

Danii's harmful lies faking age, showing NSFW to kids

@danilovecore/@_TheVaultKeeper/@ambiencestuff/@danistuffthe2nd/@creamystuffs/...

Recently it has come to light through her victims that the user danimichiru (creator of Executable Mania & Wacky) has a troubled history during which she lied multiple time about her age, showed porn of underage and child like characters to minors that she herself drew, to then get exposed saying that she'd be leaving permanently only to come back right after under a new acc, to run away from the consequences of her actions and rebuild an audience.

(This doc covers the history of her dishonest behaviour and actions starting with some of the earliest instances of her online presence. Evidence obtained through victim testimony and Wayback Machine.

Doc is to be viewed with print layout disabled if images are cut.)

Danii's rise to fame (@_TheVaultKeeper - 2019)

Danii's first account was danistuff with the Twitter @ being “_TheVaultKeeper”. Under this identity she made her first successful project “Battle For Framecast” based on the oc community of the now discontinued social media animation app “Framecast” and the famous “Battle For Dream Island” youtube series. Made in July 2019, it stated that her birthday date was May 14 2000, which would make her 23 today.

To prove that this is Danii, we can click on the link included in the archived profile, which will actually bring us to her current Youtube channel.

Dating as far as back as this identity in 2019, despite her fanbase being mostly made of minors, she was already drawing NSFW under the earlier name “a_singularity” as seen in this archived tweet and on her multiple alts like “@BByBushie” or “@SinguSpinel3/SingularityNSFW” (which were ERP accounts that interacted with minors too).

While @_TheVaultKeeper got suspended, these porn alts seen in the two screenshots above are very much still up to this day and you can go check them yourself, it's quite obvious that they are both Danii. Looking at the followers/following tabs, you can also see among many porn accounts and minors, plush/plushie who is the current co-owner of Wacky.

As for the NSFW accounts followed and the posts liked, it includes all sorts of depraved content, ranging from lolicon to real porn actresses (below are just a few of the followed accounts from the SingularityNSFW alt, there is much more disgusting stuff in the likes of both alts too but we feel like showing you these is enough to get the point straight and if you wanted for some reason, you can go check by yourself those two alts).

However before closing this part off, it's worth noting that Dani would acquire her name later on for the first time during March 19 2021, around that time she was finally gaining an audience so after some time she (as danistuff) decided to make a Discord server for the fans of her projects and also for the people she deemed to be closer friends to her which is where she exposed more minors to her NSFW art.

Danii's public NSFW channel (Cassidy - 2020)

The Discord server in question contained an open uncensored NSFW channel that minors could easily access and in which Danii posted NSFW that she herself drew of clearly underaged characters and ocs of minors under her other identity "Cassidy".

Let's begin with proof of Danii being that person, inviting one of the victims in question in the server.

October 10, 2020

Popular Girl around town 10/10/2020 2:33 PM

ok!

October 11, 2020

Just to be sure we had them record a video to remove any suspicion and confirm that it really is Danii as it shows her as current name “danimichiru”, while also showing the user “Artist_-_Adam” present in the screenshots below, as a mutual friend.

<https://cdn.discordapp.com/attachments/1074149822900219946/1180632568715030699/2.mp4?ex=657e20c3&is=656babc3&hm=84ba71900c876737fcef0a1b8250f4aa1c4350d268b83d32ae981872442cb51&>

Now we can move onto the NSFW channel itself but keep in mind that the victims who gave us the testimony were below tos-age children (literal 10 and 12 years old), so at that time they were completely unaware of what they were being exposed to, however at some point they realised it was wrong hence why we only have a couple of screenshots saved left of said NSFW channel.

All of the screenshots in the doc were provided by those victims, hence the censored names, in the one above you can also see plush/plushie again in there (further date proof below from a victim of the server).

Now remember that Dani's identity at this time still refers to herself as to be born during the year 2000.

This puts a very troubling perspective as it would imply that, she as a 20 years old adult invited minors as young as 10 in a server in which she knew full well she was gonna expose them to NSFW, as she never even bothered to make it accessible via roles.

