doubt yourself, your products or your abilities. Even if your messaging isn't perfect and there is more to be accomplished before you would usually feel 'ready', it's the time to take action regardless. This energy is set up to support your bravest business movements forward so letting yourself loose upon the world no matter the outcome will bring you massive value.

If you're low energy/in a self-care mood: Do something fun that genuinely brings you joy and starts a new pattern of getting your needs met. Know that your needs matter and you don't have to pretend that you're strong for holding out on prioritizing yourself. Let yourself come first during this moon and fill your cup back up until it's overflowing.

Social Media & Clients:

- Use this to generate excitement, make an announcement, have a flash sale, open a cart, kick off an event, close a cart,

- Get people to sign up for an event, take action, or rally behind a cause that's important to you.
- Talk about anything that you and your audience find irritating, frustrating or plain pisses you off about your industry.
- Encourage building up your people as they face a breakthrough.
- Create a clear, concise Call to Action to make it easy for your people to say yes to your offer.
- Think short bursts, and only on what's most important to MOVE you and them FORWARD.

Moon Boost: Chiron Rx in Aries

- Chiron: We're focused on our own wounds and how they've held us back from living our authenticity. How can we move through them and heal?
- Rx: Slowing down in our approach and looking deeper at whether we feel deserving of healing at all.

Saturday, November 5

Waxing Gibbous in Aries - All Day

Venus Opposition Uranus

This transit can spell big changes on the relationship front for us, whether single or in partnership. These changes and shifts are not always ones that we are looking forward to, but they will open the doors for a fresh perspective, and excitement and livening things up a bit. It can mean new romance, especially through the internet (as Uranus represents the online world), or re-invigorating a current relationship. We need to be cautious in seeking excitement at the cost of our security, especially in terms of gambling, or other more playful risks.

Sunday, November 6

Void Moon from 2:29 pm- 9:14 pm PST [Aries to Taurus]

- Simmering down from the excitement and thinking more seriously about what needs to be accomplished over the next few days
- Hold off: on any big announcements/launches as this energy makes us distracted and like we're lingering in limbo
- Fire to Earth = putting into practice & structuring

Waxing Gibbous in Taurus begins at 9:15 pm PST

[Included in Next Week's Forecast]

Ongoing Transits

Mars Retrograde in Gemini (October 30, 2022 - January 12, 2023)

25°36' - 8°07' Gemini

As Mars enters Retrograde in Gemini lasting from now and into early next year we may find that not only does our motivation take a significant dip, but our irritations, frustrations, and desire for control may experience an uptick. Mars rules our fight or flight and what we value enough to fight for.

Look to see what house(s) that this Mars Retrograde will be transiting for you, specifically the house and any planets that fall between 5 degrees and 28 degrees Gemini, anything occupying this space will experience more frustrations and distractions than usual.

You may feel at war with your brain and short attention span, or feel an influx of data, information, and input at this time and may struggle to make heads or tails of it. We can find that our usual ability to focus or make sense of things may feel clouded or erratic. This isn't all in your head and is in fact a byproduct of Mars retrograding through our information processing sign of Gemini.

Communications can be affected during this time, and our commitment levels may fluctuate rapidly. It's important to chunk things down into small bits, and focus on one thing at a time, if you are feeling overloaded by information, try to reduce the sources of input, putting distraction blockers on laptops, removing social media apps and notifications from your phone, as well as noise-cancelling headphones, can be helpful. Completing things can feel difficult at this time, but if you reduce the overload, and focus on keeping things simple and in short bursts you can still remain productive during this time and reach your goals.

This transit won't last forever but it will be long enough to likely frustrate you. Don't take anything personally at this time, and become really discriminating as to what news and information sources you take in and trust at this time. On a global level, we may find ourselves in an onslaught of information, and much of it is created to distract and confuse rather than provide information.

As the calendar year changes over, Mars in Gemini will be retrograde during this transition and we might notice a hunger to learn brilliant new ideas, and anxious anticipation to act. It could come on as a ferocious hunger to do amazing things in the world and to involve other people. The potential to team up and tackle larger projects together is a benefit of Mars in Gemini, but because it's retrograde we need to take things slow and focus on smaller tasks and short-term goals. This transit can bring chaotic changes, on-the-fly planning, and impulsivity. The more adaptable we are and able to create alternatives when plans erupt, the better we'll fare through the storms. If we can have the patience right now for ourselves and others, projects will go a lot smoother. It might feel at times as if you're spinning your wheels but not getting much done, or coming up with great ideas but never following through. Know that there is value in thrashing around. You're gaining experience in the sense that 'if something can go wrong, it will' part of business. As a result, you're practicing what it truly means to go with the flow. To lean in when needed and duck when the time is right. Consider this Bootcamp for your work brain.

