So, I put a coin in this machine and get a car? That sounds like a good deal to me, how do I sign up? Wait a minute, what do you mean I have to pay $20,000 for that coin?!

<https://www.tiktok.com/@firststatefish/video/6848389598855318789>

A live bait and tackle machine. I think I've seen everything now. How often do they have to change out the items in the machine though? I mean, you can't keep live worms and fish in there indefinitely. And what do you do if it gets stuck? Can you imagine hitting the side of the machine to make your purchase fall and then everything breaks open and there's fish and worms everywhere on the inside of the machine? Yeah, who thought this was a good idea again?

<https://www.tiktok.com/@fnmekka/video/6845363447471885573>

I guess this machine is dope... or you could just go buy those candies for like 1 five millionth of those prices. And I thought $2 for a candy bar was expensive now! This vending machine is like what happens with inflation in a thousand years! Guys, this is the future, and it ain't pretty.

<https://i.imgur.com/VzfUALq.gifv>

Forget the ice cream, I want that robot! Can he cook all my meals? That would be awesome. Ooh, does he do laundry too? Seriously, sign me up for one of those!

Guys, Japan has a rice vending machine. A RICE VENDING MACHINE. Not only do I want this in my home country, but it's so economical and smart! This is reduce/reuse/recycle at its finest! I'd get one of these and just set it up in my house. How do I buy one of these?

<https://www.tiktok.com/@claw2kicker/video/6791920167170346246> MUTE

$1 to get $10,000? That sounds like a good deal to me! Is this machine for real, and if it is, how do I get one? Money may not grow on trees but coming out of a vending machine works for me!

I don't need a new car, but I'd be so down to buy one if it meant I could try this. But what do you do if the vending machine gets stuck? You definitely couldn't hit the side of this machine to get the car to fall. Actually, if my new car got stuck and then fell down the machine, I would just cry. I don't know if car insurance covers that.

https://www.reddit.com/r/interestingasfuck/comments/grhw2e/cardboard_vending_machine/

So it's totally not practical, but it's really cool! This whole vending machine is made out of cardboard and rubber bands! Oh, yeah, and a guy in the back to reload the food. But even if there's a power outage this vending machine will still work. Just don't come near with a box cutter or scissors...

<https://www.tiktok.com/@travelmomoirs/video/6844950101526416645>

Wow, did you see the prices of those slices? (And hey, I totally rhymed there!) Nearly $9 a slice! That's a little over a dollar per cake layer. But wow, worth every penny. This are cakes by Cake Boss? This vending machine is boss! If you need me, I'll be in Vegas, playing the cake machine.

<https://www.tiktok.com/@smartvendingmachines/video/6788319087094287622> MUTE

Ooh, for a minute I thought this was a vending machine for Tiffany's jewelry, but it's actually a perfume vending machine inside a Tiffany's store! Can you imagine if it was a jewelry vending machine though? And someone asks you to marry him and then tells you he bought your ring out of a vending machine? That would be the world's shortest engagement!

<https://9gag.com/gag/a7EvjxL>

This is only awesome if you're returning an empty soda can for recycling. A dollar for an empty can? Yes, please. But if you're turning in a FULL can, then I would totally pass. Even if you bought a case of soda I think each can would still be about a dollar, so you're not really gaining anything by doing this. Have I completely burst your dollar vending machine dreams with my dose of realism? #sorrynotsorry

Another unusual vending machine, this time Kylie cosmetics? Where is this? Oh... Nevada. They seem to have all the good stuff. That's a crazy expensive price for lipstick though, and you can't even wear it until after the pandemic unless you want to get it all over your mask! What will you do with it until then?

<https://www.tiktok.com/@lyssynoel/video/6799840597076102405>

Wait a sec... TikTok has a vending machine? And a motel? And most importantly, FREE SNACKS? Where is this magical place and why has no one told me about it before this??

At first when she said Lash Machine I thought she was selling eye makeup products, like eyeshadow and fake lashes. So I got really confused when I saw all the candy in her vending machine. You guys, Lash is the name of her business! This is her showing off her side hustle. You go girl! What a fun small business to have!

