

A special thanks to all those who made today possible – first the students, Dr. Kenner, the parents, Mr. Swanson, Mr. Winkler, Ms. Jaya Miller-Little, Ms. Tameka Davis, Ms. Natalie Leki-Albano, Ms. Karen Boatner, the English Department and everyone else who helped and supported our efforts. I am always impressed by the dedication and talent of Whitney Young Students.

the play is the thing

a day of Macbeth, the Renaissance, and all things Shakespeare

February 14, 2020
Whitney Young H.S.
The classes of
Joe Scotese

Happy Valentine's Day!

“Love goes by haps; Some Cupid kills with arrows,
some with traps.”

“O this learning, what a thing it is.”

William Shakespeare

1st Period

Before the Curtain Opens (preparation)
(and one brave group)

2nd Period

Scenes performed by 6th Period —

3rd Period

Scenes performed by 1st period

4th Period

Scenes performed by 2nd period

5th Period

Lunch and Sonnet Contest

6th Period

Insults, and the sonnets read – other fun and games

7th Period

Scenes performed by 4th period

&

Soak up the Sun