Survivor 31: Cambodia

Survivor is the most physically demanding and emotionally taxing game on television. It strips you to your core while offering the opportunity to prove what you're made of. For those who win, the reward is grand... a million dollars and a high that may never be repeated. But for those who lose, the consequences often a relentless nightmare of what ifs that never ends... until now. This season, for the first time ever, we turned Survivor over to the fans. Twenty former players who have played only once were selected by a nationwide audience vote. They're being given a second chance to finish what they started. Some have waited over a decade. They've traveled to Cambodia, a country with its own stunning, humbling, and powerful history that stirs the emotions. It serves as a vivid reminder of how the past can haunt, and provides the inspiration to seize their second chance.

1. Kelly (1/1): Fifteen years ago, I was in Borneo, the first season, and I almost won. Made it 39 days and lost by one vote. And that's why I'm here. It's been poking at me for fifteen years, little by little. I'm much stronger, and smarter, and I'm a mom now-- I've given birth, okay, I can do anything at this point, right? [11/20, Merge, 3rd Juror]
2. Andrew (1/1): I am living the dream. I have the perfect wife. My kids, they're amazing. I've got a great job. I don't have any bad things in my life except... Pearl Islands. My exit-- it's haunted me for twelve years and I'm not over it. And to cure my Survivor pain, I need to give it a thousand percent. I'm gonna leave everything I got in this game and it'll be epic. [12/20, Merge, 2nd Juror]
3. Spencer (1/1): Last time I played Survivor I was frankly, cocky. I thought about Survivor in terms of chess but I have done a lot of maturing. I've done emotional growing in that time. People are not chess pieces and they need to be related to on a human level. Being more emotionally aware, I think I'm in a better place in life than I've ever been to play and win this game. [2/20, Merge, Runner-Up (T)]
4. Kimmi (1/1): My experience in Australia was cut way short and I wanna have that second chance at my dream of getting to the end. The Angkor Wat temple, that's a total metaphor for this whole game because, you know, you get a little bit of damage, but you know what? You can build yourself up. Fourteen years is a long time to finish that last chapter in the book. [6/20, Merge, 8th Juror]

5. Kelley (1/1): Last time I played the game I was with my dad. Playing with my dad was my downfall, absolutely. I probably should've written my dad's name down. But I can't go back on that now. I can take this second chance and I can make the moves that I wanted to make and have a better game. [4/20, Merge, 10th Juror]
6. Ciera (1/1): I really messed up my first time, being scared early on. After discovering that like, I can socially work my way through this game I started to say, "Okay, Ciera. I'll start making some moves." Unfortunately, that had to start with voting my mom out. And this time, I want to be fearless and I wanna see that person I was at the end of the game, at the beginning of the game and just leave it all out on the island. [10/20, Merge, 4th Juror]
7. Tasha (1/1): The first time I played Survivor I was nice Tasha. I didn't want my family or my church members to be disappointed in the way I played the game. When I returned home, my church members were saying, "You need to be more aggressive. You need to lie and backstab like everyone else." So if the saints think it's okay... it's okay. I'm here to win a million dollars and when it's all done, I'll pray for forgiveness. [2/20, Merge, Runner-Up (T)]
8. Jeff (1/1): This second chance means everything in the world to me. I jumped off a pole in The Outback for peanut butter and gave away a million dollars when I did it. Having to replay that history over and over for fourteen years really does a number on you. This is my opportunity to rewrite my own story. I'm more mature, I'm a lot smarter, and I'm not jumping off anything for peanut butter. [17/20, Pre-Merge, Pre-Jury]
9. Joe (1/1): Growing up as a kid, me and my dad would sit around and watch Survivor. It was really hard not getting my dad out here for the loved ones visit. It was something that I really wanted to do to prove to myself that I can make it that far in the game. I just came up short and it was devastating. I think this is my time to make it happen right now. [8/20, Merge, 6th Juror]
10. Kass (1/1): We all have a little devil in us. I was a bit of a troublemaker my season. Chaos Kass, well, she lives somewhere deep within me, but if I don't change someone's gonna take me down. But I kind of like my legacy thus far. I like the chaos. The only thing that needs to change is their perception of me and then when the merge comes, if I'm there, uh, all hell breaks loose. [13/20, Merge, 1st Juror]
11. Abi-Maria (1/1): You know, when I look back on my season, I made a lot of mistakes. I created a lot of trouble... that was a mistake. I threw coconuts at Skupin's head... that was a mistake. I was too blunt with Lisa... I shouldn't have done that. But having a second chance to come back and patch those little mistakes. But I like having fun. Villains have more fun. [7/20, Merge, 7th Juror]
12. Jeremy (1/1): Last time when I played with my wife, half my mind was always with her. It's emotional, you know, with Val. I really love her and I care about what she's doing. I wasn't focused so I was blindsided by my own alliance. I went home, took it hard. Now, I want the money for Val more than for me. Like, I just need to go through this again. I'm back for some redemption. [1/20, Merge, Sole Survivor]

11. Joe (1/1): I don't want them to think I'm a threat. I want them to think that I'm here to enjoy the beaches. No, I want to beat you in Survivor. [10/18, Merge, 2nd Juror]

Which way of life will prove to be most valuable?