Mercury in Scorpio (October 29 - November 17, 2022)

During this transit, we will be drawn into the mystical darkness within us and others. We will crave to understand the supernatural and spiritual qualities of our lives. This will be explored through deep and meaningful conversation, uncovering our own mysteries, darkness, unconscious patterns, and psyches. This is an invitation to go more deeply and to release and let go of what no longer serves, in order to grow, develop, and be reborn into something new. We will feel more curious than usual about these particular subjects. We can find our fears, patterns and triggers heightened during this time as we work with its medicine.

Jupiter Retrograde in Pisces (October 27 - November 23, 2022)

08° Aries 43' - 28° Pisces 48'

Jupiter will first retrograde back through Aries and then into Pisces (be sure to read the Jupiter Rx in Aries forecast for July 28th as well).

During this Retrograde period, Jupiter slows down even more than it usually does and brings with it a full expansive view of how this transit is integrating lessons deep into our souls. This is a spiritual experience above all else, with Jupiter in the ethereal sign of Pisces. These waters are vast and abyssal in nature, representative of the deep cosmic well of our universe. We might experience the most reception of psychic downloads during this retrograde period and it could most be felt in ritual and in session with clients, especially when the moon enters any of the water signs. We're helping others evolve spiritually and the bulk of this work will most likely be felt when the planet is traversing backward.

We may find some of the blessings and gifts that Jupiter gave, or hinted at back in December 2021 - May 2022 are either being withheld, or there are obstacles to achieving these outcomes. This does not mean that you aren't meant to have or do these things, but that the lack of their appearance is here to test our resolve, faith, and trust, and that through working towards these goals in spite of what appears no support, we will be especially blessed once Jupiter goes direct again on November 23, 2022.

Venus in Scorpio (October 23 - November 15, 2022)

During this transit, we are asking to let go of the superficial and keep those we care for at arm's length. We are being asked to show ourselves, and become more vulnerable in order to reach deeper and more fulfilling depths in our relationships. Scorpio is not interested in the surface, or only playing halfway, it goes right to the core, even if it's messy, dark, or imperfect. It appreciates the authenticity of the fairytale. If we have been working through challenging thought patterns, wounds, or skeletons in our relationship closet this transit will bring them out to be addressed and healed. We will also find money and power struggles highlighted at this time, issues that need to be addressed if we are to find the freedom and fulfillment we seek. This is not an easy transit but it can be very rewarding if we are willing to embrace our darker side and go where we have been too uncomfortable to venture before.

Sun in Scorpio (October 23 - November 22, 2022)

During this transit, we will be drawn to our inner world, to our intuition, and to spiritual and metaphysical teachings and journeys. Scorpio holds the veil between worlds, between life and death, dark and light, between wound and healing. It is an invitation to go more deeply into our water and intuitive side and see what messages we can find. If you have been craving a realness, to be more in tune, and connected with yourself and the spirit world this is the perfect transit to dive in and allow it to take you where you feel most drawn.

Saturn Direct in Aquarius (October 22, 2022 - March 7, 2023)

18°35' Aquarius

This transit will last until March 2023. During this time we will see a surge in the sale and marketing of information, a disassembly of old traditional ways of education, marketing, and media, and an increase in innovation, discovery, and new technology. We will also see an increased interest in Astrology, Psychology, and other consciousness-expanding tools, techniques, practices, and systems. This will be a period of great change. With this transit, there will be a shift from personal interests and wants to what is best for the planet, humanity, and the collective. We will see an even greater impact from our personal choices on the whole of the planet and all species. This will highlight the need for greater personal responsibility and initiate further change in regard to the environment, waste, public health, social support, technology, the rules governing it and the impact of the 'economy' on global, personal, and environmental health.

2020-2023 Saturn Return for those born between

February 1932 - February 1935

January 1962 - December 1964

February 6, 1991 – January 8, 1994

Saturn returns to each sign once every 29 or 30 years for approximately 3 years. Saturn was last in Aquarius from 2/1932 to 2/1935, 1/1962 to 12/1964, and from 2/1991 to 1/1994. Saturn will again be in Aquarius from December 17, 2020 (after a brief stay there from March 21 to July 1, 2020) through March 7, 2023.

