

GRANTS AWARDED FOR 2022-2023

GRANTS AWARDED FOR 2021-2022

Julie Zammit, $50; to purchase an ETC Live Membership

Jenny Lancaster, $175; to offer each of the 28 students in her Latin classes the chance to take one of the special exams offered through the ACL

GRANTS AWARDED FOR 2020-2021

Nathalie Roy, $250; To conduct a STEM in Classics Day that is open to middle and high school students. Kits will be sent to students so that they can create catapults and games. Additionally, students will be provided with ink so they can learn to write like a Roman.

GRANTS AWARDED FOR 2019-2020

Lydia Palmer, $175; To conduct a free, two-week Latin summer camp for elementary and middle school students held at the Morningside Heights branch of the New York Public Library (West 113th Street and Broadway). Instruction at the camp will follow the Aequora Latin curriculum designed by the Paideia Institute for Humanistic Study. This curriculum combines meaningful learning with fun games and fosters among young learners an appreciation for the Latin language.

GRANTS AWARDED FOR 2018-2019

Yvonne Cole Boone, TRMC Packets Awarded; To establish a K -5 elementary Latin program at a Title 1 turnaround school.

GRANTS AWARDED FOR 2017-2018

Sarah Deeds, $260; To organize a Virtual Classroom lesson on the Gods and Heroes of Greece and Rome with the Cleveland Museum of Art.

GRANTS AWARDED FOR 2016-2017

No grants award.

GRANTS AWARDED FOR 2015-2016

Danielle Bostick, $350; To help create Living Latin boxes that will expose students of low socio-economic status, many of whom are English Language Learners, to Latin for the first time. Boxes will include costumes, replicas of buildings, simple vocabulary-building activities, hand-made coloring pages, Roman coins, other artifacts, and activities that link Latin to other cultures represented in our region

GRANTS AWARDED FOR 2014-2015

Brittany Ohlrich, $200; To purchase materials for creating time period pieces to host an Egyptian Day, Roman Day, and a series of other days in which the children are immersed in their respective time periods over the course of the school year

Sarah Christie, awarded TRMS Packets; to purchase supplies and resources to lead two groups of approximately 20 students each in a 16 week mythology course to prepare for the National Mythology Exam

GRANTS AWARDED FOR 2013-2014

Ruth Ann Besse, $200; To help provide official Minimus training as a pre-Institute program with co-instructors Barbara Bell, creator of Minimus, and Zee Ann Poerio, at the American Classical League Summer Institute in Williamsburg, Virginia.

Anne Washington Saunders, $255; To provide the opportunity for middle school students from PATH Academy charter school, to learn Greek and Roman Mythology from the student mentors of Marist School's Latin Honor Society through Mythapalooza events in preparation for the National Mythology Exam.

Derek Brandon Medina, $100; To provide an introduction to Roman culture, history, and mythology for students from under-financed urban schools, through the Young Scholars Institute of Trenton, New Jersey.

Ascanius & Gail Nichols, $350; To provide a free Roman Explorers Program for Harrisonburg, Virginia.

GRANTS AWARDED FOR 2012-2013

Ascanius Youth Classics Institute, $350; To provide a free Roman Explorers Program for Gloucester County, Virginia.

Michelle Lynch, $182; To in order to introduce the National Mythology Exam curriculum into the grades 3-7 gifted language arts program at CELTIC Academy in Glasgow, Kentucky.

GRANTS AWARDED FOR 2011-2012

Elise Ansel, $275; To build sets and costumes in order to create and perform a play based on Greek or Roman history.

GRANTS AWARDED FOR 2010-2011

No grants award.

GRANTS AWARDED FOR 2009-2010

Jeffrey Trexler, $200; To build a classics library including the purchase of the Iliad and the Odyssey. These books will be used for detailed study of the text in our Literature class and would promote Classical studies.

Rita O'Leary, $200; To fund activities that enable others to understand the history and tradition involved with the study of Latin.

Edith Hope Fine, $350; To present Eureka! Teleport Your Cryptokids into Greek and Latin Roots and to defray travel costs to attend the 62nd Annual ACL Summer Institute in Los Angeles, CA.

GRANTS AWARDED FOR 2008-2009

Chris Ann Matteo, $200; APA Outreach, "A Traveling Exhibit: APA Comics Contest Poster Display"

Matthew-Paul Frank Duran, $338; Aeneid Books to prepare students to present excerpts to promote the study of Classics, Seton LaSalle, Pittsburgh, PA

S. Suzanne Henrich, $250; Ascanius: Youth Classics Institute for Latin Summer Workshop at ACL Summer Institute, Durham, NH

GRANTS AWARDED FOR 2007-2008

Danielle Schaefer, $350; For Latin program materials for The Newport School, Silver Spring, MD

GRANTS AWARDED FOR 2006-2007

Nava Cohen, $350; To present Legimus, Scribimus, Cantamus (and sometimes Ludimus): A Model for Primary Latin at the ACL Summer Institute in Philadelphia 2006; <http://www.geocities.com/nrscohen/legimus>

Abigail Braddock, $175; Making the Connection: Middle School Students and Authentic Assessment" at the ACL Institute in Philadelphia 2006.

Barbara Bell, $175; For funds to help you present at the ACL Institute in 2006.

Kaye Reyes, $450; Total Immersion Latin for grades K-3 at the Workshop for Teachers of Ascanius: The Youth Classics Institute.

Sherri Madden, $350; For creation of teaching materials using images from Fulbright study in Rome.

PREVIOUS GRANTS AWARDED

Irene Hall, $750; To send Discovery Charter School students to see a Shakespeare Theatre of New Jersey production based on Greek mythology.

Joseph Marquette, $250; For materials to launch a middle school Classics program including classroom visuals, props, historical maps, and posters.

Kimberly Freeman, $300; To purchase books and materials for a middle-school Latin & Classical Studies exploratory course

Augusta County Institute for Classical Studies, $200; To develop and publish lessons and activities promoting the study of ancient Greek in the elementary school.

Stuart Davis, $350; To present a workshop detailing a Classical Studies curriculum suitable for 1st and 2nd graders at the 2005 ACL Institute.

Zee Ann Poerio, $300; To purchase new materials for the first Ancient Coin Museums and sponsor Elementary School activities including a contest, in conjunction with Ancient Coins for Education.

Rhodes College & David Sick, $200; To purchase Classical Studies-related books for a mentoring program between Classics students at Rhodes College and elementary children at a Memphis public school.

Cathy Scaife, $245; To travel to an exhibition of the Ancient Coin Museum in Pittsburgh. To deliver presentations on ancient coins to both students and teachers in conjunction with the exhibit.

Stacie Turner, $705; To assist high school Latin students in developing and implementing a mosaic workshop for middle and elementary school students in the Bristol, Conn. area.

Augusta County Institute for Classical Studies, $1,000; Latin Summer program.

Susie Scoppa, $350; To present "A Field Trip in the Palm of Your Hand: Roman Coins" at the 2004 ACL Institute.

Victoria Lehman, $300; To present "Victoria's Secret: Techniques for Motivating the Masses using the Theory of Multiple Intelligences" at the 2004 ACL Institute.

Zee Ann Poerio, $350; To collaborate with "Minimus" author Barbara Bell on trans-Atlantic projects promoting and advancing K-8 Classical Studies.