

Name:

Date:

Alliteration: poetry - repeating sound
of at the beginning of two or more neighboring words.

Circle the alliterations

Abby ant asked Lola, a little lady lion, if she saw Bella the beautiful butterfly brush by. Lola lion, licking a lollipop listened to Abby ant and answered, "Bella the beautiful butterfly brushed by the bush by the tall tree that Terry turtle is tucked under." Abby ant acted, she thoughtfully thanked little Lola lion and quite quickly traveled to Terry turtle's tree. On a buttercup, beautiful Bella butterfly sat sipping sap and asked Abby ant to sip sap also.

Write your own alliteration:

Name:

Date:

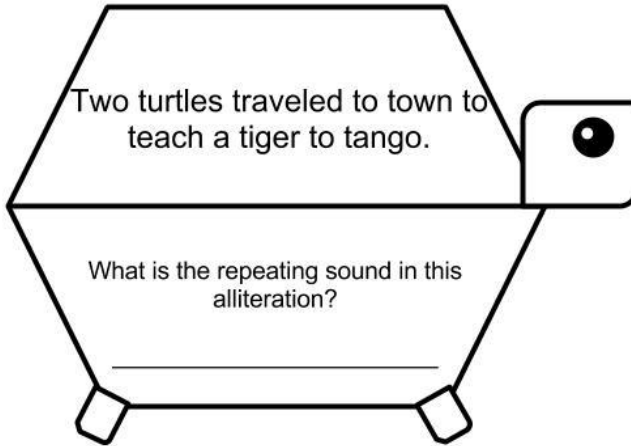

Name:

Date:

Alliteration: poetry - repeating sound
of at the beginning of two or more neighboring words.

Circle the
alliterations

Abby ant asked Lola, a little lady lion, if she saw Bella the beautiful butterfly brush by. Lola lion, licking a lollipop listened to Abby ant and answered, "Bella the beautiful butterfly brushed by the bush by the tall tree that Terry turtle is tucked under." Abby ant acted, she thoughtfully thanked little Lola lion and quite quickly traveled to Terry turtle's tree. On a buttercup, beautiful Bella butterfly sat sipping sap and asked Abby ant to sip sap also.

Write your own alliteration:

Name:

Date: