Please report missing or incorrect information to Karen.Crawford@mdstudentcouncils.org

- Divisional Forums are open to all school and regional student council leaders, as well as any interested students. These forums are held virtually at 6:00 p.m., every other month on the 3rd Sunday: Registration: <https://forms.gle/qBjb9htSGexqw6aH8>
- Committee meetings are conducted virtually every month. Committee applications open in late summer and close on Monday, December 7.
- Action in Middle School (AIMS), designed specifically for middle school students, also meets virtually at 6:00 p.m., every other month on the 3rd Sunday. Any middle school student is welcome to participate in sharing ideas, discussing issues, and learning more about the Maryland Association of Student Councils (MASC). Registration: <https://forms.gle/KkKF4BDwRDBDazJp6>
- Executive Board meetings are offered both in person and virtually (except February, which is held virtually only). Any interested student is welcome to attend.
- Advisor Fireside Chats are 30-minute (6:30 - 7:00 p.m.) quarterly virtual discussions for advisors focused on sharing ideas, offering guidance, and connecting with fellow advisors to discuss common challenges, resources, and effective practices for supporting student councils. Oct. 5, Dec. 7, Feb. 8, Apr. 5

Note: Students may register themselves for all events except conferences. For conferences, a school advisor or administrator must register the school delegation, which must include at least one advisor or school system-approved adult chaperone.
