

PAM DEGREGORIO - Pam has lived at Pine Meadow in New Salem with her horses for almost 42 years. She has been enjoying riding for over 50 years. Pam is a licensed riding instructor and is also a retired Director of Student Services for Harvard Public Schools.

Pam has had a lot of fun on her Fjord, Tego, over the years and has enjoyed some dressage, versatility, and trail riding. She's living on her small farm with her partner, Charlie Chase, five horses, a pony, and two minis. Pam has cherished sharing her love of horses with her daughter, Erin Degnan, and her 7-year old granddaughter, Brielle.
