

QUIZ 8-12

Directions: Cut and paste the sentence. Fix the error in the pasted sentence. If it is correct, then write "correct".

- 1 Doug taught his children the importance of knowledge, virtue, and working hard.
2. After learning sign language our communication was much easier.
3. Everyone needs time to relax.
4. The locked car had been stolen right in front of the house and right in the middle of the day, infuriating both the owner of the car and the police.
5. Caught between the influences of Romanticism and Modernism and the philosophy of Emerson and the Imagism of Ezra Pound Robert Frost writes about the beauty and horror in nature.
6. In the Socratic method of teaching, a teacher leads a student through a series of questions so they ascertain the desired conclusions.
7. That bag of oranges look fresh.
8. Studying for the big exam is more important than if I watch that movie.

9. Everyone at the company's headquarters knows the code to the safe.

10. Unfortunately, the committee hasn't started their search for a new president.

11. The joys associated with running rivers, especially if one is a novice boater and new to the river, escapes me.

12. To succeed in school classes should be attended.

13. Neither of the children will do their work.

14. After working in the garden for hours, Jim's back was hurt.

15. Many people saw the show, but only a few reported their reaction to it.