

Big Fish* - A film review

Paragraph 1 - Introduction

In the first paragraph (3-5 sentences long) you write a short text that will include the title of the film, when it was produced (2003), who directed it (Tim Burton). What type of film it was (drama, thriller, comedy, action, science fiction (sci-fi), horror etc ..) and who starred in it (Albert Finney, Ewan McGregor, Billy Crudup and Jessica Lange). Your last one or two sentences should entice (locka; fresta) the reader to continue reading your film review.

Paragraph 2 - Plot (Handling ½ A4)

Write a short summary of what the film was about. Here you should include the setting, the main characters in the film, and one of the highlights, but do not tell your readers how the film ends.

Paragraph 3 - Reflection (¼ A4)

What do you think the movie was really about? Was there a hidden message? What did you think about the movie? Was it good or bad and why do you think so? Did you learn anything from the film? Who (age group) do you think would enjoy Big Fish and why?

Paragraph 4 - Rating

This final paragraph should be 2-3 sentences long. How would you rate the film (How many stars out of 5) and why?