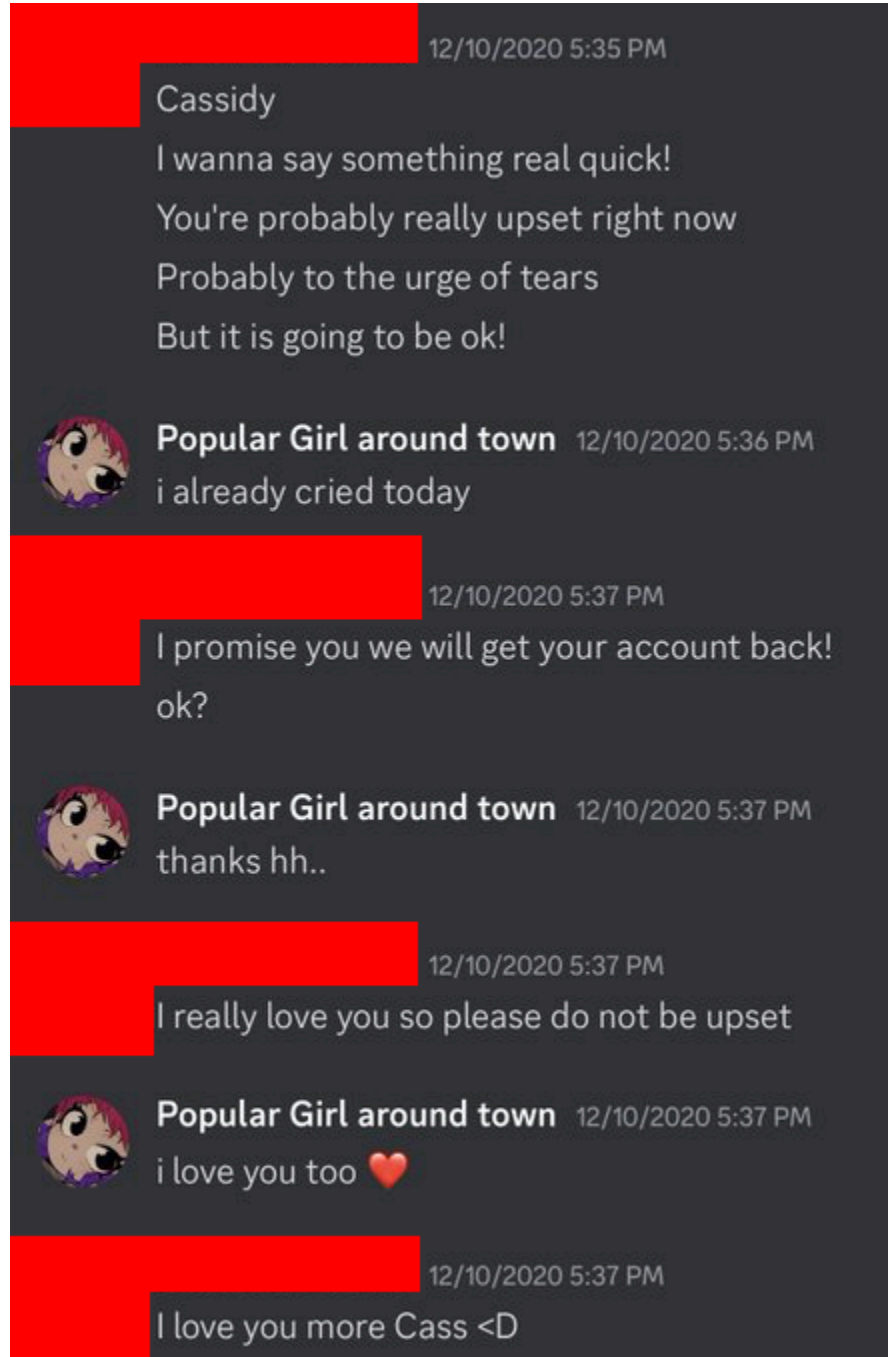

The testimony below from one of the victims (censored in yellow is the name of the 10yo) confirms the saddest part of this whole situation which is that Danii was the one who ruined multiple people's innocence by giving them their first exposure to porn at such a young age.

21/11/2023 19:04
All i can say is that with [REDACTED] i also was introduced to the idea of porn because of her server.

I personally used to idolize Dani because I thought it was super cool that someone with such a following would be kind enough to talk to me and be my friend.

It's absolutely horrible that the person you once looked up to and idolised would be the one to ruin your childhood, especially when as you can see from the following screenshot, they genuinely cared about her much more than average friends would do.

(It's worth noting that this was the first suspension of the account and not the permanent one from later.)

As bad as this already is, her story with exposing kids to NSFW only gets worse, in the following paragraph we'll see how she was public about it even while having a fanbase of mostly minors.

Danii's NSFW alt accs (@Creamystuffs - 2021)

We saw a few of Danii's NSFW alts in the previous sections (BByBushie, SingularityNSFW, etc) but there's many more that we have not discovered yet as she herself reports on her main NSFW account.

This was an account that she more than likely made simply to separate her oc NSFW from the normal one as she never stopped associating the two going as far as still retweeting content from the main and secondary accounts on this new NSFW one.

10:04 AM - 4 Sep 2021

She decided to cope with losing her userbase to then settle on her secondary account originally named @danistuffthe2nd, which later switched to the @ambiencestuff tag, with the new year coming she'd slowly lose interest for BFDI and Fortnite to move onto Friday Night Funkin' + EXE content.

Danii's run from responsibility (@Ambiencestuff)

With this new account, Danii hoped to rebuild her previous audience back (which more than likely peaked at over 3-4k followers at least from what can be seen in the archives we were able to check) but this new attempt was cut short a few months in, as someone finally decided to raise awareness on her continued behaviour of drawing and exposing minors to porn (as she never lost the habit of posting her own porn but also following other NSFW users).

Before moving onto the next posts of the thread there are two important details from these first two.

You can notice how InfernoDrawz says that Danii “they drew p/rn as a minor(?)”, the reason for which he specifically choose to use a question mark is because just like us, Inferno knew that Danii first identified herself to be born in the year 2000.

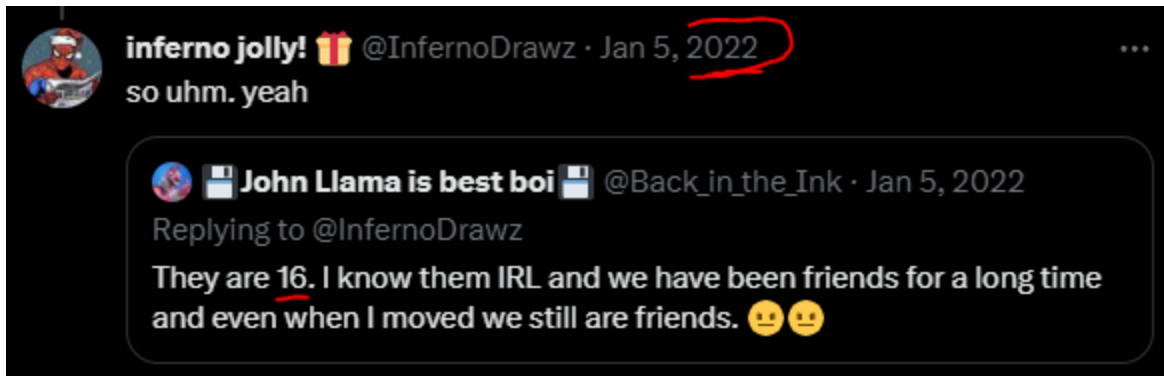

Or did he? Inferno says either 19 or 21, which implies that Danii might've changed her birth year at least two times, during the course of these months. These questions were then asked to Danii herself and her replies leave us with yet another age lie.

Ok imma just list them all off

1. You're 16 correct?
2. After you did the porn in the io server like 7 months ago, have you quit since then?
3. (If question 1 is a yes) why did your old acc say ur 21
4. (If question 1 is no) why would u be dating coffee then?

