

SCCSS Conference Sessions

Engaging Activities for K-12 Social Studies Teachers
The Landsmann Letters: Escaping the Holocaust
Daily Writing Routines to Increase Thinking, with Convenient Tech Tips
"Damn the Torpedoes:" Teaching the Civil War Well, In Spite of Everything
Using SEEK to Support Critical Visual Literacy in the Social Studies Classroom
Using Games and Bots to bring Social Studies to Life
Data-Driven Success for EOCEP: Tools, Tests, and Takeaways
Looking Back on 25 Years of US History Standards
Globalizing the 'Yellow Peril' and Anti-Asian Racism in History Classrooms
From Paul Revere to Barbie: Building Critical Media Literacy Skills
Inquiry-Based Lessons for the Elementary Classroom
Supporting Multilingual Learners in U.S. History
When to Be Graphic? Teaching Traumatic Historical Topics Using Appropriate Media
Economics, Personal Finance, and Engagement in the High School Classroom
Bringing Social Studies to Life: Classroom-Ready Tools from SCETV and PBS
Interdisciplinary Toolbox in Action
Engaging Your Students with Storyboards
Dodecahedrons: Not Just for Math Anymore!
The Rationale and Methods for Revisiting the "Border Chaos" Narrative
Exposing British Arrogance (and Undergarments) With a Well-Placed Cannon Shot
AI as Your Teaching Partner: Social Studies Lesson Planning with Collaborative AI Tools
The Fed, the Feds, and Your Wallet (aka Fiscal and Monetary Policy)
Driving Instructional Impact: Districtwide DBQs with Rubrics and Data
Using Inquiry to Teach Social Studies
The Art and Power of Storytelling in Social Studies Classrooms
James K. Polk: Most Effective One-Term President, EVER?
Strategies for Bringing SCOTUS into the Classroom
Leveraging PLCs to Guarantee Teacher Satisfaction and Student Academic Achievement
Teaching the Holocaust Through Story
Storyboarding: Bringing History to Life Through Visual Narratives
Social Studies Methods in Today's Political World
Skills & Sources
Historical Art and Objects as Teaching Tools
Using Historical Fiction & Informational Texts to Integrate Your Day!
Beyond the Textbook: Teaching Economics Through Case Studies
What Do New Teachers Think About Book Bans and Restricted Content?
My Culture, My Civilization: Embracing Student Identity to Build a Positive and Inclusive Social Studies Classroom
History That Sticks: Literacy Strategies for EOC Success
Discus Dive: Free Tools to Energize Your Social Studies Classroom
X Marks the Market: Graphing the Invisible Hand
Revolutionary Social Studies: Integrating Technology & AI
Field Guide: Real-World Social Studies Strategies

Atlas of South Carolina

In Memoriam: Using Obituaries to Teach Critical Thinking

Antitrust as a Civic and Historical Topic

The Populists as Revolutionaries

Stars of the Night: Teaching the Kindertransport with Primary Sources

Everyday Heroes: Civic Engagement Through Inquiry in K-2 Classrooms

Inquiry to Imagination

More Than a Lesson: A Schoolwide Journey into Global Citizenship

Unpacking Standards - What the HECK Does That Mean?

A Trip to Hanover: Collaboration for Fabulous Field Trips

Increasing the Use of Primary Sources in the Classroom

Embracing Historical Controversies to Get Students Thinking and Talking

From Past to Prompt: The Historian's Role in AI Literacy

King Killers and Witch Burners: Teaching about Puritans and other Religious People

Local History, Big Impact: Using State & Local Stories to Teach National Themes

Unpacking Assumptions: Scaffolding Assignments to Build Students' Social Studies Skills

The Nonpartisan Nature of Truth