

Even more Upcoming and Deconfirmed Characters for Future Night Funkin'

Greetings, fellow fans on Gamejolt or on any social media. If you are reading this, then that means you will be excited for the upcoming characters, however, most of them are rejected by controversies, needed thinking on adding and stuff that original creators don't want them to be existing anymore. So, let's begin with the document readings.

Upcoming

Beach Brother:

Before I say any details on the character, let's go up with the director. The lead developer, SquizzleDizzle got a lot of backlash because of the joke of him, saying that he is transphobic. However, this changed when the document about the controversy was uploaded at online. It was revealed that he was manipulated by LimeLazy, Squizzle's friend. This shocked us that Squizzle wasn't the bad guy all along but rather an innocent human being and since this was revealed, everyone is now angry at Lime and might throw a lot of negatives at his face. Yup, I would also throw a negative and a curse word at his face too, like you guys. I am not angry but was like careless on the drama. At the first time visiting the wiki page, I saw the controversy template and didn't cared about the controversy but my mind was like, "WHHHHHHHHHYYYYYYYYY!!!!" Then soon enough when the situation was resolved, I was still careless either but my mind was like, "Oh, finally, I don't need to see this controversy ever again," and hey, it's all over now! We can stop throwing curse words at Squizzle since the whole thing is down and I am very happy to know that it's all going to be forgotten forever. Oh yeah, also [blank] LimeLazy. You were a bad friend and go to purgatory, you son of a [blank] and Squizzle, we, the FNF community, are sorry for what we didn't about you. When you posted that thing, we were angry about your joke post but when you revealed yourself that you were innocent all along, we are now filled with extreme guilt about our actions and we better hope that we can be forgiven by your warm arms. We are truly sorry about what we did and we hope you'll recover from the pain you suffered from all of those past days. You can forget those horrible days now. Design and Week will be included. Arrow mechanic included during Beach Brawl.

Indie Cross:

Designs and Weeks will be included. Attack and arrow mechanic included. Sans will be a playable character but only in a few songs that features him.

Hololive Funkin':

Even though the overhaul won't be in, some of the characters will make an appearance. This Week will simply be called Week HF where Future! Boyfriend battles Botan who got featured in V.S Camellia. Designs will be coming soon and I wonder if the others will be featured in the next Camellia Update. Oh, and Rushia..... is going to face someone at the sacred grounds but won't tell you if the design is up.

Animation VS FNF:

Designs and Week will be included. Attack and arrow mechanic included. (Note: I subscribed to him and he is one of my favorites.)

Salty's Sunday Night:

Only one character will be included. Design but Week will not be included.

Blackjack:

Aether/Silver Developer and using his alternate account following minors and even though he apologized, things won't change anymore. After his nature was exposed, he got kicked out by the (leaderless) Fun Gang and only 4 members are remaining in the Fun Gang, getting his crossovers cancelled by many popular developers, losing a bunch of fans and team members, the wiki page getting removed from the hall of fame, getting banned on Gamebanana and losing his association with the majority of the developers. We will never be going to see the other characters, making into the cut and now, we need to refrain the whole thing, so no one can make fun of him anymore or cutting ties. Tell you what, let's stop sending images of Amor artwork with the word "children?!" placed on it and accept the fact that he will never do any of this crap again, alright? Well, if you don't, he will be heartbroken and you will be heartbroken as well and look, I am not in Amor's support or even in Aether's but I'm trying to tell you all to stop and let him move on by dropping the situation. Going too far will be an instant regret and if that regret takes you over, you will never be going to feel in the same way ever again. What I meant is the whole thing will not turn good like it was supposed to be in the past. So, let's stop this war and end this. Also, I saw MaskedChris' response about the situation. His response is long but I will say his response to him on this document. He said this to Amor, "Don't even try to come back, at least, until you fully healed yourself, become a better person, and most important of all, reconcile and fully and properly apologized to the many, many victims." I definitely agree about this. He should come back if he is fully healed and become a better person with a better personality and also, he said that he is seeking professional help to fix the mess he made and I better hope he can find help to fix it or else, the mess he made will never going to be reversed anymore. So now, let us stop making fun of mistakes and learn what we did then come back with a better personality and also, stop laughing about his apology until his better written apology is posted on Twitter. It is not nice to make fun of it and plus [blank] Aether for your actions and even you Amor, but I accept your apology. Even if I accept it, many can't but will accept it once you write a better one. I am sorry to know if many people couldn't accept your apology but some of them accepted your apology which isn't enough but will be enough if many of them do. You may be left heartbroken, you may be corrupted but soon enough, your heart will be restored and your corrupted mind will be restored into a new mind. Sorry to say that the Bob and Bosip will no longer be included in here but will be put back in once the whole thing is dropped. So, people, let's resolve the controversy and put an end to it.

Low quality made mods:

There's nothing else much else to say about poor quality made mods and just adding them will be a big piece of junk to me, man.

Cyber Sensation:

Need time to think about it.

VS. Dave and Bambi:

Need time to think about it.

Wednesday's Infidelity:

We already have a Mickey Mouse here.

Pompom:

Sorry, little bunny. Although you're cute, I don't have ideas for your story.

Tar Twin Tussle:

Need time to think about it.

Richard Gyro:

He may be a funny guy but I ain't adding him in.

Well, fellow fans, that is all I can tell you about it. But on the other hand, there are more of it, so pull your pants on and get ready for it!