Saturn Returns are periods of great change, challenges, and adversity where we will feel the pressure to become more of our own person.

Mercury Direct in Libra (Post Rx Shadow) (October 10 - 16, 2022)

With this being a post-shadow period after Mercury's retrograde, we may feel like we are re-entering our work pace slowly and a little more hesitant. A lot has been processed and moved through and we may feel like everything looks a little weird or different than it did previous to the retrograde. Take your time and work out these changes, we were slowed down for a reason and it's for you to assess what has changed HOW you're different and what this means for you moving forward.

Mercury in Libra shows us that relationships are like mirrors and that the words we speak internally often reflect the language we are using with ourselves. With Mercury in Libra, we are now seeing our minds being reflected back to us in relationships and it shouldn't be too much of a surprise if we don't always like what we hear. The challenge here is to not separate ourselves from our role in dancing with others mentally. If we choose to engage we naturally choose the experiences that follow - good or bad.

This is a very diplomatic placement, during this transit our communication becomes more practical, direct, and professional. It is a good time to let go of old disagreements and move into a place of clarity. We are more objective and forthright during this period and desire things to be balanced and fair. We must watch out for being too 'nice', and filling in conversations with fluff, rather than going deeper and having a more meaningful conversation.

Pluto Direct in Capricorn (October 8, 2022 - May 1, 2023)

Pluto will remain in Capricorn until 2024 (with a brief stint in Aquarius in 2023), over the next 2 years we will see significant changes and transformations in all the areas that Capricorn rules such as governments, rules, foundations, regulations, currencies, economies, resources, money and legacies. This will not be a simple rebuilding or redesigning, the change will come through power struggles, the use of fear for control, uncovering the deep subconscious, and a willingness to surrender or risk great loss for a sense of purpose and meaning.

Pluto is here to help us transform ourselves, find our purpose, and remind us that freedom should never be taken for granted. We may find great conspiracies, abuses of power, and a need to stand up for rights (as rules and laws can be used as coercive measures by those wishing to gain more power and control). This is a time when we are reminded of what's important to us, and that we cannot remain complacent about the things that are of real value. Use these next 2 years to stand strong for what's important to you and to deeply inquire about what you are willing to give up, sacrifice or surrender to live a life of real meaning and significance.

This window also marks the beginning of the Pluto return for the US beginning on February 20, 2022, which will see several conjunctions through 2022 and 2023 triggering changes in government, finance, currency, health care, natural resources, industry, and the core foundations of the country.

I would expect to see a change in currency, government formation, and major foundational changes to the country itself that will impact how the US operates, and how other countries interact with the US.

There are two things that may occur during this period, one is that the US shifts to no longer becoming a world superpower and is surpassed by another country, or it completely restructures and enters a second re-birth.

Mars in Gemini (Pre-Rx Shadow)

Mars in Gemini Pre-Rx Shadow

Pre-Rx Shadow - September 3, 2022 - October 30, 2022

8°07' - 25°36'

Mars is preparing to enter retrograde, during this time we may find that not only does our motivation take a significant dip, but our irritations, frustrations, and desire for control may experience an uptick. Mars rules our fight or flight and what we value enough to fight for.

Look to see what house(s) that this coming Mars Retrograde will be transiting for you, specifically the house and any planets that fall between 5 degrees and 28 degrees Gemini, anything occupying this space will experience more frustrations and distractions than usual.

Pay close attention to how projects and tasks might be slowing down right now and especially take notice of whether tension rises between you and anyone you're working with. There will be a lot of ideas coming from all types of people and staying on track with any one thing could prove frustrating. As we head towards retrograde, it will be important to consider other people's points of view. They might help you come to some important decisions if you let them be involved.

Uranus Retrograde (18° - 14°) (August 24 - December 31, 2022)

18°55' - 14°56' Taurus

**look at areas of focus/events that occurred between May 7, 2022- August 24, 2022 to give you insight into what area of life this retrograde will be felt for you**

Uranus rules rebellion, war, change, revolution, freedom, confronting fear, speaking our truth. It is 'the great awakener'. This retrograde highlights what doesn't feel aligned and where you're sabotaging and holding yourself back. Be honest about who you are and what you want. Go with your hunches/intuition. Uranus helps to clarify a new direction. Embrace change and 'not knowing'. This period often forces us to deal with our dark side, parts of ourselves that don't align with our values. But if you allow this to move through you when Uranus moves direct you will have the opportunity to make a massive change. Watch out for: Following formulas, systems, and the 'norm'. Systems and structures can tend to feel suffocating at this time. Be careful to not interpret this as a sign that you're not capable or that you've made a poor choice. Personal changes may feel slow or difficult at this time. And the need to feel independent and rebel may be felt strongly right now. Uranus Retrograde can mean massive changes often in areas we weren't expecting or desiring, but it is for your long-term benefit. The truth will set you free. To see what area of your life will be influenced by this retrograde, see your chart and the current transits and locate what house Uranus transit falls under.

