

Hey there, my name is Michael, but you may know me as Moikey or Mikey. I'm ongoing 19 years old and I'm going to be addressing some serious things about the user @/xaevlol on Twitter. They've gone by the names of Xavier, Aytanner, Polarial, and Zuhzau. I've been going through a lot this past year from this person and their friends due to the amount of stress and pressure they've put onto me. I never really wanted to make another document due to the fact the other ones flopped miserably but this will hopefully spread the word out better than the other ones. I feel as though everything done by this person and their friends has been thrown over people's heads since nobody has cared that much for what these people are doing to others including myself.

Disclaimer: Please PLEASE read this document carefully before anything gets said. Do not send harassment towards anyone mentioned here. I do not condone hate or harassment towards anyone, if you have anything you'd like to say on the matter, please make sure it's an informed comment and you do know what you're talking about. You're allowed to share your opinion obviously but please keep it civil. I will do the best I can to explain everything carefully since the last documents I had posted were all over the place.

Introduction

As stated multiple times from me in the past, I'm at fault for most of the drama I have caused throughout the years, but I will explain in this document about how Xavier has tried taking advantage over my stupid mistakes and trying to get a reaction out of me for them and their friends to have a laugh out of, knowing fully well I can't complain or do anything about it.

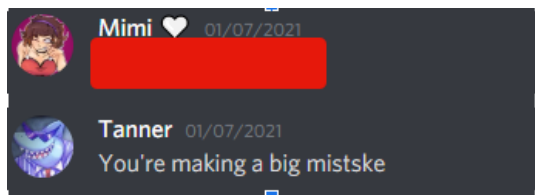

My mental health has been at its very peak this year due to all of the drama I've been involved in. I apologize in advance if it looks like I'm blaming my mistakes on my mental health. I will not excuse any of my actions because of my mental issues, since I could've easily ignored and left my PC for a couple hours and come back once I was calmer. I sometimes keep my feelings towards all this online drama stuff to myself because I was always afraid that someone would tell me to grow up and deal with it since I am 18 years old. Which is what I have been told by multiple people before hence why I have been so afraid of telling people about this certain topic regarding Xavier and their friends.

I used to be in very toxic environments back in the early days of using Discord hence why people say I'm a toxic person and bring up situations of me being very toxic back in 2018-2019.

I was not the best individual in the old community I was in, I'd say I was at the very bottom of the list of people who weren't liked. I had this title for a while, where I would join a server and be instantly banned due to my "toxic nature", but that mentality of being utterly disrespectful and unnecessarily mean to random people who I encountered on Discord disappeared when I started branching out of that small community I was in at the time. I wanted to change and actually do well for myself instead of being stuck in this community where nobody likes me.

When did this start taking a toll on my mental health?

I ended up joining the Friday Night Funkin' community and being active in the Friday Night Funkin' Twitter community back in mid 2021. I had met a lot of nice people and FNF' fans that liked the music I made. Unfortunately, it didn't last long due to people in the old community following me into this new community to tarnish my reputation in this new community. It worked. The first callout post that had been made on me was by Saruky and it included a lot of claims as to why people should be weary towards me. One of the points Saruky had brought up was that I doxxed a certain individual, that individual being Xavier (aytanner). A Lot of people had their fair share of spreading around this point like I was the only one at fault and that I did this with evil intent... What had happened was Xavier had posted my Home address and Phone number onto one of my posts comments section on Soundcloud. They tried to justify this by saying "You posted your address in a discord server so you can't complain". This was a very shitty excuse as to why they posted my personal details because the server I posted my address in was a friends hangout server, the server at the time was full of people I trusted so I didn't care all that much but as time went on, they started making sly little jokes about how I shouldn't of gave them my details and then they started posting it everywhere.

(Proof that they did post my address in the comments section and that they did make comments about how I'm making a big mistake giving them my phone number)

Why are you only bringing up Xavier/Aytanner?

