

Using inferences to determine characterization

Group members: _____

_____

Novel title: _____

Quote with page number	What it teaches us about this character
...even though I am not so great a student, I am not harmful and if they gave me another chance I would do okay, I swear. (6)	Iggy wants to make his life better but faces some serious obstacles. He has made some poor decisions, and a lot of things in his life are out of his control, but he has not given up on life yet.
...I am on my own, which is scary because even though I'm sixteen I am only a freshman and that is too soon to get kicked out. Plus, I have no skills, and if you do not graduate high school and you have no skills then you are out of luck. (7)	This quote shows...
...so if my plan is an excellent plan and I do something to contribute to the world like Principal Olmos said, then maybe everyone will figure out how wrong they are about me and I won't get kicked out after all. (9)	This quote shows...
...Maria winked at me and said, "Maybe he'll grow up big and strong like you," which was just her being nice because I am short and weak, but it was still a cool thing to say, so for a day I wanted him to grow up like me... until today when I got kicked out. (10)	This quote shows...
	This quote shows...
	This quote shows...