TA-- FA21 MATH 2550-L05, G05 Introduction to Multivariable Calculus (~20 students each)

He was always active and thoroughly explained concepts when necessary.
helpful
He is legitimate best TA I've ever had.
Great teacher
He was a very happy and cheerful TA.
He was an incredible TA that constantly went above and beyond. He was always available by email, through Canvas messages, and on Piazza. He was so helpful and was very passionate about the material. He would explain concepts thoroughly and simply at his studio sessions, and he would check with us students to see how he could improve.
He was incredibly good at explaining concepts, and went above and beyond to provide us test review sessions and study guides that helped me immensely when it came to studying for tests.
Very helpful and knowledgeable.
Excellent communication skills and deep knowledge of the content
The way he explained concepts made everything make sense and he took time to make sure everyone in the office hours understood
Stanley was a phenomenal TA in every aspect!! He was highly interactive with students through review sessions and Piazza, and he clearly works very hard to help everyone in the class. He was incredibly accessible and went above and beyond in his effort compared to the other TAs.
Was very friendly and available for students that needed help
Was very helpful!
He was very enthusiastic when teaching
He is easy to talk to.
Very nice and passionate
Good at explaining
Good overall
His preparedness was his biggest strength.
good communication
Very nice.
The review videos after each module were very helpful for conceptual understanding
He asked questions to ensure engagement.
Sent me a nice email about checking in with progress
He was literally the nicest person and was super open to help the kids with their work. He also was very well-prepared.

Making math easier
Very helpful and approachable, prepared students a LOT for all exams and always available to help on assignments
He knew multi concepts very well.
Stanley was highly organized and always provided us with extra resources to help us better understand the material and prepare for tests.
Communication was fast and effective
He was always there to host the review sessions before the exams, and it was so helpful.
His ability to explain concepts at their most basic level in a relatable way.
Made the sessions somewhat entertaining/engaging
TA was very open.
Great at communicating and teaching with his notes.
He organized all his work and asked students how to approach problems. He worked actively to allow students to succeed.
He was very good at explaining concepts and made review videos for each test, as well as some of the content videos.
Working with students in the sessions and being highly interactive answering students' questions
TA was prompt
This TA had very effective explanations of the problems during studio sessions and the writing was very easy to look at.
Module Test Review Videos. Loved them!!!
Hes knowledgeable.
Making sure students understood all of the concepts applicable to each studio session.
Intuition and Explaining
Oral communication skills
Their greatest strength was their engagement. I felt very engaged and enjoyed my time during their sessions.
very informative and nice
He always help study sessions before module test which were very helpful.
Stanley is exceptional! He is incredibly lenient, understanding, and extremely knowledgeable about this course! He was always available to answer questions in extra sessions the Sundays before exams, which helped me tremendously!!!! He's the best!!!!
Went through each example carefully.
He reached out quite often to check up on my wellbeing and progress in the course.
Enthusiasm and great teaching skills

Stanley was so prepared and made sure that everyone was on the same page during TA sessions. He had much office hour availability and was always super helpful. He took time to explain concepts with more detail and made the learning environment great.

Great at explaining concepts and working out problems.

Stanley made an effort to reach out to students to get their thoughts on the course and provide support throughout the year. I knew that if I attended his studio sessions or office hours that he would explain concepts clearly and effectively.

He was really good at explaining the content.

Stanley's greatest strength was communication skills.

very knowledgeable of the subject and good at speaking clarity

Stanley was always on Piazza and helped the day before quizzes or tests, making sure students' questions were answered.

I loved the One Note reviews and cheat sheets. They were one of my favorite resources for reviews.

Very friendly throughout difficult questions

I think that he was exceptional in all regards.

He is great.

Honestly can't think of everything, Stanley is a great example of what a TA should be.

Stanley was perfect.

Very helpful in reviewing before tests.

Amazing!

He was a great TA.

I would not have survived this course without Stanley's review sessions, advice, and resources. I have done incredibly well on tests and the midterm partly due to his effort. He made me more confident in my ability to work through this course, and I felt less lost compared to how I felt during linear algebra. Stanley deserves extreme praise for his hard-work, and my standards for future TAs have increased dramatically because of him.

very respectful of the students' time and explained everything very well.

I really loved his office hours.

very good at teaching

He was very eager to answer any questions!

