

Transurban video – audio describing the visual content

Aerial view of the Ability Works facility.

An AUSLAN interpreter appears in the lower right corner of the screen.

CEO Sue Boyce is speaking on camera.

Team Leader Mark approaches machinery in his electric wheelchair .

An employee is packing on the assembly line.

Sue is on screen.

Team Leader Edward is seen packing on the assembly line.

Sebastian Conley from Transurban is speaking on camera.

A staff member is wrapping product in blue tissue paper.

An employee is scanning Transurban e-tags in the mailroom.

Sebastian is on screen.

The video swaps between Sebastian speaking to the camera and employees working in the mailroom.

Team Leader Ruby is speaking to the camera.

The video swaps between footage of Ruby working in the mail room, doing as she describes, and her speaking to the camera.

An employee is packing product.

Another employee is pressing brushes in our manufacturing department.

Sebastian is on screen.

A printer is scanning documents and our Records Management manager, Kani, can be seen at a computer.

Mark is working on a large manufacturing machine.

Mark is seen navigating his electric wheelchair through a projected office building plan.

Kani is shown gathering documents, scanning, typing and shredding.

An employee is working with a Support Team member to package product.

Sue is on screen.

An employee is packing on the assembly line.

Sue is typing at her computer.

Sebastian is on screen.

An employee is packing on the assembly line.

Another employee is pressing brushes in our manufacturing department.

Edward is packing on the assembly line.

Sue is on screen.

Mark is using a machine in manufacturing.

Edward is packing on the assembly line.

Sebastian is on screen.

An employee is working hard in manufacturing.

Sebastian is on screen.

An employee is folding a box.

Sebastian is on screen.

A white screen covered in blue text shows the awards won by Ability Works in conjunction with Transurban.

The AUSLAN interpreter fades out.

The Ability Works logo appears.

The video is over.