Prek: Teachers will rate each student utilizing the GOLD Assessment throughout each 9 weeks, finalizing at the end of each 9-week check-point. Final check-points will be utilized as the Report Card for each 9-week marking period. Students will not have a progress report, only a report card. Report Cards will be printed by each teacher and sent home in accordance to the reporting calendar. A cumulative report card will be uploaded into AWARE at the end of the final check-point.

Kindergarten, and 1st Grade: Teachers will rate students on a 1-4 scale for each competency on the Standards-Based Report Cards every nine weeks. Students will not have a progress report, only a report card. Report Cards will be posted in the Parent Portal at the end of the 9-week marking period.

Elementary (Gr. 2-4) and Intermediate: Teachers will assign grades and enter in the Teacher Portal. Progress reports will be reported at the 4th week of the marking period. Report Cards will be posted in the Parent Portal at the end of the 9-week marking period.

Reminders:

- If an Annual ARD meeting was conducted one week prior to the progress date, updated progress does not need to go home again for that reporting period.
- The date entered for progress reports is the date listed in the “IEP Progress Report Sent Home” column.
- TEA requires the following:
  - All goals and objectives/benchmarks MUST be updated each reporting period.
  - All goals and objectives/benchmarks MUST be updated with the same measurement criteria identified in each goal and objective/benchmark. (Statements like “mastered”, “working towards”, and “introduced skill” do not meet this requirement.)