I think Stanley is one of the best TAs I have ever had because he is so invested in helping the students learn the material. He went above and beyond in this course (hosting extra study sessions, extra help sessions, emailing answers to questions) and he is very deserving of praise and appreciation for his hard work!

In my opinion, he was the best studio session TA.

I felt like I learned the most from him and that he was really effective.

Does job well

I loved him!! he was so sweet, and helpful and had an amazing attitude. highkey hoping hes my TA again
He's super nice!
Very good job as a TA!
Very helpful and accessible.
Great overall. No complaints.
Overall I believe that this TA did an excellent job, they clearly explained all material and were easy to talk to.
He's very dedicated to his work.
Very thorough when communicating course concepts and important dates but could spend more time working practice problems on the studio worksheets.
Very cool teacher
He was very approachable and always offered to provide me with assistance if needed.
Knew his stuff
The TA had a good attitude and was easily accessible understood every question asked and provided a detailed response
This TA was regularly available for help should I have needed it.
He was very organized, went over all the material in addition to examples, and made documents to help study.
The level of preparedness. Oftentimes, there was a full set of notes, with picture and detailed explanations, which covered course concepts clearly.
was very thorough in all his explanations of problems and course content.
Helped improve my understanding of material
He helped me a lot with study skills and strategies for this course
This TA interacted a lot with students explained the reasoning for using formulas well easy to contact and fast responses
Great explanations during office hours
Was able to explain difficult concepts effectively
What a bro!
He was so friendly! Always a welcoming presence
He was always super accessible and very encouraging! I found his recorded review sessions to be helpful, either to look back on or when I couldn't attend one live, and the review guides he created in class notebook were awesome!
reviews sessions, attitude, availability, concern for students
Great instruction of material and explanation and great grading
Organization, ability to answer questions and stay on track for time great explanations for quiz questions during office hours clear feedback and explanations

Great orator.
He was very patient and explained each concept in a clear manner.
Helpful & attentive to students amazing overall
Stanley was very enthusiastic about the course and always willing to help! Stanley was always willing to host extra sessions to address any lingering questions before tests and I think those sessions were extremely helpful for this course! I cannot thank him enough because he really did go above and beyond as he invested a lot of his time in order to help the students in this course.
He reached out to every student in an email and asked if we needed help. He always tried to make sure all students knew the concepts well.
Knew the content of the course very thoroughly.
Stanley answered questions and made sure we understood the material for both the studio and for the tests. He was enthusiastic about the topic and kept us engaged. Could tell that he spends time and cares about helping students.
A very good artist!!
Teaching us material during OH
Practicing examples and explaining them.
Stanley was very approachable if you had problems extremely good at explaining concepts and drawing/writing to aid his explanations.
I personally found this TA's greatest strength to be their approachability, as they were very easy to reach out to.
He is incredible at explaining concepts in accessible ways and engaging students. He is extremely approachable and patient.
Great explanations of difficult concepts
interacting with students
Engaged Students
The TA had beautiful notes, problem examples, and review materials that were actually helpful.
good for studio sessions
Very thorough in explanations and extroverted.
So many good things to say it's hard to pick one. Always available (I believe until midnight on the days before test days), very clear notes and was always prepared at TA sessions.
HE'S PERFECT. OH MY GOD. EVERYTHING EXPLAINED SO CLEARLY AND SO KIND AND ENGAGING AND SO ORGANIZED AND SUCH GOOD HANDWRITING AND SO READY TO HELP ON ANYTHING INCLUDING PIAZZA. NO SHORT OF GOOD THINGS TO SAY HERE ily
Stanley was an awesome TA! His review sessions and visuals during office hours were always so helpful and he helped to gather resources to help us prepare for the test and organized the OneNote notebook very well.

His greatest strength is the fact he can be cheerful at 8am, I can't made the course smooth

Takes the extra step

Stanley was a FANTASTIC TA. He always came to studio and review sessions extremely prepared, and made sure each and every student was getting a good understanding of what he was teaching. He helped clear up much of my confusion in studios, and I am so thankful to have had him as a TA.

Communication of problems and solutions; detailed responses to questions on Piazza along with effective Office Hours sessions.

explained every step of their process clearly

There are no areas where he needs major improvement.

Most needed improvement is nothing!

