

For People Who Want More...

A mind-breaking title that made the readers hooked. Now readers thought what do you mean? more of what? Now the readers want to know more about it and will continue reading to find out the answers to those questions.

... The SMALL & EASY Productivity Tweaks You Can Use As Soon As Tomorrow Morning To Get A LOT MORE Done... With WAY LESS Effort!

Giving the readers what they want to hear making a bold claim. Getting rid of any thoughts that will make them think they can't do it or it's going to be hard. He also made the time span really shot. All of this made this a really good deal.

My name is Matt, and I'm the in-house copywriter at Rapid Crush, Inc.

Among other things, that means I get to work with Jason Fladlien on almost a daily basis.

And working so close with Jason, I've uncovered his secret. I know WHY exactly Jason Fladlien isn't painting houses for $12/hour anymore and is making millions online instead. The reason is...

A small introduction about himself and what he does. Here readers will know what this article is about and who the article is for (targeted clients) while others who don't know copywriting and Jason Fladlien will probably leave but it does not matter because he got the attention from whom he wanted that attention.

Jason's Productivity Is EPIC!

You'd have to see it first hand to believe it... But trust me, it's legendary.

Long form sales letters in 3-4 hours, fully formatted and ready to publish. Email swipes in 15 minutes or less. Complete marketing strategies for consulting clients in 40 minutes. And so on.

Even more importantly... the son of a gun is able to teach ANYONE to be productive!

For example, when I read Jason's "Double Your Productivity" course... My productivity TRIPLED.

... And that's not even a very good result. I'm about to reveal how you can get even better results, but first...

He introduces you to a successful productivity plan here which he will later compare his new offer (productivity plan) with. Telling you things he achieved, all the things you can achieve, how anyone can do it, and also how easy it is.

I Want To Ask You A Question...

Imagine the following scenario.

You're able to let go of your overwhelm. You're able to breeze through your TODO list. Achieve all of your goals almost effortlessly - every day.

Be completely productive, your mind always present in the now.

If you were able to get twice as much done with half the effort... wouldn't that change your life almost IMMEDIATELY?

If that sounds like something you'd like, you're going to love Jason's latest productivity training.

Introducing...

Here he plays a movie in the mind of the reader. Where they are and where they can be, how fast it will help them, and the amount of time they can save. He also used bold letters and underlines to catch the attention of the readers. He also builds some curiosity about how they can get there to their dream state.

Absolute Productivity

... Laser-like Focus And An Instant Productivity Boost For Marketers!

Here's what's covered in the training:

- ➔ Why productivity should be "optional" and a byproduct of doing _____...
- ➔ The biggest time wasters in internet marketing and how to completely kill them once and for all...
- ➔ How to actually manage Facebook in an efficient and profitable way...
- ➔ What parts of time management can be learned and what parts must be "conditioned"
- ➔ How to immediately free up 2 free productive hours each day starting tomorrow
- ➔ And more...

This training is delivered as a webinar recording - you can watch it any time, pause, fast forward/rewind and start immediately applying these explosive productivity techniques.

Here he makes bullet points where he teases giving some details but not all. He talks about how he will help the readers overcome their competition, how fast they will be able to implement it and free up their time, and how convenient it is for them to learn.

... And You're Getting In At An Absolute Bargain!

Even if you only implement ONE technique of all what you're going to learn... And that one technique leads you to a breakthrough in your business...

Would you agree that for almost a guaranteed increase in your productivity for life... Paying $299.95 and even more would be an insane bargain?

In fact, if you were to pick Jason's brain one on one for his productivity secrets, you'd have to shell out $300 per hour - and probably wait when there's a spot available in his schedule.

So even if Jason charged $149.95 for this... I'd pay that and not even flinch.

But this is going to be a no-brainer. Check this out...

Right now, you can grab the recording and watch it at your leisure for just... $49.95!

Here he explains how expensive it can usually be to get this information and then compares it to the price you are getting it for. This way the reader knows they are getting more than what they are paying for. He also includes you will be a no-brainer if you don't get this offer, to get on the reader's ego.

Obviously, There's No Risk...

If, after watching the training, you feel you haven't gotten 100 times your money's worth... Jason absolutely, positively demands that you write to our support desk and ask for your money back. And you'll get it without any hassle!

Remember, we only want you to spend money on products that you're getting value out of!

He also includes no risk to the reader so they can be more willing to buy.

No Matter How Far Along Are You, This Is The Missing Ingredient...

Whether you're trying to build your online business while keeping your full time job (nothing wrong with that) or you're a freelancer, Jason's productivity training will take you to the next level.

The question is, will you let that happen?

He also ensures the readers who may think they may not benefit from this.

P.S. I bought this training myself... Why? Because I know from experience what even a little change in my productivity habits and focus will result in over the next couple of months and beyond... and second, Jason knows how to teach - you get exciting, actionable info from the first minute to the last. See you inside!

P.P.S. Make sure you act now. Even though we don't have plans to raise the price right away, we might lock this product away to do an upgrade and charge more!

Here he puts a time limit on the offer further encouraging the readers to buy the product.