Mars in Gemini (August 20 - September 3, 2022)

This is a powerhouse transit and marks an opportunity for significant momentum and success. When Mars passes through Gemini it acts as a catalyst for our mind and mental processes, our abilities of deduction. We are being granted an opportunity to have our big ideas enhanced, showered with a new perspective and we will have the energy to act on them. If you have been feeling stifled in your business or in need of a fresh start, embrace this period and commit to taking big leaps forward, you won't regret it.

Jupiter Retrograde in Aries (July 22 - October 27, 2022)

The biggest question we'll be asking ourselves over the next four months is whether our big dreams originate from within or out. Sometimes, we can get caught up in what others expect of us based on the pedestal they've put us on. In truth, this image of who we are and what we're capable of might not align with our own personal desires. If we're not living the dream that comes from the innate spark within us, we won't be able to adequately fuel these projects with passion. Take this time to reevaluate your leadership qualities as well. You may notice that more than usual, others are turning to you for inspiration and insight.

as well. You have something to teach others and you'll be receiving opportunities to show up and share your knowledge.

North Node Conjunct Uranus (July 22 - August 26, 2022)

This is a potent and often shocking or unexpected transit. Uranus brings the unexpected, and with it being in Taurus along with the North Node the themes that may be brought to the surface may be around finances, security, governmental structures, business, currencies, and stocks.

On a personal basis this may show up as unexpected events in your own finances or security, relationships, brief encounters, temporary relationships, interests in astrology or metaphysical topics, or advancements in stocks, trading, currencies or other tech advances that gain sudden appeal.

This can be a very positive transit that brings a sense of connection, purpose and destiny into our lives, pay attention to what is brought into your life at this time, there will be a fatedness to it.

Uranus isn't opposed to delivering things in a shocking or unexpected manner, so if that is the delivery method it chooses for you, don't let the shock or resistance to change or plans interfere with your ability to accept the gift.

To see what area of your life this will most be impacting look to the house that Taurus occupies for you, specifically around degrees 15- 21 in your chart.

Chiron Retrograde (July 19 - December 23, 2022)

16°26' - 11°56' Aries

With Chiron turning retrograde in Aries, we are healing our relationship with all things Aries. From violence in the shadow to assertive action in the light, the energies of Aries are all coming to the fore during this time, requiring our attention to heal any distortions or misdirected lines of energy. In particular, we are examining any wounds we have around taking action, a hallmark of Aries. During this time, our ability to stand up for ourselves is coming into question, our existential courage. Also known as our will to exist, existential courage is a pronouncement of being, a statement of life. If you think back to recent times, has there been a moment where you wanted to act but did not? A time when you were going to stand up for yourself, but you held back? We all have these moments and perhaps less important than our response at the time is how we make meaning and move forward after the fact. As Chiron retrogrades, we continue to gain visibility into these moments of vulnerability while learning about ourselves. We continue to make sense of the healing story of our lives.

When we have existential courage, we are fearless, acting from a space of original boldness. When we are searching for existential courage, perhaps the path is not as clear. The paradoxical truth is that despite what we think, we always have the courage that the moment requires of us, but we may not always be dialled into its frequency. If we think of consciousness like a radio dial, perhaps we are on a different station right when the moment comes. In this period of time, we are healing our ability to switch back to the other station, the station that supports growth, evolution, and development. As we perfect and grow this ability, we come into a deeper resonance with any healing that needs to take place. Not only do we identify the misguided assumptions that have been holding us back, but we transform them into energetic assets that do not weigh us down. On the contrary, they lift us up. No longer do we carry energetic weight around with us. Our only choice is to stand up for ourselves and if we can get to this space during this Chiron retrograde, we will have achieved a significant milestone.

