

Connecting at IMPACT

IT IS HARD TO CONNECT! Significant relationships don't just happen; they take a lot of work. We are committed to helping you get connected. Here are a few ideas to help you build stronger relationships and get connected.

Come to church..

Consistency is a great way to get connected. Therefore, we encourage you to make the commitment to come as often as possible. We know it's tough! There's always a reason not to come to church. If you show up, two things will happen: (a) You'll be in the loop with upcoming events, happenings, and hooplas, and (2) you'll have a greater chance to meet someone and make a personal connection. Show up and be looking to be encouraged spiritually and connected relationally.

Jump in on IMPACT Events

Throughout the year, we have a ton of exciting events designed to bring students together to make new friends, have fun, and glorify God. Going to these events is a great way to get connected, especially if you're new. There is always something going on.

Build Friendships

We connect to people, not programs. Programs create a great opportunity to meet others and build friendships. Programs can set the stage for friendships, but only individuals can make them happen. You don't need a planned "thing" to spend time with a friend. Make a commitment to do your part to develop your friendships.

Serve in a Ministry

A great way to get connected is to "get to work" with others. The Bible clearly teaches: everyone is gifted and called by God to serve. Serving is a great way to get connected. We have a few ways that you can get plugged in.

Let's Do Lunch!

We will usually plan a spontaneous lunch either after church on Sunday or another day of the week.