<https://www.tiktok.com/@yupthatexists/video/6888459294480682241>

A snowball vending machine? Haha I love the line: "This was created by a Minnesota company to show you can sell pretty much anything." Yes, yes you can. If you live in a cold weather area (hello, look at where I'm from!) then you would never even need to buy this product. Just wait a few months, and you'll be rolling in it. Sometimes literally.

Guys, this is some next level vending machine stuff going on here! A pizza vending machine? Must try this. And even better, there are over twenty locations here in Canada? That's it, I'm going on a road trip RIGHT NOW.

https://www.reddit.com/r/nevertellmetheodds/comments/edokkn/look_at_the_way_those_bottles_are_put_inside_the/

I can't tell if this vending machine is funny or disturbing. I think it's a little bit of both. How would you even know what items are in there? Someone should fix this, stat.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=v-sfgzDB8g>

Okay, this is really cool! A vending machine that gives you laptops? Kind of makes me want to go back to university... Too bad you can't KEEP the laptop. What happens if you borrow it and never return it? Do they take it out of your tuition? Fine you? Stop you from graduating? I must know. If you know, if they have these at your school, please tell me.

<https://www.tiktok.com/@misshaleymichelle/video/6900634486652833030>

Wow, sticker machines sure have changed since I was a kid. They used to give out rainbows and teddy bears and unicorns. Now you can get a Pennywise tattoo? Is there a rating on this sticker machine? Who knew they had PG-13 sticker vending machines? Oh... there's Elsa. I didn't know Frozen was considered a horror movie!

<https://i.imgur.com/1AZveoW.gifv>

This vending machine comes with a human inside to give you that personal touch. That girl is surprisingly calm for some random guy opening a door and slapping a scoop of ice cream on her cone. I'd have run away screaming by now. She's got nerves of steel. You remember that horror movie tattoo vending machine from the last video? She probably buys from that all the time.

This world is such a better place now that I know pizza vending machines exist. Whoever invented these things, I salute you. Although I gotta say, this pizza doesn't look as good as the pizza that came out of the other vending machine. If I had to pick, I'd go with the first one. What about you guys? Which pizza would you prefer? Let me know in the comments.

How does someone get this job? I think it's actually kind of cool. Just don't let them see your face, you don't want to ruin the illusion. Otherwise it will end up like some kind of weird Wizard of Oz thing: "Pay no attention to the man inside the vending machine!"

<https://www.tiktok.com/@cyouinseoul/video/6931888531098930434>

Okay, so if you follow the video's captions apparently this is a promotional thing that Kpop groups do as part of their "comeback". Fans can buy these photocards, called Lucky Draw, and they get them through these fun vending machines. Here's the crazy part: The way Lucky Draw works is, you get one Lucky Draw for each album you purchase. So watching this video, I gotta know... HOW MANY ALBUMS DID SHE BUY??? I feel like that was several weeks' allowance there... or maybe her college education fund!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nU6IXIME5Qs>

I mean, I guess it's cool? I'm not a fan of bugs, so I don't know that I'd want to buy even a toy one from a vending machine, no matter how awesome the vending machine was. It definitely catches your eye! If it was me, I'd probably have screamed seeing all those big bugs before realizing they were fake.

<https://www.tiktok.com/@champagnegatsby/video/6914641380463676677>

Ooh check this vending machine out! I'd toast to this! Sometimes you just need some bubbly in your life. And even better, the token was free from the hotel's front desk. Where is this place again? Excuse me, I need to take a vacation.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hRWqgZ4yGac>

Oh wow, if that vending machine doesn't put a smile on your face, I don't know what will! I'd buy one even if I didn't need a balloon just to see the machine at work. Seriously, this balloon vending machine could keep me entertained for hours.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=eBuLzMExfDk>

Woah, guys, check this out! It's a vending machine cafe! I'd have so much fun in this place, I'd want to try everything just to see how the machines all work! Seriously, this place has everything -- meals, drinks, snacks and dessert. Have we gone to convenience food heaven?

