

Hello everyone. This is Kaz, or who most people know me as, Kazuki. Normally, I don't make docs, and I don't usually speak out about my experiences due to my fear of confrontation. But many of my friends insisted I should speak out for my own safety and as terrifying as confrontation is to me I know that they are right and I need to talk about it. So here goes ...

Let me start off with the fact that the screenshots I'll be presenting contain uncensored words and mentions of s3lf h4rm. I'm also not the first victim, and this is essentially repeated history. While I will be going over my personal experiences with him, just let it be known that I'm not the only person he has done this to. I would also like to say before I delve into this that grooming isn't always inherently sexual, and it is a manipulative tactic used towards minors that is used so the groomer can feel authority, power, or have their own gain. All of the things Bulba has done to me and others IS a form of grooming and there's no excusing that. So here's the first thing:

1. He sent p*rn in group chats I was in, in which the group chats were also FILLED with minors. And the person he mentioned in the screenshots provided here, was 13.

Secondly:

2. I have known Bulba for a very long time, and he has a history of spinning the narrative and silencing other victims so he could look good. To put things simply, the reason why not a lot of people heard from other victims speaking out is due to the sheer fact that Bulba has silenced them and to water it down, did some "damage control" to protect his own reputation. In this screenshot, he has tried spinning the narrative and making the person he was talking about who mind you was spreading awareness about the things he did look like the worst person on planet earth , also he claimed he was going to get evidence and debunk all those allegations he faced, but it never happened. Then he proceeded to act like him being innocent was a known fact. Although no precise evidence was given, there was also another case, where people confronted him regarding him sending the p*rn, and he tried to twist the story and say it was "somewhere else" despite the rock solid evidence saying otherwise. He also tried defending sending p*rn and excused it, saying he just "didn't know what he was doing". He has manipulated me alongside several others, which is what I'll be going over next.

i saw this video already and am currently working with my server's management team to provide an effective response. most of the claims said in the video were fed to them by someone who was been banned from my server on multiple occasions for manipulating others into mindlessly attacking random people, as well as threatening to send self harm photos if they didnt get their way. i can clear up anything in that video with actual evidence as soon as i'm done working on a proper response, and i'm more than willing to present the actual truth instead of whatever biased view

bulba ⚡ VOX 9:38 PM

yes im aware of this already this is what has been handled with neoluminum in the past

they banned me but they also confirmed and recognized that what i did has no malicious intent

i took responsibility immediately no point in trying to defend that

bulba ⚡ VOX 9:39 PM

do u have the specific screnehsots by any chancs

if its the same stuff that got me banned from neo, then all i really have to say is that yes, i was being irresponsible and should not have done that, but it's also very clear (even to the neoluminum staff who were not there at all at the time) that i did not have any malicious intent or underlying motives or anything. it was literally just me not really thinking about what i was doing

this also makes me think arikxu has something to do with it even more now because arikxu was the one trying to twist the narrative like crazy about what happened he deadass tried to say i was grooming the people in that group chat which is just a crazy ass thing to say

like???

Thirdly,

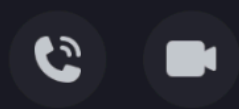

3. I never spoke about this to a lot of people, but while I was still struggling with my dad's death, someone emptily accused me of spying on him even though I never was and there was no evidence of it. Because of this, Bulba kicked me out of every group chat, spread lies about me, and tried to turn everyone against me while I was already at what was the absolute lowest point of my entire life. In the screenshots provided here, we talked. Mind you, the people he mentioned were real victims trying to raise awareness of everything he has done, but they were forced to take it down for the sake of “damage control.” TLDR; He manipulated and guilt tripped me into apologizing to him even though I never inherently did anything to him first of all, i just want to say that when i ask you this, i'm not upset and i still think of you as a cool person. i'd still like to be friends with you, but i also ask that you please be honest with me when i ask you this question recently, someone by the name of MistyMedicine has published a video that has now been removed that contained a hefty amount of overexaggerations, misrepresentations, and straight up lies about me and some other people. while there were some truths within the video, such as it's callout of users who have since been removed from my

quacksei >

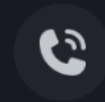

although MistyMedicine was the creator of the video, they received help from two main people who contributed to "evidence" presented in the video, who you may know as Ellis and Dinobunny. i am going to sum this up as quickly as i can, and if you would like a more in-depth elaboration, i would be happy to provide. after Dinobunny, who was the victim of SFK, reported to me about the grooming situation... ellis intentionally contacted them with the intent of spreading hateful rhetoric and blatant misinformation to them, so that they could in turn spread it and act as a scapegoat for the whole situation. (essentially, ellis used and

why am i telling you about all of this? i had received a notice in DMs that you were spreading this video around to others with malicious intent to "spread awareness" about a cause that was rooted in lies and hate. i am notifying you about the actions of those behind this video, as i thought it would be helpful to you to inform you of the true motive behind those who made the video, as it is not as good as you might think.

