

1. What is the parasite that causes toxoplasmosis?
2. According to Sapolsky, what effect does T. gondii have on rats?
3. How does the rabies virus manipulate its victims in order to propagate?
4. What parasite invokes the Lion King reference?
5. How did Flegr's behavior resemble that of the reckless ant?
6. Make a diagram showing T. gondii's life cycle.
7. According to standardized personality tests, how does T. gondii affect men and women differently?
8. What common denominator underlies the changes in both men and women's behavior?
9. How does the parasite cause car accidents?
10. How is the parasite associated with schizophrenia?
11. Describe the experiment that showed "fatal feline attraction."
12. What happened when Webster fed antipsychotic drugs to newly infected rats?
13. According to Sapolsky, What effect does the smell of cat urine have on infected rats?
14. What symptoms do men have of fatal feline attraction?
15. What other human disorders may be linked to Toxo?
16. What 18th century human behavior correlates with the rise in prevalence of schizophrenia?
17. What correlation did Torrey and Yolken find between Toxo and mental illness?
18. What practices does Flegr recommend to avoid becoming infected?
19. Why don't pharmaceutical companies have an incentive to develop anti-Toxo drugs?
20. How does the flu virus control the human mind?
21. Do we really have free will? Are we slaves to genetics and our environment? Feel free to spend the rest of your life attempting to answer this.