

SARA

She started going to the kindergarten when she was just a baby and she spent there a long time everyday.

She attended a private school which was religious. She liked it because the nuns were very kind.

Now she likes her class a lot because everybody is very friendly.

Her favourite subject is English and her least favourite subject is maths.

She has basketball twice a week as an extracurricular activity

In her opinion a good teacher should be friendly, fun and patient