
Syllabus - 10th Grade Diplomacy and International Communication 2025-26

1. General

- The aim of this document is to present the general plan of study for 10th grade Diplomacy and International Communication.
- The subject will be studied four hours per week.
- Throughout the school year, students will be assessed according to their participation and/or performance in several tasks and projects, both within and out of the classroom.
- There will be no formal assessments (exams) this year.

2. Textbooks

- International Communication Grade 10 Student Booklet, 2025 Edition

3. Units of Study

- The Diplomat in Me
- Intercultural Communication
- Media and Visual Literacy
- Public Narrative and Storytelling

4. Calculation of Yearly Grade

- 90% Projects and Presentations
- 10% Reflective Essay

Bagrut .5

- There is no Bagrut exam or project this year. The yearly grade will be a part of the total hagasha grade.
-

6. Comments

- Students are requested to bring the booklet and a dedicated notebook to class.
- The material covered in class and all assignments will be posted in Mashov.
- The class is very participation intensive and consistent attendance is important.
- Changes in this syllabus may be required as a result of unforeseen events.

Wishing all of our students an enjoyable and fulfilling year,

The Diplomacy and International Communication staff