

George Jr. High
Promise Standards
English 8th Grade

- Students will be able to cite evidence.
- Students will be able to write an objective summary, determine theme(s) of a text, and write a thematic statement.
- Students will analyze dialogue and how it propels action or shows character.
- Students will be able to determine the author's point of view, perspective, and purpose.
- Students will become familiar with different mediums, including technology, and be able to publish their work.
- Students will write original narratives.
- Students will write explanatory/informational texts to examine or compare topics.