

Student-Led Conferences March 2024

7th Grade Advanced LA Reflections & Artifacts

Student answers should show understanding of your growth this semester, strengths and stretches, and what students will be mindful of in the future. \(Student Rubric\) Students, please make sure your answers are in plain text

Insert image of yourself as a student during Q3 here.

Use caption as needed here.

GENERAL

What is your LA grade now?

B (87%)

Write strength or stretch in each category.

Reading	Writing	Language	Research	Oral Exp
stretch	strength	strength?	strength	strength

Effort Rating

Please rate yourself according to the effort you typically put forth in LA. Highlight the one that best fits you during third quarter. Feel free to add decimals and/or notes as needed.

4	3	2	1
Consistent striving for personal best in language arts.	Reasonably consistent effort but not to a "personal best" level	Inconsistent effort (may be enough to maintain the grade you want)	Little effort

What is one thing you'd like to continue OR do differently (last chance)?

I would like to study more for www quizzes because theyre dragging my grade down right now.

Thought/"Motto" for rest of year -

Answer here

WRITING

In what ways did the argument essay outline and/or March blog outline assignments impact you as a writer? What specifically did you gain from these assignments?

I feel like i gained a better understanding of the power outline format

Reflect on/describe a struggle you faced as a writer this quarter. What did you learn from the struggle?

I struggled with figuring out how to write the 5s in my power outline

In what ways do you feel you “hit the target” and/or “are still working” on the complex skills required in one or both of these assignments?

I am still working on ways to make my writing flow correctly

READING

What learning stood out to you about the process we used for research? Consider your understanding of site authority, credibility, coverage, and scope, along with GALE and the source evaluation process.

What stood out to me was the fact that we had to analyze the website so much to make sure it was a credible source

Reflect on the quantity of time you've spent on independent reading.

I read a lot in my room, usually before bed, but its harder for me to read at school

Comment on ways in which you've successfully challenged and/or grown yourself as a reader this quarter. Consider volume, stamina, difficulty of text, etc.

Ive grown as a reader as in i still struggle with reading, but I used to hate it and now it's something that I really enjoy doing.

LANGUAGE

How do your WWW scores in IC reflect both your time studying AND your knowledge of Greek & Latin roots and stems? Remember, we are over 250+ now!

I study the new words every week, but I don't always get to the review ones considering theres over 250 of them.

Reflect on your understanding of the Poetry WoD terms.

I understand them well

Please set permissions to view and link on your Language Arts page when complete.