me and my management team are currently working on a response to the video that clears up any falsehoods that were stated in the video, and will be happy to share it with you and

what i would like to ask you is: were you aware of the fact that ellis contributed to this video? did you supply this so-called "evidence" to them in any way, shape, or form? and what as your true intent for sharing it with other people when me and others have informed you in the past about ellis's true malicious motives?

if you have any more questions for me or anything similar, i would love to answer each and every one of them. remember, i don't hate you and i would like to still be your friend, i just ask that you please be honest with me about everything i mentioned. thank you in advance quacksei ⚡ VOX first of all, i just want to say that when i ask you this, i'm not upset and i still

first off, it wasn't out of malicious intent at all. i just didn't want it to affect others, and i stated i wasn't exactly sure if it was true or not. also, i only sent it to flare and noveci, nobody else secondly, i don't know what kind of evidence was contributed in there so i can't say if i contributed or not.

quacksei ⚡ VOX 03/29/2025 7:14 PM

then i have another question for you why would you share it if you weren't even sure if it was true or not or if you

quacksei  03/29/2025 7:14 PM

then i have another question for you why would you share it if you weren't even sure if it was true or not or if you didn't even know what the actual contents of the video were? it seems quite careless to put someone's entire reputation and hard work at risk, especially when you're not even sure what is being said against them or if it is true at all quacksei  then i have another question for you why would you share it if you weren't even

i admit that was really stupid of me, and something i really regret doing, so i'm very sorry for that. if i'm being honest, i was afraid it'd get popular

10:42

quacksei >

i'm sincerely sorry, i promise i didn't mean any dark intentions im also gonna be completely honest here, i was told alot of things by ellis for months now, and i was contemplated on who to believe

quacksei  03/29/2025 7:28 PM

i understand, like i said i'm not upset, and i appreciate your honesty here. i trust your words and although i don't want to make you feel forced to do anything, i would suggest taking anything ellis says with a grain of salt, as they are known to compulsively lie about others for their own benefit, and have done other offenses that are not to be taken lightly (such as using victims in order to spread their own

Let me just say that while I did share the video, it was never out of malicious intent like how he made it out to be and it was never to the public. It was to 2 people, and one already knew. The reasoning wasn't out of malicious intent, but for the concern of others and how that could affect several others too as Bulba is a known figure especially in the underground music scene.

And finally,

4: While no rock solid evidence of this, he has also given me what you can call "special privileges" by giving me access to private channels on his server as well as personal group chats despite our minor and adult boundary. There were multiple occasions on those group chats and channels where he'd get drunk in front of me and other people who were minors. Not only was he underaged drinking, but it's also generally not appropriate for him to be like that when minors are around.

To sum everything up, all that he has done to me is a form of grooming as he built a close relationship with me, proceeded to guilt trip me as well as use his authority to try to control me, made me feel like I owed him something as he was the one who invited me to the underground music scene, gave me special treatment by giving me special access to specific channels and group chats, tried to threaten me with his "authority" as a way to silence me, and guilt tripped me manipulated me HEAVILY into thinking I was the bad guy. Also, an adult manipulating a minor IS a form of grooming, as allow me to reiterate, grooming isn't always sexual and grooming is literally a form of manipulation.

- Emotional and psychological control: A groomer can seek to gain total emotional and psychological control over a victim, leading to their isolation and dependency. The abuser may use tactics like gifts, special attention, and guilt to achieve this.

Thank you for reading this and hearing me out. I really appreciate those who read this all the way through and I am so happy to finally have gotten this off my chest. My heart goes out to any other victims and also know I'll always be here for all of you <3

Hey, I am one of the victims of bulba's antics. You all might know me as Ryn in some communities and Showdex in others. I am 17 and while I have not really been groomed or manipulated by BULBA, I have been through one of bulba's other antics as well. They are a bit of a bully. This was a few years ago so, it is probably different now, you tell me. When I was around 13-14, I started getting into the music ranking scene, mainly through NCS. I met bulba through someone that I watched a lot of. They were fine at first, but as I started talking about how I was into some of the more basic tunes from NCS, Elektronomia for instance, or when I had a complete opposite opinion of him on certain things, he and a couple of his friends (not sharing names) would mercilessly bully me at every opportunity. It really killed my confidence in sharing my opinions. It felt like I had nobody on my side. It also almost drove me to suicide as I was suffering through a parental divorce as well. That's also why I am a tiny bit passionate about sharing my music opinions, because of this experience I went through. I don't really have any screenshots to prove this because the original account this was on is gone and I had left the server it was taking place in anyway.

I know, I know. This isn't as bad as Kazuki's story, but I wanted to share it nonetheless. Hope you all have a nice day <3