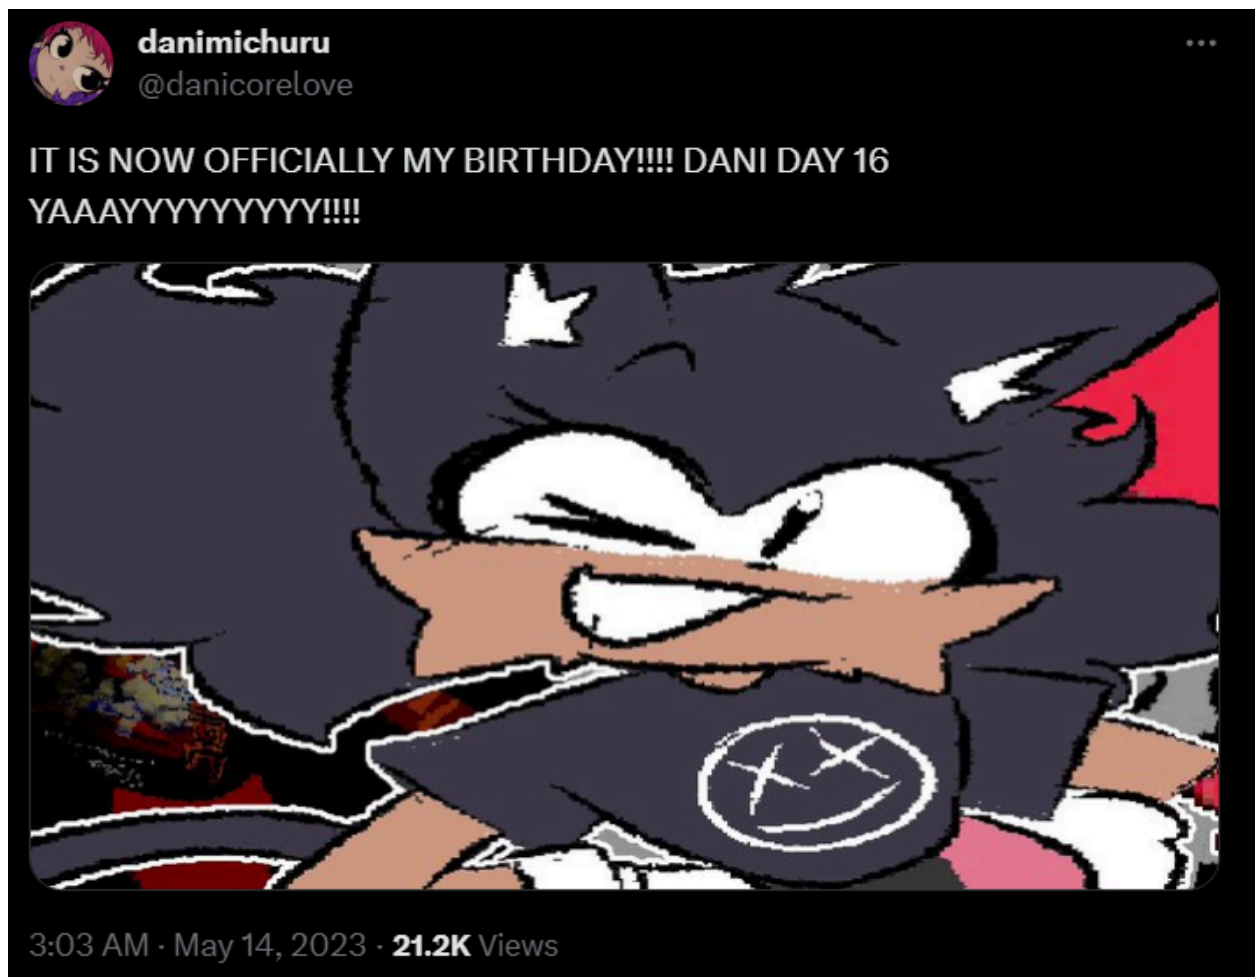

As you can see Danii replied “ya” to being 16 years old in the year 2022 and a supposed IRL friend of hers confirmed it, which could’ve been the end of the age faking mystery, had it not been for these two tweets she later made on her most recent alt.

The one above causes further confusion, because the release date of the Sonic 3 movie wasn't public in 2022 as it was revealed literally a few days ago but the one below from this year, just makes the problem worse as she regresses her age further.

This is at least the 6th time (at least with our current knowledge) during which Danii lied about her age and makes it clear that her word is not to be trusted.

If we want to follow the word of the user who supposedly knew her in person, then she lied about being 16 again as she actually is an adult over 18 today or well, it could also be even worse and she could as well be 23yo if the original date was true.

Danii was dating @augmentedcoffee during that time and just like @cupmandraws (plushie), he knew what was happening yet instead of speaking, he too decided to keep quiet about the harmful behaviour.

