

MEDIEQ, A CYBERPUNK 2077 OC.

GUIDELINES

001. this is all inclusive, do not be a dick. don't be an asshole. don't vagueblog. don't send anon hate. if i find you doing any of this shit i will block you. also, i'm just gonna be honest here. i only soft block if your activity dips, otherwise i hard block. feel free to do the same. i'd rather not refollow people who don't want to interact with me.

002. muse and mun are over eighteen, name's lunie, i'm twenty seven and nsfw of all types will be present on this blog. cyberpunk 2077 is a franchise that is known for sex, drugs and gratuitous amounts of violence. 18+ only on this blog please + thank you.

003. shipping isn't the goal of this blog, it's not a primary thing. if it happens, cool but it's not the focus of this blog. i only ship with people i communicate with regularly. there's no point in world building if there's no communication, you know? that being said, don't hesitate to message me. i maybe bad at plotting but that doesn't mean it won't happen.

004. formatting is gorgeous, but absolutely not my thing. i don't do double spaces throughout the entire response and i usually stick to small font. however, format as you like, just - understand i'm not going to be doing that. i appreciate your aesthetics though!

005. this blog isn't spoiler free. you've been warned. like all my tags, i tag triggers by ' // trigger here', in terms of cyberpunk 2077 it'll be cp2077 spoilers.

006. art i found on pinterest / unsplash. not mine. the only thing i create are my icons and the actual like... writing on graphics. i don't claim shit.

007. please don't interact with me if you use problematic fcs. you know the usual ones.

008. i don't send in passcodes! like ever! sorry, but it's never gonna happen. trust that if i follow you, i've read your rules but also? if we interact? i've read your rules a couple of times just to make sure of everything.

finally, ily. please drink some water and don't thirst for johnny silverhand. both you, and alt cunningham can do so much better.

ABOUT

YOUR NAME IS GEMINI KASAI. your actual sign is sagittarius and the irony isn't lost on you, but how can it be? you're reminded every day that you are some cosmic joke. you are born a kasai, but what does that mean in the neon haze of night city? well, it means you're a legacy born for greatness. it also means that trauma team international is your destiny. you are born to be a medtech, but what does that mean?

IT MEANS GORE AND VISCERA are like bread and butter, natural - normal. adapt quickly or lose your standing. it means that you must be decisive, because indecision is death. it means that no matter how great you do, unless you're rising in the ranks, unless you're contributing everything you are, every bit of your time, every last thought and waking moment to productivity...

IT MEANS YOU'RE PERPETUALLY EXHAUSTED. it means that you've woken up with blood on your hands and forgotten to take a shower. it means that when bodies collapse under the weight of their augments and you can't save them that you take it home with you. you see their faces in your nightmares, hear their screams upon waking. it means that you're perpetually haunted.

THE TRUTH IS THAT trauma team international only truly cares about their platinum status individuals or ones that generate enough publicity. you were one of their lead EMTs for five years. you got to travel the world, see people, and watch even more die. you've also helped people, none more notorious than lizzy wizzy who committed suicide on stage. the truth is that no one really cared until you put that feather in their cap. the truth is... you fucking hate the capitalistic hellscape you were born into.

YOU LEAVE TRAUMA TEAM INTERNATIONAL at twenty nine years old. it means that you stop helping only the people who can afford it. it means you work with a fixer named bordeaux in pacifica. you help the gangsters when they need it, but this gives you the opportunity to help everyday people too. the ones trauma team international and rocket high premiums forget. the ones that get lost. to hell with the consequences, with being thrown away by your family.

YOUR NAME IS GEMINI KASAI. and you are going to be better. even if there's a couple of moral inconsistencies. can't make an omelette without breaking a few eggs.