12. Rodney (1/1): People look at me they just think I'm a meat head. But when it comes to competition, I'm filet mignon and they're a bunch of steak-umms. [4/18, Merge, 8th Juror]

In the end, only one will remain to claim the million dollar price.

Survivor 29: San Juan Del Sur

One year ago, Survivor: Blood vs. Water pitted loved ones against each other. Testing the core of human emotion in a way we've never experienced before. It was so compelling we're doing it again. Scattered below, nine pairs of loved ones have been dropped in the jungles of Nicaragua to begin the adventure of a lifetime. It's not even Day 1 and the game has already begun. Each pair has been given a flint to practice making fire together. It may be their only chance to help each other in the game. They come from all walks of life. Boyfriend, girlfriend: Jon and Jaclyn are already experienced winners. She's Miss Michigan 2013, he played football for Michigan State.

1. Jon (1/1): We have a phenomenal relationship. Jaclyn (1/1): We have fun. Jon: But it's not all just this pretty beautiful picture that people just love to paint. Jaclyn: Yeah, I don't want people to hate us and think that we're this, like, crazy perfect couple. Jon: Yeah.

Former professional baseball player John Rocker was at the center of controversy 15 years ago.

3. John (1/1): I've spent the last 15 years of my life trying to say "I'm not the loud, obnoxious, boisterous kind of guy" but media has loved over the years, you know, to label me racist, bigot, homophobe and everything else. I'm not a bigot. Them's are fighting words right there.

Long time girlfriend Julie, hopes to provide him with the support they need to pitch a perfect game and get to the end.

4. Julie (1/1): I have a lot to prove because everybody may say "look at the girl with the hair and the boobs, and, you know, and the boyfriend" but I am very independent. I can stand on my own two feet.

Mother, daughter: Missy and Baylor are no strangers to adversity. Missy's three divorces have forced Baylor to take on the motherly role in this complicated relationship.

5. Baylor (1/1): The divorces have definitely brought us closer, you know, whatever happens to me affects her, whatever happens to her affects me. Missy (1/1): Absolutely. There's this bond between mother and daughter that is so unbelievable, you can't tear it apart. I mean there's no stopping us. I mean, no way.

Brothers Drew and Alec from rural Florida have always had a sibling rivalry. Now, younger Alec would love nothing more than to outlast his older brother in the game.

7. Alec (1/1): Drew and I have been going at it pretty much since I came out the womb. I mean, I'm hoping to prove to him that I can beat him at this game. Drew (1/1): I would love to see him beat me at this game honestly, I really would. Alec: I'm gonna give you a front row seat.

For hard working Dale, farming is the only life he's ever known but growing up, daughter Kelley couldn't wait to make her own path.

9. Kelley (1/1): My dad and I, we have had a up and down relationship over the past 10 years or so. Um, we didn't talk for probably 3 or 4 years. Dale (1/1): But I think Survivor will help us grow back together. This will be something that we can share for the rest of our lives together.

Longtime Survivor fans and couple, Josh and Reed performed on Broadway in New York and both feel they have what it takes to survive 39 Days in this jungle.

11. Josh (1/1): We both are such fans of the game. This guy, for our first Valentine's Day, gives me flint. Reed (1/1): I got him flint! We're actually really comfortable being outdoors and sleeping in the dirt. Josh: And we are now ready for it.

They've left behind the comfort and safety of their normal world. For 39 Days they will be left to fend for themselves. Boston police officer Val and her firefighter husband Jeremy have an ongoing rivalry over their jobs despite being madly in love with each other.

13. Jeremy (1/1): I tried to get on Survivor for 10 years. I didn't bring her out here and leave our daughters at home to lose. Val (1/1): I know that we're both in it to win it so may the best profession win.

Sri Lankan twins, Nadiya and Natalie took an aggressive approach on The Amazing Race and it failed them twice. Now they're looking to take on their biggest adventure yet and go all the way.

15. Natalie (1/2): On Amazing Race we had all the basic needs. You take away all the basic needs and that's Survivor. Nadiya (1/4): We'll have sleepless nights, empty bellies. Natalie: Survivor is going to be way harder than Amazing Race. Nadiya: Our blood is thicker than anybody else's blood out here. I can guarantee you that because the longest, I think, we've ever been apart without seeing each other was like two weeks.