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CWNXJSAp13o>

This is so brilliant. Not just because who doesn't love Skittles? But because this is the way Skittles should be done! Come on, who hasn't eaten a bag of Skittles by color, and you save your favorite color for last? Being able to get a whole scoop of JUST your favorite flavor would be absolutely perfect! Maybe a nightmare for my dentist, but perfect for me!

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=GpHjRysbM_Q

Okay, I have a total chicken and the egg question here. Which came first, this toilet paper vending machine or the pandemic? I feel like it could go either way. It doesn't seem super hygienic, the way the TP is spit out of the machine. And yet, if this was created before the pandemic, I don't even think this machine would have made it out of 2020 alive. Someone would have busted into it before then. So, which is it? Someone let me know!

It was only a matter of time before someone created an Among Us vending machine... I guess I'm surprised I didn't see this earlier. Or is this really real? It looks like a claw machine, and we know those things are totally rigged. If that's not sus, I don't know what is.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=PDFjCNDrRgw>

1:00 - I would just buy a ton of cotton candy to watch this thing spin sugar All. Day. Long. Seriously, can I just get one for my house and plug it in and let it do its thing? It just draws you in. You just can't look away. On second thought, maybe I shouldn't get one of these. I'd never get anything done.

<https://www.tiktok.com/@froggirl99/video/6798499597330156801>

A vending machine that sells airpods? That's pretty cool. A friend who doesn't even bat an eyelash and just whips out her card when you say, "I don't have any money" and BUYS IT FOR YOU... that's amazing. Everyone needs a friend like that.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=M6eIs6B4MTU>

Okay, not only does this look like a ton of fun, and something I would totally want to do, but I'm thinking it's the only claw machine in the ENTIRE UNIVERSE that isn't rigged! Definitely gotta try this. Or at least be on the receiving end and get some snacks! And if you're thinking of doing this and acting like a "real claw" by picking up something and then dropping it before it gets to the chute? Yeah, no. Don't be that guy.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=b6_Ep2IKtTE

A cheese vending machine? Such an amazing idea, why did no one think of this before? Where is this? Switzerland? Makes sense... they've got great chocolate, and great cheese. Any country that has those two things is a great place in my book.

Welcome to your one stop vending machine shopping center... Need a quick dinner? Something to drink? Bandaid? Or more personal items? I mean, as long as my bandaid doesn't smell like bologna, I'd be down for this.

<https://www.tiktok.com/@lyssynoe/video/6802250171301268741>

A cupcake vending machine? Yes, please! But I wouldn't buy just ONE. I'd want to buy the whole machine! How much for the whole machine?

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nEYdAd5jQg4>

This is a champagne vending machine in Vegas. Why am I not surprised? I'm beginning to think Nevada is one big vending machine at this point. Not that there's anything wrong with that...

<https://9gag.com/gag/aoMEgp2>

Hey, how'd that cat get in there? Actually, if I could win a cat through a vending machine, that would be kind of cool. Although there's gotta be a more humane way of getting the cat out. I'll keep working on this idea. But yes, I would totally want to win the cat.

<https://www.tiktok.com/@jackthebackpacker/video/6906524382009527553>

A milk vending machine... it's an interesting idea. You could just buy the bottle and not get the milk, but I don't think you get any money back for doing that. Or what if you just brought your own container and didn't buy a bottle, would the milk dispenser still work? How do you know if the milk is fresh or not, where's the expiration date? Now that I'm really thinking about this, it's just making me have more and more questions.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=v0Zh7uA3aRU>

1:03 - I want to try this! You put ice cream with vending machine and it's just an automatic win! And that is a brilliant place to put the spoon. Guys, are you taking notes? Because I totally am. I have so many places to visit when we can travel safely again! Starting with all these vending machines. So. Much. Food. Delicious!

<https://pin.it/3VcU1ZO>

That claw is evil. That hack is brilliant. Does it work on the laptops too? Need a follow up video! Also, where is this magical land where vending machines have laptops and iPhones because I totally need to go there!

