~ 9 Months before Sumeru - (end of 2.2, beginning of 2.3)

Dumb Dumb mentioned that the Dendro Archon is a female child, with white-grey hair and a dress like Paimon. Called her “Klee’s friend”. In hindsight this is a reference to her elf ears, but as far as I saw on the comment thread, no one really picked up on that. LINK

Uncle Dumb Dumb

suddenly thought about something while I saw paimon, I think I forgot to say it, Dendro Archon's clothes is sort of like Paimon's skirt/dress. Very cute [Female Child], Hair colour's a bit greyish-white. klee's friend + 1

Some people weren't super thrilled about a child archon.

But since the leak came from an alt account that wasn't confirmed to be his, people were skeptical. With the information we gained in the leak dump of 6/29, I think we can be pretty safe to say that although we can't confirm it is Dumb Dumb, the leaker is very reliable.

A suspicious leak from the NGA forums claims that Yae's weapon will be good on the Dendro Archon. LINK

[deleted] · 6 mo. ago

Post caption :

Is the Dendro God's ability universal? Yae's speciality is also good for her when the Dendro Archon is rated UP, there should be a new weapon with something to do with buffing an element for an entire team. Is this strong?

NGA screenshot:

Let's talk about the Fox's weapon

What I can confirm for everyone is that her weapon is widely universal, to an extent.

Along with what I said above, it's also technically a certain Archon's best in slot

(I can not say who the Archon is exactly, but I'll attempt to prove what I can with screenshots of said character. They can buff their element for their entire team)

TL note : They're talking about Kusanali

This was likely before the weapon was leaked because there was some speculation about what Yae's weapon would do. LINK

Widely universal? So that's means her weapon boosts All elemental damage?

This leak is not confirmed true as of 6/29/22. But if it is, it likely means that the Dendro Archon has her skill on a short cooldown and does a lot of (if not all) damage through said skill.

First information regarding Collei leaked, alongside some information about new characters. Seems both Collei and Tighnari were established by this point. ~~Not sure if it's possible but the "sword" could be a mistranslation of "claymore" or it could be a reference to the hydro sword~~

~~Nileu~~. It is in fact a mistranslation. The characters for “one hand sword” and “big sword” are very similar. LINK

"[Collei]"

"[A leaker from Bahamut]"

"Collei is Dendro. Already established two sets of bow and one sword kit."

"Will be released in 3.0 if there are no issues."

"Dendro Archon in 3.1."

"There is a new main DPS, Cryo, Claymore, who is similar to Itto (NA and CA focused)."

"Works perfectly well with Shenhe."

"Subject to change."

[Updated, Credits: themad95]

They also mentioned not to skip hydro characters since they will be good in the future.

According to a comment, this leaker is a fake leaker who intends to bait real leakers into correcting him to catch them. LINK

This White Bear intended on "leaking" fake info trying to bait real Uncle to post comment to "correct" him then report back to miHoYo. (Not sure if it is the real motivation though) There's currently a heated discussion on this right now at NGA.

There's a screenshot of WB' dm which says "I send the fake news, you got it now?"

The whole point is, this is fake and don't buy anything WB said (don't miss hydro...)

Honestly it would make sense if the false archon thing is true

The actual dendro archon is some dude in the basement and he sends his kid out to be all cute and soak up all the public attention.

Alternatively, he uses Kusanali as a shield because it's hard to get upset at a child. It's not the first time genshin's explored that plotline after all...

translation for 2.8 to 3.2 supposed timeline.

some rough, but also unrealistic leaks (upcoming characters)

2.8: anemo boxer (heizou)
3.0: 5* male dendro bow, 4* female electro sword, 4* female dendro bow
3.1: 5* female hydro catalyst, 5* male electro gun(?) (TN: I want to say this is polearm), 4* female electro catalyst
3.2: 5* female dendro catalyst (dendro archon), 4* cryo sword (no gender given)

4* dendro bow should be Collei and the 5* male electro gun (polearm?) is Cyno, the rest are not currently known characters.

watermelonred (melon)

@waatermelonred

another TN that I didn't catch at the time: The chinese word for gun and polearm are the same word, so it is referring to an 5* male electro polearm (cyno), not a gun (silly me)

I doubt Sumeru is going to have dark-skinned characters, tbh. My personal theory is that Natlan is going to be the region where we'll see dark-skinned characters instead, as it's the only region that we have never seen an NPC from. We've seen plenty of Sumeru characters and so far, none of them had a darker skin tone.

Krangled Artifacts

Or Zhongli/Interlude chapter 3, where we find out more about the Chi sealed around Qingce Village

The world quest where we find that massive golden ball under the mountain is unfinished - only 2 of the 5 parts of the Chi are in accessible areas of the game (The cave with the Golden Ball, and the Lavawalker Domain).

- 2 of the parts are west of Qingce, which is roughly where Qiaoying Village will be (connecting to Fontaine)
- 1 is between Qingce & Stormterror's lair, and actually has a visible mountain outside the explorable area

There are simply too many loose ends in that quest; The golden ball is very likely the power source of the Chi, which the Abyss Order will want to replace the Field Tiller's core. In the world quest, we unlocked the seals so anyone can steal it. Also mihoyo has been repeatedly making references/fixing the quest since release ~~Someone at MiHoYo fucked up and released the devkit or something and as such we gained access to models of characters not released in 3.0~~ Models appearing in 3.0 were all leaked in a large "group picture", even those not getting a banner in 3.0. At first it was theorized that a devkit was leaked but it seems likely the other models will simply appear in story cutscenes.

BLANK leaks that Collei will be a free character in 3.0.

BLANK 🔦 Today at 23:24

@everyone (Questionable)

Collei will be given as a free unit in 3.0

I also saw a guy mention that this would break the free weapon-character-weapon-character cycle that mihooyo has. There will also be a free weapon, but that information is very fishy.

LINK

Significant-Box8079 · 3 days ago

That wont break the pattern. The character/weapon pattern only applies to temporary events. Getting a free character like you do with xiangling or barbara is a permanent opportunity. For example, you had to complete a few floors of the abyss to get a free xiangling

These leaks are the reason people assume a devkit had gotten leaked, since only Dori, Collie, and Tighnari were slated for 3.0 thus she had to come in 3.1 or later. However, it's much more likely that a private tester/MHY employee is responsible for leaking this since Dehya received no leaks.
