„AAN-HELIKOPTER IN KONFLIKTZONE ABGESTÜRZT – UNO ENTSENDET UNTERSUCHUNGSTEAM“

In den frühen Morgenstunden ist ein Helikopter des AAN-Nachrichtensenders nahe einer aktiven Frontlinie zwischen NATO- und CSAT-Streitkräften abgestürzt. Augenzeugen berichten von einem plötzlichen Raketeneinschlag, was auf einen gezielten Abschuss hindeuten könnte. Beide Konfliktparteien beschuldigen sich gegenseitig.

Die Vereinten Nationen haben gemeinsam mit der humanitären Organisation IDAP eine Untersuchung eingeleitet. Ziel ist es, mögliche Kriegsverbrechen in der Region zu dokumentieren, insbesondere im Hinblick auf zivile Opfer in den letzten Tagen.

Ein besonderer Fokus liegt auf dem Absturz des AAN-Helikopters sowie einem Vorfall, bei dem eine Zivilperson offenbar einer tödlichen Medikamentendosis ausgesetzt war.

Ein UNO-Sprecher betonte: „Die internationale Gemeinschaft wird nicht tatenlos zusehen, wenn Journalisten und Zivilisten zur Zielscheibe in diesem eskalierenden Konflikt werden.“

Short Situation Report

Following the successful completion of all previous objectives with minimal casualties, NATO forces are advancing to the next phase of the Altis campaign. Just a few hours later from the previous assault, as evening approaches, elements of the 2nd Cavalry Division have now reinforced the newly taken salt flats in an attempt to push further west.

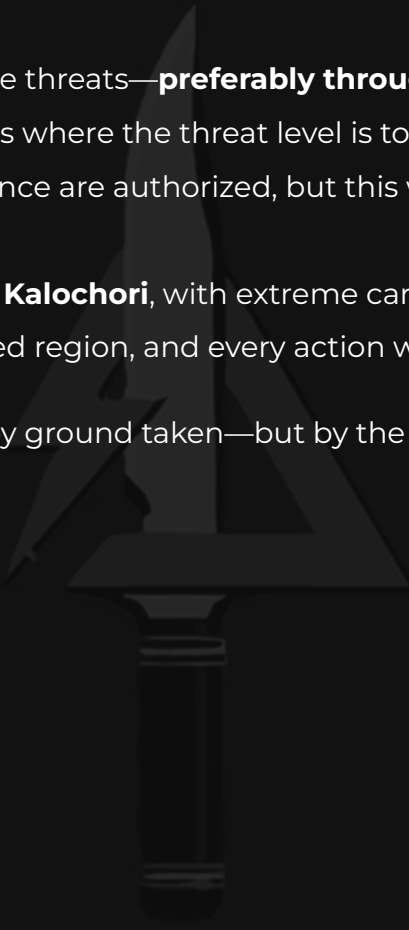

However, the tide of war has begun to draw significant attention from the local population. In response to recent civilian backlash, NATO Command is placing a renewed emphasis on hearts and minds—and this operation provides a critical opportunity to show it.

Earlier today, Romeo 3-1 (Force Recon), who have been stationed on a nearby mountain by orders of Checkmate, have reported explosions along the MSR leading to Paros, likely caused by civilians hitting CSAT-placed IEDs or mines. With enemy forces now fully aware of the invasion, CSAT units are no longer caught off guard—they've had time to dig in and fortify.

Our mission is twofold:

1. Safely clear the MSR of explosive threats—preferably through manual EOD procedures to minimize risk to civilians. In cases where the threat level is too high, controlled detonations via tank shells or air-dropped ordnance are authorized, but this will be considered a partial success.
2. Secure the towns of Paros and Kalochori, with extreme care toward civilian life and infrastructure. This is a populated region, and every action we take will be closely watched.

Success here won't just be measured by ground taken—but by the restraint and precision we show in taking it.
