A personal Response to Signs

This lesson is based on a beautiful short film called Signs by Patrick Hughes about communication.

1) Think of examples of each form of communication.

Oral communication Presentations.
Written communication Reports,
Nonverbal communication Eyecontact,
Visual communication Colours,

2) What are the advantages and disadvantages of each type of communication?

You are going to watch a short film called ´Signs´. It is about different types of communication.

You are now going to write a response to the video. Here are some guidelines you should to follow:

1) Do not retell the story. Write about the major theme(s) or topic(s)

2) Your first paragraph should be an introduction to your topic. Include to the topic/issue that you are going to focus on. It should be brief: four or five sentences.
3) Your body paragraphs should explore the themes you mentioned in your introduction. Talk about the characters, scenes, symbols and situations from the movie.
4) When you talk about something that you saw in the short film, make sure you use present simple.
5) Use paragraphs
6) Pay attention to grammar punctuation. When you finish, always proofread.
