Local Airbnb Host Brenda's notes

Dear Naomi and Andrew,I have sent my 'Things to Do Spiel'. It may be what you already know, but something may inspire you….

Eating:

- Blue Earth in Bodalla for breakfast or lunch. They grow their own vegies, make tasty food and reasonable coffee.
- The River in Moruya if you want a finer dining experience. A $50 three course meal with a glass of wine mid week. French cuisine, great ambience, beautiful view of Moruya River. Food is often impressive.
- The Boat Shed at Tuross for fish and chips and hamburgers. This has an unbeatable view right on the water overlooking Lake Tuross. I'm sorry to say I've had a few bad experiences with the food, but not everyone shares my opinion. I would still have the occasional fish and chips there just for the sublime view.
- The Moruya Health Food Shop does good quality sandwiches and juices for lunch. Lots of gluten free yummy stuff. Down the road from them is a Hole in Wall Coffee shop that punches higher than its weight in regards coffee with lots of coffee paraphernalia. Worth a look in.
- John and Willy's is an oyster bar and lunch spot in Moruya just near the library (Council Chambers). Open only till 1.00pm you can buy good sour dough bread that they make on site, but you need to get there before they sell out.
- The Rustic Pantry is the place to go for all things organic and wholefood if you want to do some cooking. They also sell great bread as well as delicious dried fruits, tahini, honeys, oils, nuts, flours and much more.

Things to do:

Narooma Kinema has Arthouse and main stream movies, definitely worth a visit if you like going to the movies.

Day trip to Bermagui taking in Mystery Bay, Wallaga Lake, Camel Rock and the Blue Pool (a sea pool at Bermagui). Coffee at Mr Jones and fish and chips at the shop on the left as you drive into Bermagui. Great bread shop just up the road from Mr Jones. The fig and walnut sourdough a particular favourite.

Eurobodalla Botanic Gardens - just south of Bateman's Bay. A young Botanic Garden, but you can capture the vision.

Fishing in Tuross Lake on sunset.

Saturday morning Markets in Moruya. (River Side Park on the Moruya River).

Tuesday afternoon SAGE Farmers Market in same spot. 3.00pm

There is a bike and walking track that begins just near the house at the end of the road and goes all the way along the beach front to Coila Lake.

You can do a similar walk, but along the beaches that go from the end of our road all the way to Plantation Point, past Boogumgorridge Rocks and a very beautiful midden site.

OIf you are feeling more energetic you can walk part of the Dreaming Track that runs from Coila Beach along the beach and over the headland to Bingi Beach and beyond. Allow a reasonable amount of time for this walk and make sure to take smackerels to feast on when you get to the other end. (eg: We take oranges, sandwiches and chocolate in a small backpack).

A visit to the Bodalla Art Gallery - exhibits quality local artists.

Tuross is surrounded by National Parks. There are numerous short and long walks for all abilities.

Beaches:

As well as the beaches all within walking distance of the house the two beaches at Potato Point are delightful and often deserted. Jennison's (probably Jemisons?) is my favourite. The northern or southern end depending on the which way the wind is blowing. Further round from Potato Point towards the caravan park is Picanninny which is also often deserted. The southern end of Potato Point is a good safe beach for swimming, but not too close to the rocks as there is often a small rip there.

Hope this has been of some value to you.

Regards,

Brenda

Hiding from swells and strong winds…. Mullimburra and Bingie points offer protected choices (north and south) that
They fit into trips to and from Moruya (as opposed to Bodalla/Narooma above) and also fit in with north walks.
I haven't swum at any of them yet. but they look great.

Nearby picnic spots. E.g. memorial park headland. i.e. through park to headland above beach to the south. I see it is called Tarandore Point.
Other spots with BBQs?

Walk via tarandore point along beaches to one tree point.

Golf, tennis, yoga classes? Ha.

Suggested stops on travel to and from TH. i.e. berry, Nowra, coffee or other supplies that you can't get locally.

Travel times per google maps are reasonably accurate.

Rent a tinny from the boatshed. Again, yet to be tried.

Report from Ange on Pickled Octopus Seafood & Thai Cafe.
Good. Worth booking to get a table on the verandah. (02) 4473 6084
Butcher was good. Better than local supermarket. Good hours too.

Forgot to mention/warning some surprise gravel sections on the bike path to Kyla Park.

Mentioned phone coverage? No Wi-Fi?

Tony added:
The fish and chips from Sails in the main shops at Tuross are pretty good, (can't compare with the Boatshed as it was closed).
Picnics: Almost every headland park - and there are several around Tuross - seems to have a BBQ and shelter.