Xavier has been the cause of 99.9% of my issues that have occurred this year such as hacking my socials, stealing money from me, admitting to finding humor out of making me stressed and upset. There's a lot to talk about but I will start off talking about their document towards me that they made regarding my financial issues.

They made a document about me because I wasn't being professional towards my commissioners, I had left my commissioners confused because I wasn't showing any progress of their song and I wouldn't respond to their dm's. I had suffered from a very bad music block but like I've said many times before, I'm not going to excuse what I did. Xavier said in this document that I had asked and used them for certain amounts of money.

(The document they made:

<https://docs.google.com/document/d/1hKJnGIW4V7BCIQNX0kr7GT7QCoDTLLkhJe6VkXfwTxo/edit?usp=sharing>)

They tried to say I robbed them of their money but not even that many months prior, they had done the same to me. The difference between the two is that I had informed Xavier about my irl issues whilst they logged into my Soundcloud and changed the payout email from mine to theirs so they received my money for that month. I had contacted soundcloud support to try and get this stolen money back to me.

In December 2021 my Soundcloud account had been hacked and deleted, I was able to reactive it and regain access to the account. When the hacker had been logged to their own so they'd be receiving the money, not me. Is there any way you can take the money out of their account and put it in my own Paypal?

My Paypal email is: m9498625@gmail.com

The hackers email was: contact.pauldownling2004@gmail.com

I've earned over £75 on Soundcloud Pro and that money has been going to the hacker.

It'd mean a lot if I could get this money back.

They said they'd give it back to me but when they sent the money on Paypal they didn't confirm the payment since it said it was pending.

When I say they called me out because they want to see me under pressure because they find it funny, I mean they did exactly that and I have more proof to show that goes towards that claim.

Why do you keep talking to them?

The only time I speak to Xavier and their friends is when they've done something to me and I react. The most recent case of me speaking to Xavier was when they added me to talk to me about why I had joined their discord server on an alt. What happened was that I got invited to a server by one of my friends which I assumed was their server but instead it was Xavier's server which I left instantly on. A few days later I had been informed that Xavier was letting a pedophile into their server so I joined on an alt to see if this was true and yes, it was very much true.

I kept bringing up the topic of Xavier letting a pedophile into their server and they kept dodging what I was saying.

After that we started talking about how I wouldn't leave them alone even though they're clearly the ones trying to get under my skin when I don't even interact with them.

xaeV Yesterday at 11:55

i didnt say i would
we told you
on video
we will keep on bothering u until u leave us alone
cuz its funny

Moikey Yesterday at 11:56

It doesn't matter whether u said it or not

xaeV Yesterday at 11:56

and u get mad everytime

Moikey Yesterday at 11:56

You're still trying to troll and harass me when I did leave u alone

xaeV Yesterday at 11:56

yeah well i still have the whole video and u have gone against every single thing u have said
because u always do

Moikey Yesterday at 11:56

You're trying to rile me up to talk to u (edited)

xaeV Yesterday at 11:56

u never stick to jackshit

Moikey Yesterday at 11:56

I know exactly why u do the shit towards me
Cause u want me to react

xaeV Yesterday at 11:56

cuz its funny
yea
we told u that
u do react

They just admitted to me that they and their friends constantly harass me and get under my skin because they want me to go to them and react. Xavier has constantly done this and everytime they see me doing well, they'd try their best to get a reaction out of me because they know I'm so easily annoyed and upset. I had told Xavier many times in the past that I cannot control my emotions due to my ADHD hence why I react the way I do when they try to mess with me. They always try to pin the blame onto me by saying I go back to them when they're purposely trying to get me riled up, which then causes me to go back and confront them about it.

What else have they done recently that is upsetting you?

As of recently they and their friends had started making soundcloud accounts impersonating me with posts that have personal pictures / info about me.

(This is them using pictures of me from my private socials and putting them as a thumbnail for the post.)