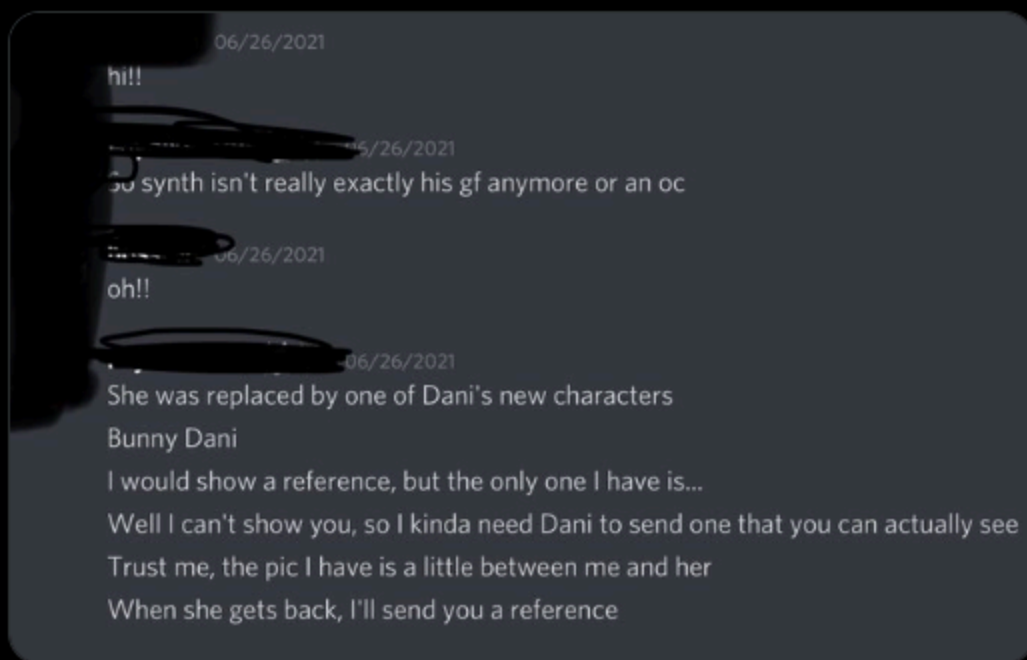

It's also worth noting that the IO server that Inferno mentions to be owned by Augmented, is NOT the same one in which Danii showed porn to the 10yo and 12yo victims, rather it's yet another one which confirms Danii's continued behaviour of exposing even more minors to her NSFW drawings.

That's as far as I can remember.

The rest of the thread shows the usual, her main NSFW account and a porn drawing she had made during that time but then from an archived now deleted user, we can see “@Pinkiesweat” pointing out two more of Danii’s NSFW accounts (a Rustler and a Flatfoot one) which we didn’t know of before.

Yet again this shows her trend of continuing to expose minors to NSFW and who knows how many more alt accounts she has that we don’t know of yet.

But for now let’s just proceed to her “apology”.

ventistuff · @ambiencestuff

Tweet

5th Jan 2022 from TwitLonger

sorry

hi.

i know a twitlonger apology isn't going to end well and will probably just provoke more hate to me as it always does whenever people write these things, but i need to give a better apology.

im sorry for what i did in the past, i can't fix it now, and trust me, i would if i could. I know i disappointed a lot of people and im not gonna sugarcoat this but you all probably hate me by now

Trying to play the victim card

just don't hate me because of something that i did long ago we've all done things wrong that we probably regret, but they're things we can't change

This excuse is pathetic, it was something she was literally doing days before getting publicly exposed and is an embarrassing attempt at deflecting criticism

I don't wanna make this cheesy or sappy, so im just saying im sorry for the people i've let down. I promise i am not like that anymore, and i WILL be better

Thank you to my real friends for being with me, im very glad to have met you and im very glad i got the chance to bond with you, as for others that i don't know very well.. i wish i could've gotten to know you better, maybe we would've been good friends Clichè, anyone can say that but Words are one thing, actions are another and if she really cared about improvent she would have actually left you probably see me very differently after what's happened, and that's ok, im probably not coming back to this community anyways

A very bad lie that was seen through since the start

Im extremely sorry for what i did, I hope you understand that and don't just brush this aside as a "half assed apology" because i really do mean it.

And if you find this apology not to be enough for you, then i dont know what to tell you.