NOTE: It's important to be aware at this time, as Chiron is the wounded healer, and represents the inner wound we all carry, we need to be mindful that we don't direct violence or harm at ourselves (with this being retrograde), that we instead focus on positive internal action to help ourselves overcome our wounds and pain. Often when it comes to trauma the victim, will internalize the reason for the trauma as being because of something they did, said, or are. When Chiron goes retrograde and in Aries nonetheless we may find more trauma coming up, especially in areas where we may need to defend or protect ourselves, or trigger our trauma responses. It is helpful to schedule in self-care, therapy, journaling, or things that help YOU to feel like you're taking an active stance towards your own healing.

Neptune Retrograde in Pisces (June 28 - December 3, 2022)

Unhindered

Neptune now turns retrograde at 25°26' - 22°38'

Each year, Neptune retrogrades for approximately 5 months.

Neptune rules both sleeping and waking dreams, imagination, fantasies, optimism, and idealism (in life and romance). Review your opinions, values, and belief systems, and listen to your gut. Work with the spiritual and mystical while keeping yourself grounded. Dreams, yoga, meditation, astrology, tarot, and deep inquiry can be very healing at this time. Contemplate your spirituality and belief systems. Focus on your creativity and allow what wants to come through to do so, unhindered. Let go of anything that feels heavy. Watch out for unrealistic or fluffy thinking, seeing people, and circumstances as you want to see them rather than as they are. Overindulgence in numbing agents. Emotions may run high or over the top. To see what area of your life will be influenced by this retrograde, check the current transits in your chart and see what house Neptune is moving through for you.

Saturn Retrograde in Aquarius (June 4 - October 22, 2022)

25°15' - 18°35' Aquarius

Saturn has turned retrograde in the sign of Aquarius, signalling a time of review for all things hard, worthwhile, and Aquarian. It is a full review of the way Saturn has been operating in our lives, looking particularly closely at the Aquarian storylines. If Saturn is about discipline, maturity, and self-respect, then Aquarius brings the scientific, innovative, and inventive aspect. Putting them together, we build a story of calculated structure and forward-thinking. We create a mindset of bringing the future into the present through actionable steps, not lofty wishes. So, how have you been doing this or not? This is a great time to consider your psychic priorities, the energy you wish to emanate in your life. With these priorities in mind, you are ready to absorb the energy of this astrological transit in high resolution.

During this time, Saturn gives a new structure to Aquarius' genius. We learn to take on only the responsibilities we can handle, and we learn to follow through on them in brilliant ways. As the retrograde continues, Saturn does dip into Capricorn, inviting in the modern business mind. During Saturn's brief sojourn in the very corporate Capricorn, do not be surprised if you find yourself building out new processes. Instead of driving efficiencies at work, however, you are reverse engineering your life. Reverse engineering is not hocus pocus. It is really a challenge. A challenge to mentally visit the feeling state of your realized wish (before it has happened). If you can do this, the steps to manifesting said wish will materialize in front of you. Working with this metaphor of manifestation helps to structure not just your genius but genius itself. Are you ready?

Globally with the lockdowns in effect since 2020, I would expect to see a reprisal of lockdowns and governmental restrictions during the time that Saturn is retrograde and reinstatement of restrictions once it goes direct after Oct 22.

Use this time to create more stability in your online business and strategies, that give you an opportunity for independence and expansion into the future.

Pluto Retrograde in Capricorn (April 29 - October 8, 2022)

P R

Pluto rules our shadow side, deep-seated fears, limiting beliefs, the unconscious, unpredictability, change, endings, and beginnings. Embrace cleaning house both physically and emotionally. Clearing your space, addressing things in your personal relationships and life that doesn't feel good to you anymore.

Embrace the change that occurs in your life during this period, it may not be easy but it will bring a level of depth and truth that was needed. Space is being made for new people, new opportunities, new perspectives, new boundaries, and greater fulfillment. Don't hold on to anything that wants to leave.

Pluto tends to enact change in our lives whether we like it or not, but it always is for our highest good. Subconscious belief systems can easily be triggered during this time. To find out what area of your life is being influenced by this retrograde look at the current transits in your chart and see what houses Pluto will be moving through.

This is a good time to meet any financial, health, and foundational fears you have in your life or business, and notice what is no longer working for you. The more we attempt to hold on tightly to things that are clearly changing, the more we may find this period to be a struggle.

Look to new ways to bring in resources that can be more developed once Pluto goes direct in October. Through endings and transformation come new beginnings, and new perspectives.

