

Web Usage Policy (UNCA)

The following page contains information specifically designed to frame the Web Usage Policy for EDUC 211 and subsequent Electronic Education Portfolio.

Read and understand the "Computing and Networking Usage - Students".

In compliance with the "Computing and Networking Usage - Students" policy set by The University of North Carolina Asheville (hereinafter "University") the following policy will be in effect relating to EDUC 211 and the subsequent required e-portfolio.

Policy:

The University-provided student account is an academic necessity for EDUC 211 and Department of Education candidate. Departmental level monitoring and evaluation of the content of EDUC 211 and Department of Education candidate accounts is required to provide evidence of successful completion of assignments and proper adherence to standards addressed by the "Professional Dispositions Checklist - Engagement in Academic Work, Clinical Settings, and the Learning Process" criteria.

Note: From the "Computing and Networking Usage - Students" Policy II:

F. Any creation of a personal home page or a personal collection of electronic material that is accessible to others must include a disclaimer that reads as follows:

The material located at this site is not endorsed, sponsored or provided by or on behalf of the University of North Carolina at Asheville.