<https://i.redd.it/zkj43nx34z561.jpg>

Ooh, a vintage Coke machine! Those things are the cutest! I'd just get one for my house. Seriously at this point my house would be a mishmash of all the random things I've seen on these videos, but I don't care. It would look epic, and that's all that matters.

<https://pin.it/6EqyiuJ>

For when you need a fast food fix and just can't be bothered to deal with humans... I get it, this makes fast food even faster! I wonder, does it have the full menu? Good thing McDonald's isn't one of those restaurants with a secret menu, or you'd never be able to use this thing.

https://giphy.com/gifs/H1kNlrKmpbLJLyFvbX?utm_source=iframe&utm_medium=embed&utm_campaign=Embeds&utm_term=https%3A%2F%2Finterestingengineering.com%2F

A vending machine that sells face masks? Only in 2020 and 2021... you know some guy thought of this like ten years ago and everyone at his company shot him down. "No one's going to buy face masks from a vending machine!" Well, who's laughing now?

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=p_V5UPqX-Cc MUTE

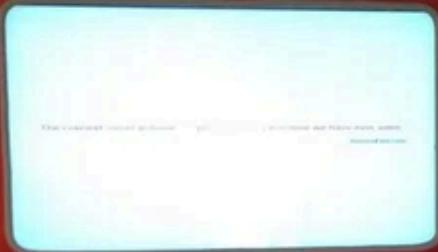

Not as good as the electronics claw machine, but at least you don't have to worry that your magnet hack could destroy your new iPhone. Or swear at the darn claw for purposely losing that laptop that you wanted. But then again, you have to pay full price for these Apple products, so there's that. You win some, you lose some, I guess.

It's the perfect vending machine for when you're running late for work! Hope you can find a tie that matches your outfit though...

All these pizza vending machines! I kind of want to try them all. Even if they taste like cardboard, it's just such a cool idea!

Once you pop, you can't stop! And now you don't have to, just keep feeding coins in and spinning the dial! I would buy tons of chips just to see how this machine works. Who's with me?

If you forgot to buy anything and everything for your upcoming trip, just stop here and buy all the things! Also makes a great stop for last minute gifts if you didn't buy anything for the people you're visiting on your vacation.

Here's a vending machine for those last minute orchestral needs. I don't know about you, but there have been so many times I was like, "Wow, my violin string broke and I need a new one right away!" So many times! And I don't even play. Looks like there are woodwind reeds and instrument polish in there too. They thought of everything!

Not just a Lego vending machine, guys, this one sells Lego SETS. Yes, please. Take all my money, now.

Who knew there were so many flavors of mustard in the world? The makers of this vending machine did. I love how the sign on the machine says, "This is the world's first and ONLY all-mustard vending machine." Wear that sign with pride!

Here's a vending machine for when you want farm fresh food but can't be bothered to actually GO to the farm. Gives a new meaning of "from farm to table". So you just put your money in, and pick the item you want... wait, did I just hear mooing? Wow, this really is farm fresh!

A mashed potato vending machine, but the picture on the machine isn't doing it for me. It looks more like a potato volcano experiment gone wrong. And what's with sticking the containers on the outside of the machine? Were they trying to go for a 3D effect here? You need a new marketing strategy, guys.

I know at some restaurants they let you pick out your own lobster when you order it, but this is a whole new level of interaction. I'd be so pissed if I ordered lobster, and when they told me to pick it out, I couldn't pick it up with the machine's claw. Or worse, got the wrong lobster. Also, did anyone else notice the irony here? A claw machine to pick up lobsters? 'Cause, you know, they also have claws...

I would totally buy a car from a vending machine, even if it's just for the novelty of doing it that way. But I gotta wonder, if you buy from this machine, what if you want another color? Where are they putting the extras? Because this particular vending machine doesn't look big enough to fit multiple cars. Is this little yellow car your only option? I gotta see how this machine works, is there a YouTube video or a TikTok out there somewhere that shows how? Let me know!
