Lolli's Blacklist

- I will not be disclosing reasons for people being on this list. Please do not bother these people or me trying to find out why they are on my blacklist. Please do not harass them, it's nothing personal if they're here and I have no animosity towards them, I just am uncomfortable with them owning my designs.
- All you need to know is that these users are banned from buying or receiving my designs for one reason or another, and that if I find out you traded one of my designs to them knowing they were blacklisted, you'll end up here too <3</li>
- I would also be more comfortable if these users did not receive characters that have art by me attached to them, but this is more a personal preference than a rule, and trading them a character with art by me will not get you blacklisted unless it was my design, no worries.
