

Jean (Mackenzie) Wadach, wife of K. Steven Wadach of South Windsor, passed away Saturday morning after a short illness. She was born July 30th, 1929 to Elizabeth Soucy Mackenzie and Ian Mackenzie. She and her wonderful sisters, Betsy Marshall of Simsbury, and Alice Yokabaskas of West Simsbury, grew up on Simsbury road and attended Bloomfield High School.

After graduation, she worked for CBT and met her lifelong friends of The Girls Club. She looked forward to lunches out with dear friends, to trips on Cape Cod with her grandchildren, and to an intense bridge game. She was an iconic figure in South Windsor; most remember her driving her white 1962 Corvette.

In addition to her husband of over 63 years, she leaves behind her son, Steven D. Wadach of South Windsor, her daughter and son-in-law: Libby Gallant and Tom Gallant of West Hartford, her three beloved grandchildren: Nick, Stephanie and Alex, Stephanie's fiancé, Dimitriy, many nieces and nephews, and her furry friend, Wee Mack. The family would like to give a special shout out to her very dear friends, Beverly and Malcolm Anderson for all their love and support. Jean enjoyed having company at her pool and was the epitome of the Mackenzie clan motto: translated from Latin to mean "By virtue and valor, I shine not burn". A memorial in her honor will be held at a later date.

Published in The Hartford Courant on Dec. 7, 2015