I think he has mastered all elements of being a successful TA.

I have absolutely zero complaints he was wonderful.

He's incredibly engaged and committed to helping the students, he most likely played a huge role in the fact I got an A on the midterm. Overall, super helpful & the best TA I have ever had.

The best TA I've ever had in a class! He made office hours something to look forward to.

I can not think of any major improvements Stanley needed to make. He was great.

Great experience with Stanley

His work for each problem helped a lot for each module and problems.

One of the most helpful resources for me in this course was Stanley Pritchard's exam review sessions that he held on the weekend before a Module test. He would go over course content, relevant and important concepts, study strategies, and answer questions about any misconceptions me or another student have. I so appreciate this resource and the effort he made to prepare us for module tests and reinforce content in this course.

Excellent TA!

Stanley was an incredible TA - truly one-of-a-kind! His thorough, detailed explanations were really helpful before exams.

Stanley was incredibly helpful throughout this entire course! Thank you for everything!

made the course much better, truly an amazing TA

Amazing TA! Motivated and helped so much with this course!

I liked working with him and believe he's really great at teaching.

It was really fun being able to meet this TA.

He reached out to me to introduce himself and see if I needed help and it made me feel appreciated.

I did not interact with this TA. However, he did contact me once checking on my preparedness. I really appreciated that extra effort.

Stanley is awesome.

very nice and encouraging during hard concepts.

very smart

He is the perfect TA. I really appreciate how much effort he put into being a TA this semester. His studios were always organized, engaging, and efficient. He clearly has a great grasp of the class because he was very effective at explaining concepts in his own words and making large ideas accessible and understandable. He was so engaged with students. He always was answering questions on Piazza and hosting extra review sessions. Considering how busy GT students are with their own course load, he invested a great deal of his own time into making this course a better experience for us! No shortage of good things to say about him. All my friends and I agree he is absolutely amazing.

Overall, Stanley was a wonderful and very helpful TA.

Great TA, would highly recommend.

Good lectures

He is a great TA and did really well explaining the content.

Exceptional TA!

Appreciate the help.

Thorough and well prepared

Overall, this TA taught effectively and helped me understand this course.

The TA was prepared and well spoken.

KEEP TEACHING PLEASE. DIFFERENTIAL EQ'S NEXT IN PERSON!!!!

Great TA and very supportive toward students' questions.

I appreciated the review session videos!

Best TA I have had so far

Awesome TA!

I'm grateful for the work he has done this year by holding review sessions before each module test, as this has greatly benefitted my understanding of Multivariable Calculus. His teaching methods were clear and succinct, as well as the artsy diagrams "schematics" he drew which immensely facilitated my understanding.

Extremely patient & helpful

Communication. Frequently uses verbal confirmations

Helpful, reachable and easy to understand

Very very kind and understanding towards the students, and very helpful with extra resources, worksheet guides, study materials.

He's got really good resources (e.g. notes, study guides, study helpers, good study sessions)

nice and understanding, good at explaining math concepts, attentive towards class

Help with information that professor does not explain thoroughly

The TA is great at explaining problems, conveying the necessary information and is very kind.

Great!

The TA's greatest strength was his enthusiasm for the material and his concern for students.
Very proactive. Regular review sessions and regularly available to answer questions or consult with.
The way the class was held was very intuitive
Awesome person. It takes a lot to be a TA and also juggle classes, and I think he did a great job. I solidified my understanding of a lot of topics by coming to these recitations.
Answers questions clearly
Really nice and smart perfect TA
Group Work is good and the problems are easy to understand after a walkthrough.
I think his style and system of getting us through the worksheets is very effective and very good
Good at explaining new concepts
He is good at getting us to engage with the material
Very receptive and tries to get everyone to understand
He is very understanding and making sure we understand the material.
He goes through the problems very well
Friendly, receptive, and helpful geared towards students.
Stanley was good at explaining things and was really really nice.
Stanley was very good at making sure his students learning needs were met, frequently asking his students what they liked / disliked and changing ways of teaching
Great at taking feedback
He was really good, really happy I got his as my studio TA.
He was very entertaining
The TA was very helpful for my understanding of the course material, and showed concern for my wellbeing and progress in the course.
He was incredibly kind and a delight of a teacher
Stanley is the GOAT