This confirms the disingenuous nature of the apology, it's not something you do to please the crowd, rather it's your admission of guilt as a way to demonstrate you still have dignity and to the random people i don't know who decided to send me hate messages just to do it, go fuck yourselves for all i care glad i'll never have to interact with you But even then the apology by itself is just what i said earlier: mere words, to confirm them being honest, you actually have to leave and focus on yourself rather than just writing an excuse down Rightburst style so that people get off your ass and you can continue doing your shady business on an alt acting like nothing has happened even after all you did

i'll miss you guys ❤️

hope you can accept this apology

No

-dani

As you can see, we analysed it and it's pretty easy to see that this is just a dishonest apology attempt, trying to get people off her back which she more than likely posted as a way to quell or at least distract the criticism coming towards her as she was moving to her alt accs acting like nothing happened.

cass

@CassAbadeer

The way you know an apology is bad is if you show it to someone who doesn't know the person and they say they don't know what they are apologizing for

You literally don't explain at all

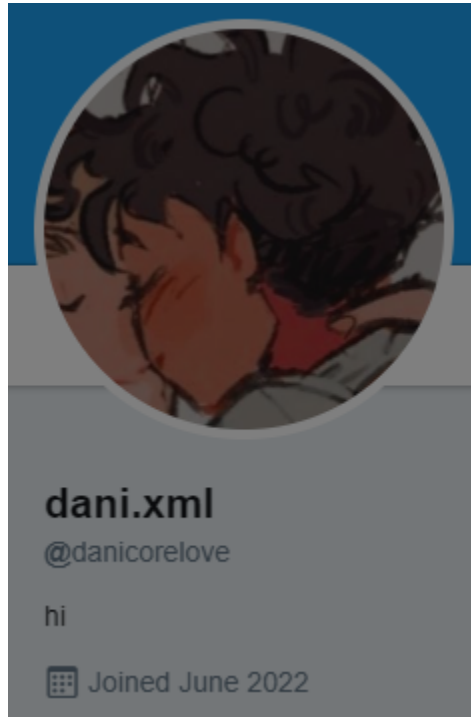

I wonder what this last tweet is about but this doc is already long enough as it is and we still aren't done. So now let's move onto the final section.

Danii's return from hiding (@danicorelove)

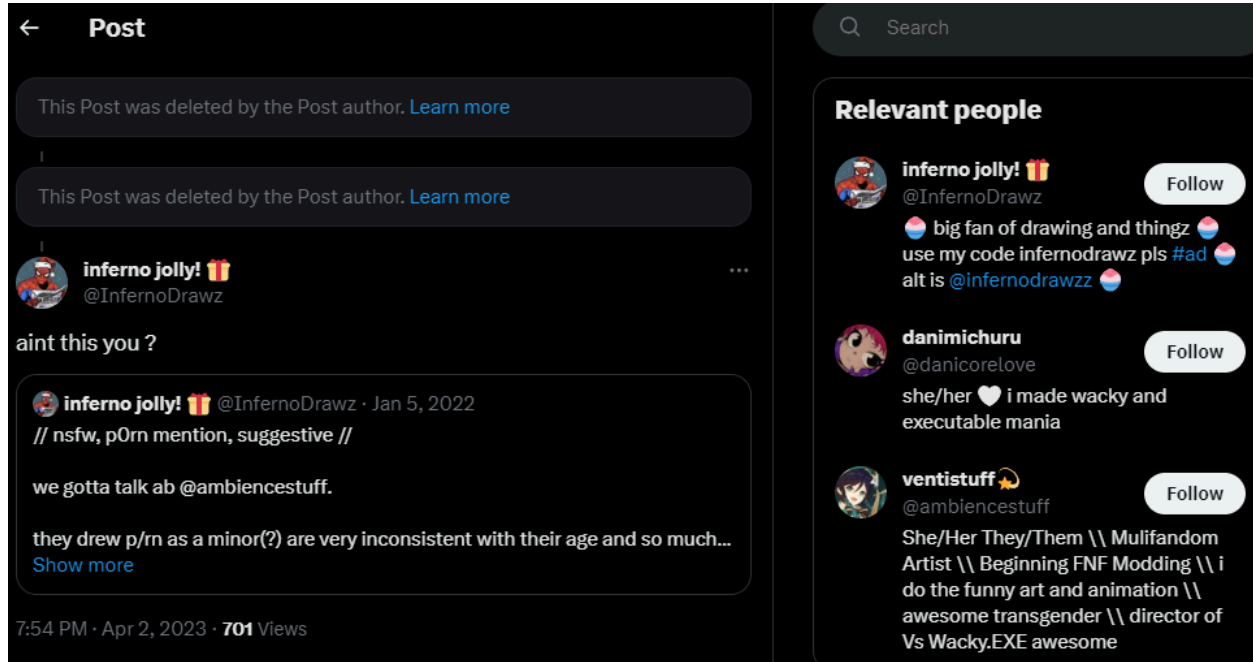

After this fake apology, Danii just moved onto her alt accounts and for a while it seems she hid under old alts or new identities, until she decided to return as herself with her now current @danicorelove account.

