Privacy Policy

Last updated: January 30, 2026

1. Introduction

XPlain (“we”, “our”, or “the app”) respects your privacy and is committed to protecting it. This Privacy Policy explains how information is handled when you use the XPlain mobile application.

2. Information We Collect

XPlain does not require account registration.

The app may process the following information:

- User-provided content (such as text entered by the user)
  This content is used solely to provide learning explanations and assistance within the app.

We do not collect:

- names
- email addresses
- phone numbers
- precise location data
- payment information
- contacts
- photos or media files

3. How Information Is Used

User-provided content is used only for:

- delivering learning explanations

- improving the relevance of responses inside the app

The data is not used for advertising, tracking, or profiling.

4. Data Sharing

XPlain does not sell, rent, or share personal data with third parties.

User input is not publicly visible and is not shared with other users.

5. Data Storage

XPlain does not permanently store user-entered content unless required temporarily for processing.
We do not maintain user profiles or personal databases.

6. Children’s Privacy

XPlain is a general educational application and does not knowingly collect personal information from children.
The app does not include chat, social features, or user-to-user communication.

7. Security

Reasonable technical measures are used to protect the information processed by the app. However, no method of electronic transmission is 100% secure.

8. Changes to This Policy

This Privacy Policy may be updated from time to time. Any changes will be reflected on this page.