(This is Xavier straight up posting my private snapchat and putting my story onto Twitter)

Didn't they hack you?

In February this year they managed to get a hold of my logins for my social media such as Twitter, Soundcloud, Facebook, Instagram, etc. Every social media I owned they had access to. Someone who I considered a friend back at the start of this year had asked me to play a Friday Night Funkin' mod they had created but it turned out it was a mercurial grabber. Mercurial grabber is an application that allows you to create fake files and can grab all your personal info if you tried to open it. In my case, I assumed it was an actual FNF mod they wanted to show me but it ended up being a mercurial grabber file and it took all my logins and such. This person gave the logins to Xavier and their friends which they started logging into and messing about with my friends by calling them slurs and leaking mods I was a part of at the time. A lot of people assumed this was me and caused a lot of my friends to part ways with me. It got to the point where it wasn't only affecting my online life as they started to dm family members and IRL friends of mine on facebook and instagram.

(I've been told that the person who sent these dm's to people on my Twitter account was one of Xavier's friends but they still had a part to play in this regardless)

One of Xavier's friends known as "imAlter" had helped with hacking my accounts and when I had found out that imAlter was involved in hacking me, I had confronted them about it and asked if they could give me my accounts back, which they responded with...

 imAlter Yesterday at 01:22
i love reading the dms in there
they're so funny
how you dmed dream and other youtubers
LOL
its so funny that sometimes its even sad

 moik Yesterday at 01:23
can you just give me my old account back
like whats the point in arguing with me
its my account lol

 imAlter Yesterday at 01:23
okay thats cool but

 moik Yesterday at 01:23
just be the bigger person

 imAlter Yesterday at 01:23
LOL
says you

 moik Yesterday at 01:23
i just want my account back my guy

 imAlter Yesterday at 01:23
be the bigger person

 moik Yesterday at 01:24
my weight
hoo haaa
XD

Overall, the friend group is scummy and consists of people who have committed illegal acts because they wanted to have a laugh and mock someone.

The hacking didn't stop there though because as of recently (Less than 2 months ago) they had logged back into my facebook and started messaging my family members. They had started contacting my family members and started to try and get them involved in my online drama. At the start they would try to impersonate how I type and kept convincing my family members that it was actually me sending these messages as seen here:

(More screenshots and proof are in this document:

https://docs.google.com/document/d/1X4f-5AQY5FOcFohVreAilDugUEy\_hdEAc1WSdpsGSOE/edit?usp=sharing

My cousin knew it wasn't me and as soon as they found out that my cousin wasn't falling for it, they started letting them know what I was doing on Twitter when they're literally not into the stuff I'm into.

Haven't you called out these specific people in the past?

I've made A LOT of documents on these people in the past but nobody essentially cared because we weren't big enough to get canceled or exposed. Xavier is now getting their name out there through this new community they're in known as "Dariacore" they've made a lot of new friendships and they're getting a lot of attention doing this type of music. I'm going to assume that this new community Xavier is in doesn't know about the actions committed by themselves and their friend group.

The goal of this document is to let people know how this person and their friends have essentially ruined my online life, no I'm not saying they're the cause of every bad thing I have done online, I'm saying these people have made my online life worse in every way possible than any cancel document on me could ever have done.

I do believe this will be the final document on these people and yes, I am aware this is what they want me to do but at the same time, I know that if I actually put time and effort into a document then these people who have been causing me stress for so long will get what they deserve and not be a pain in my backside anymore. I know I'm giving these people more and more attention but I gotta so people can finally hear my side of the story, so people know what I've been dealing with behind closed doors.

I get that I'm not a perfect person myself and that I can be a huge asshole most of the time but the amount of stress I've been put through by Xavier and their friends is not ok no matter what I did. They saw opportunities in trolling me when I was at my very lowest and they made these specific parts of my life hell.

Thank you for reading this document. I did post this yesterday but it was lazily written and didn't explain things properly. I hope you guys received the message I was trying to send here.