I would expect the US to see some major restructuring, political upheaval or shifts, and changes to its health care, financial, and currencies during this time. We may see a new currency emerge as a result of this restructuring, as well as changes in its relationships with other countries as a result, to be seen more fully after October 8th.

North Node in Taurus (December 22, 2021 - July 12, 2023)
South Node in Scorpio (December 22, 2021 - July 12, 2023)

North Node in Taurus

The North Node transit shows us what we are moving towards, and the global trends that we should expect over the next 18-month cycle.

The past 18 months have seen a massive change in global trends as the North Node moved through Gemini and the South Node transited Sagittarius.

This showed a moving towards new careers, education, educational formats (homeschooling/online learning/distance learning), as well as working and staying within our more immediate environments with an emphasis on very short distance travel, this saw a massive decrease in commute times through lockdowns and business restructuring.

This presented the ability for many to telecommute, explore grocery delivery and overnight delivery, work from home, telemedicine, and traveling within our more immediate neighborhoods.

In terms of business, this showed up as an explosion of technologies like video conferencing through Zoom, and the transition of businesses that were primarily in person into the online space. We also saw a massive explosion in online learning, new careers, online training, and many stepping into the updating of their businesses into a more online space. The development of new skills, especially highly specific training saw massive growth.

Now with the North Node moving into Taurus, we will see a continuation of much of our lives, whether through work, friendships, and domestic lives growing from right from the comfort of our own homes. Whether it's the continuation of online education, reskilling ourselves, exploring homegrown food, home-based health, and creating rhythms and routines around our more immediate environment.

The return to commuting or long-distance travel or education will continue to remain slow, if not completely and forever changed.

We will look to create more of our luxuries from home, whether it be foods we enjoy, health care, gardens, learning and education, and growing our businesses.

The emphasis will be on creating quality life experiences, which may have many exploring new ways of living, relocating, or new ways of creating sustainability in their lives that they felt they didn't have time (or motivation) to before. We will also see an increase in new currencies especially as the North Node conjuncts Uranus on July 26, 2022.

These trends will continue into 2023, lasting approximately 18 months.

From a business perspective, this is a perfect time to either launch your business into the online space (and home space), and to also explore new training, and slowly build out more security for yourself. If you teach business in any regard, the next 18 months will see massive growth in your industry. This can also be a good time to explore alternative income streams, currencies and creating a side business.

The North Node shows the potential for increase/advancement and opportunities for the themes of the sign it is transiting through.

South Node in Scorpio

The South Node shows us what we're coming away from as a collective on a global level, and rules 18-month trends.

The past 18 months have seen a massive change in global trends as the South Node transited Sagittarius.

This showed a moving away from long-distance travel, higher education, retreats, and trips geared to personal development, and for many even a change in their belief systems, traditions (family/religious), and long-term goals.

We saw a massive increase in the consumption of media (Gemini), learning new information and an attempt to determine truth from fiction, while also attempting to form our own opinions for ourselves.

The South Node's transit through Sagittarius saw a complete change in the airline and travel industry, a coming away from global travel, and more to towards local travel, with many of us stuck in our homes or limited to our local areas for staycations.

This also saw a massive increase in learning from home, and a step away from long-distance or higher education, and a shift into choosing your own education for yourself, through the use of online or distance materials.

Now that the South Node is moving into Scorpio, we will see a disillusionment with any forms of manipulation and gas-lighting whether through media, friendships, authority, or governmental figures.

We may also find ourselves questioning previous healing methods, and possibly even avoidance of navigating our own trauma when things become too much.

It will feel more important than ever to step away from what we can't control and into navigating our own spaces and choosing what we allow into them (any negativity may send us into a downward spiral).

We must be cautious of seeking quick fixes at this time, and avoidance doing the deeper work on our health, mindset, psychology, beliefs, and fears.

This is not necessarily the best time for the healing and metaphysical industries, as they will see more people turning away from doing deeper work, even though it is obviously needed, on the other hand, we may see a rise in more manipulative and unethical techniques either through media, competitors in our industry, government authorities, and previously trusted sources.

It will be more imperative than ever to lean into your own intuition to determine what's true for you.

The South Node either obscures, ends, or creates obstacles to the themes of the sign it is transiting through.

Things to monitor during this transit:

Changes to Relationships/Divorce/Morality Rates

Debt/Credit

Death/Endings

Taboo Subjects

Joint Finances

Lawsuits

The Withholding/Gaslighting of Medical Advancements/Truth/Scientific Discovery

The hiding of facts/figures/numbers/data/results
