

PRIVACY NOTICE FOR RECRUITMENT

Bite Back 2030 Limited ('our', 'we' and 'us') is a 'data controller' and gathers and uses certain information about you. This notice explains what personal data (information) we hold about you, how we collect it, and how we use and may share information about you during the application process. We are required to notify you of this information under data protection laws. Please ensure that you read this Privacy Notice and any other similar notice we may provide to you from time to time when we collect or process personal information about you.

Data Protection Principles

We will comply with the following data protection principles when gathering and using personal information:

- we will process personal information lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner
- we will collect personal information for specified, explicit and legitimate purposes only and will not process it in a way that is incompatible with those legitimate purposes
- we will only process the personal information that is adequate, relevant and necessary for the relevant purposes
- we will keep accurate and up to date personal information, and take reasonable steps to ensure that inaccurate personal information is deleted or corrected without delay
- we will keep personal information in a form which permits identification of data subjects for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which the information is processed, and
- we will take appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure that personal information is kept secure and protected against unauthorised or unlawful processing, and against accidental loss, destruction or damage.

About the Information We May Collect and Hold

The table set out in Part A of the Schedule below summarises the information we collect and hold up to and including the shortlisting stage of the recruitment process, how and why we do so, how we use it and with whom it may be shared.

The table in Part B of the Schedule below summarises the additional information we collect before making a final decision to recruit, i.e. before making an offer unconditional, how and why we do so, how we use it and with whom it may be shared.

We may also need to share some of the categories of personal information set out in the Schedule with other parties, such as companies that provide us with charitable support, external contractors and our professional advisers. Jamie Oliver Limited provides us with charitable support including sharing premises, personnel, information technology and security systems. Jamie Oliver Limited acts as a 'joint controller' with us when they process personal data of our staff and may only do so for the purposes and in the manner we have agreed with them. Usually, information will be anonymised but this may not always be possible. The recipient of the information will be bound by confidentiality obligations. We may also be required to share some personal information as required to comply with the law.

We seek to ensure that our information collection and processing is always proportionate. We will notify you of any changes to information we collect or to the purposes for which we collect and process it.

Where Information May Be Held

Information may be held at our offices, and third party companies that provide us with charitable support, agencies, service providers, representatives and agents as described above. Information may be transferred internationally to the USA and other countries around the world, including countries that do not have data protection laws equivalent to those in the UK, on the basis that that country, territory or organisation is designated as having an adequate level of protection or that the organisation receiving the information has provided adequate safeguards by way of binding corporate rules or standard data protection clauses or of compliance with an approved code of conduct.

How Long we Keep Your Information

We keep your information during the recruitment process for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which the personal information is processed. How long we keep your information will depend on whether your application is successful and you become engaged by us, the nature of the information concerned and the purposes for which it is processed.

We will keep recruitment information (including interview notes) for no longer than is reasonable, taking into account the limitation periods for potential claims such as discrimination (as extended to take account of early conciliation), after which they will be destroyed. If there is a clear business reason for keeping recruitment records for longer than the recruitment period, we may do so but will first consider whether the records can be pseudonymised, and the longer period for which they will be kept.

If your application is successful, we will keep only the recruitment information that is necessary in relation to your contract with us. Further information about this will be available in our Privacy Notice for Staff.

Further details on our approach to information retention and destruction are available upon request.

Your Rights to Request Access, Correction or Erasure of Your Personal Information

Please contact us at hello@biteback2030.com if, in accordance with applicable law, you would like to correct or request access to information that we hold relating to you or if you have any questions about this notice. You also have the right to ask us for some but not all of the information we hold and process to be erased (the 'right to be forgotten') in certain circumstances. We can provide you with further information about the right to be forgotten, if requested.

Keeping Your Personal Information Secure

We have appropriate security measures in place to prevent personal information from being accidentally lost, or used or accessed in an unauthorised way. We limit access to your personal information to those who have a genuine business need to know it. Those processing your information will do so only in an authorised manner and are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We also have procedures in place to deal with any suspected data security breach. We will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected data security breach where we are legally required to do so. Please ask us if you would like further information about the security measures we have in place.

How to Complain

We hope that we can resolve any query or concern you raise about our use of your information. If not, contact the Information Commissioner at ico.org.uk/concerns/ or telephone: 0303 123 1113 for further information about your rights and how to make a formal complaint.