At this point you don't really need to know how it went as she was able to get away from everything scott-free even being able to pick back up the Wacky.exe mod she was making on her previous profile and with work being done on that it slowly brought her popularity she had never gotten before.

Inferno eventually noticed her and attempted to warn people, but other than getting her to delete the posts she had made here (which sadly weren't archived so we are unable to know the context), she just ignored him and continued as if nothing ever happened.

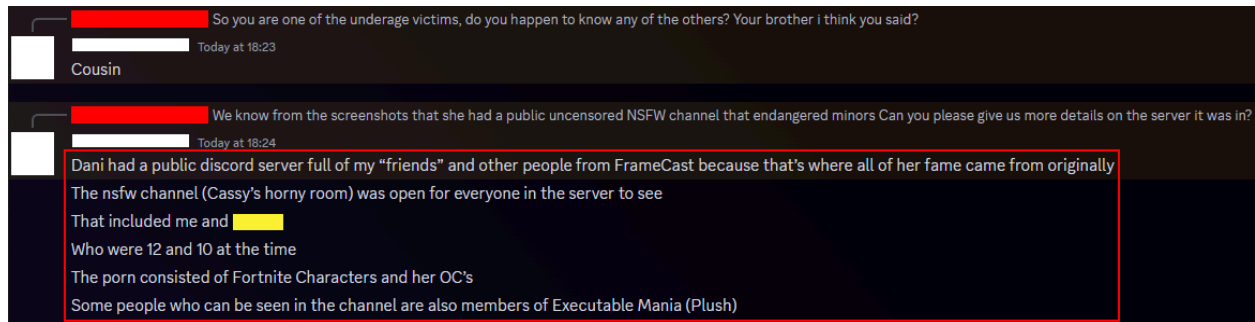

CONCLUSION

This brings us to her current status.

The reason this doc was made isn't just because of the scummy behaviour she still has to this day of her consistently lying about her age, it was first of all made because of the victims coming directly to us for help as their voices have never been heard so far and helping them bring such important information to light is the right thing to do, especially because they would have never done it themselves as they are extremely afraid of harassment due to Dani's now huge platform which she can use to shut 'em down.

Down here you can see testimonies from some of the minor victims when we asked about their experiences with her regarding the NSFW channel.

They were popular on this app called "FrameCast" and their username was
"HotLady" (crazy ik)

One of the channels were "Cassy's Horny Room"
The channel wasn't locked or anything
And it was just full of porn she drew

We again emphasize the fact that the two victims who came to us were not the only minors who have been subjected to porn because of Danii but rather just a few of the many, for example as you can see in the message the victim mentions Plush who also still is a minor to this day and so, with this doc we are giving anyone an opportunity to come forward by speaking about their experiences with her but not only that as there's also the very problematic issue of Danii's fake age due to her constantly lying all the time still (something that as we saw is still going as of very recently with her last supposed birthday).

Now for the final messages to those reading...

To Danii herself:

YOU ruined the innocence of who knows how many minors by giving them their first exposure to porn with your depraved drawings at such a young age, they are genuinely scarred by your actions and so scared of you weaponizing your fanbase against them, that so far only two out of them have found the courage to finally come and speak up to us about your true nature so that everyone else may know what harm you have done with your behaviour. NOT only that but you also continuously lied about your age to the point at which you still do to this day, which just shows how shady you are and leaves us with a bad situation either way as you could very well be a 18-23yo creepy adult who's lies about being 16 for god knows what reasons, or possibly a bit younger than that but it wouldn't change much (if anything it would just make things even worse) as your crimes are still god-awful nonetheless.

They looked up to you and you ruined them.

If you really were sorry about your behaviour back then you would've actually left for good, admitted guilt and made a proper apology but instead, you just did it Rightburst style to get people off your back so that you could continue working on chasing clout.

You should've left when he gave you the chance. Be aware that running away to a new identity won't work this time as we'll make sure the victims' voices are heard and the ones unaware are alerted of your despicable actions no matter where you'll be hiding. You knew it was all wrong and yet you selfishly went ahead taking no responsibility for the harm caused.

You were never honest, you were never sorry, you just wanted to build your audience back. If you have dignity, you'd leave, shame on you.

To @cupmandraws, @agcoffeelmao and anyone else involved who knew Danii back then:

Shame on you both for knowing her behaviour but not exposing it just because she is your friend, you especially Augmented as you were the one who dated her, but also gave Danii yet another space (IO server) to share her NSFW drawings to minors.

We better not see a reply from you guys like “she is my friend she changed trust my words” because that would just be proving your bias in favor of her again and confirm that you really never cared about the victims to begin with anyways.

To anyone who's friends with her today:

If you have a moral compass then you'll know what to do but we'll give you a hint with Inferno's post.

it's about time that this was dug up, because nobody talks about it all. i'm sorry dani but this is just not okay. condolences to anyone who was friends with them, hopefully you see their error and don't stick with them.

This message is also for anyone who looks up to her or is just an uninvolved bystander in this situation.

To any other victim of Danii:

It's never too late to speak up, so please come to us, tell us about your experiences with her and we'll make sure your voice is heard while keeping you anonymous to ensure that her fans don't harass you.

Now since we know things may have gotten confusing due to how we had to rush such a big doc because of someone being an idiot and taunting the subject by leaking there was a doc on her coming, there is one last paragraph shortly listing in clear all of Danii's actions, so please read carefully anyways.

SUMMARY

We'll first start with the actions we have the proof for in this doc and confirmed that, no matter what she might say, they cannot be disproven in any manner.

After that we'll move onto the allegations which are actions we did not include in the main sections of the doc because we couldn't have definitive proof for (mostly due to it being gone) and so we decided to leave out due to us possibly getting wrong.

(It is however very recommended that you read the full doc to know all the context before this section.)

Danii's confirmed actions

- Exposed an unknown number of minors to porn for the first time in their lives during her period of action from late 2019 to more than likely early-mid 2023

(her fanbase peaked at around 3-4k during the time)

- Drew perverted rape porn of child like characters and minors ocs for the same duration of time
- Ran multiple ERP alt accs which weren't hidden from minors as they were connected to her main (on the follows of the very few that aren't deleted we can also see that she followed lolicon artists)
 - Constantly lied about her age

(at the moment it's still unclear whether she's actually 23 years old, 18 or younger, due to how throughout the years she kept on regressing her age which is something she is still doing today)

- Traumatized minors by pressuring them (as you can see in the screenshot below)

Danii's alleged actions

- Showing minors a sexually charged bait & switch video of herself in skirt and thigh highs (the testimony given here to me is honestly pretty convincing but sadly the victim did not save it so as believable as it can be we cannot confirm and it might only be by further victims if any of them even has the proof left that is)

21/11/2023 19:04

All i can say is that with [REDACTED] i also was introduced to the idea of porn because of her server. I was once her friend (which i assume she doesn't remember me), she would freak out and constantly throw fits, changing her pfp to black and stop responding to people (including me) who were trying to comfort her, over random things. It was not something 12 year old me was supposed to deal with at that age

I wish i saved the video but there was something she posted of cassidy in a skirt and thigh highs, feeling herself and pulling a nerf gun from under their skirt which was the last straw for me, being super uncomfortable

The video was irl, I saw it with my own eyes and

It was a bait and switch video

She had like a green water/nerf gun underneath her thighs and she pulled it out at the end of the video

She was wearing a black skirt with black thigh high socks

And she definitely made it for her gooner fans because... the video wasn't fucking funny

The punchline was "omg I didn't expect her to pull out a gun!!!"

Could have been executed better, especially since all of her fans were minors

- Danii supposedly sending thigh pics to minors
(no specific testimony here as this is just word of mouth from other users who interacted with her but i'd say still plausible reading the one above)

There were also some negative comments about her behaviour, from a few people who worked on her mod about Danii scrapping assets out of pettiness but i refused to put them here because come on let's be real now, those would be the least of her problems with what she has done with minors in these years.

With that being said, this will be all, for now.