Father and son, Louisiana firefighters, Keith and Wes share a love for their job and the outdoors. But while Keith is nearing retirement, he is not yet ready to pass the torch to his son Wes.

17. Wes (1/1): This is my time to shine. Keith (1/1): What about my time? Is it over with? Wes: Your time has been gone. Keith: Been gone? Wes: It's showtime for me, I think. Keith: Showtime for you... Wes: I got social aspect, physical aspect, mental aspect. I feel like I got it all. Keith: You're as mentally strong as that rock. (pointing to rock)

Their relationships will be put to the ultimate test. It's Survivor: San Juan del Sur – Blood vs. Water. Eighteen Americans, forced to work together while battling the elements and each other. They must learn to adapt or they will be voted out. In the end, only one will remain and claim the million dollar price. 39 Days, 18 People, 1 Survivor!

These eighteen Americans have been divided into three groups that represent the qualities they most rely on in their daily lives. The Brain tribe, with an average IQ of 130. This group utilizes their intellect to accomplish their goals.

1. Spencer (1/2): In 2010, I entered the World Open Chess Tournament and I tied for first. I certainly don't look diabolical or like a genius, both of which I am. [4/18, Merge, 8th Juror]
2. David (1/1): I'm the president of the Miami Marlins. In baseball, there's only one winner at the end. Survivor is the same, so I've been playing this game for a long time. Just not on a beach. [18/18, Pre-Merge, Pre-Jury]

3. Kass (1/1): I am an attorney and my track record is undefeated. They're thinking "Aw, how cute, there's the mom." They don't know I'm probably more cunning and ruthless than 95% of the population. [3/18, Merge, 9th Juror]

The Beauty tribe. This group includes a cheerleader, pageant queen, and fashion model, who rely on their looks to get what they want.

4. Morgan (1/1): I was an NFL cheerleader. I don't want to sound, like, super conceited, but from a guy, I usually get what I want. [10/18, Merge, 2nd Juror]
5. Jeremiah (1/1): I'm a fashion model. I think it's going to help me out get a bit further into the game, because I'm gonna win them over with my looks. [8/18, Merge, 4th Juror]
6. Jefra (1/1): I competed in Miss Kentucky. I was second place three years in a row. People label me "Pageant Girl," but I believe that beauty is going to help me with the social aspect of the game. [7/18, Merge, 5th Juror]

The Brawn tribe. This group relies on physical strength.

7. Cliff (1/1): My name is Cliff Robinson. I played eighteen years in the NBA. I always play for bread and meat. I don't win, I don't eat. That's what the game of Survivor is about. [14/18, Pre-Merge, Pre-Jury]
8. Sarah (1/1): I'm a police officer and I started mixed martial arts in 2009. Getting paid to punch someone in the face... It doesn't really get better than that. [11/18, Merge, 1st Juror]
9. Tony (1/1): I've been a police officer up in Jersey City for thirteen years. I'm always jumping over cars, climbing over fences, jumping from roof to roof, chasing people. So this game to me should be easy. Knock on wood. [1/18, Merge, Sole Survivor]

It is the ultimate challenge. Brawn vs. Brains vs. Beauty. Which trait will prove the most valuable?

10. Tasha (1/1): I'm super smart. I have what it takes to win this game. [6/18, Merge, 6th Juror]
11. Alexis (1/1): I don't see the guys going, "Oh, I wanna vote her off right away." They don't wanna look at ugly girls all day. (laughs) [12/18, Pre-Merge, Pre-Jury]
12. Lindsey (1/1): I'm known as the tough brawny girl. When I feel like someone's out to get me, I'm gonna get you back, and I'm going to get you ten times harder. [13/18, Pre-Merge, Pre-Jury, Quits]

And who will have what it takes to outlast all the rest?

13. Spencer (2/2): I will go down as one of the best players to play and I want to play an awesome game.

In the end, only one will remain to claim the million dollar prize. 39 days, 18 people, 1 Survivor!

Survivor 27: Blood vs. Water

Night is falling in the Luzon Strait as ten pairs of castaways are being dropped off in ten separate locations. One returning player and their loved one. What they don't know is they won't be playing together, they'll be competing against each other.

Gervase played the very first season when his niece, Marissa, was only nine years old.

1. Gervase (1/2): I am the original, the OG, the one who started this all. This time, I actually believe I can win this game. Marissa (1/1): It's cute that he thinks he's going to win, like, after thirteen years, come back, and play this game again. Like, I'm just focused on me winning this game. Gervase: You're definitely driven, you're definitely driven, but you're new to the game.

In Survivor: One World, Kat's instability lost her the game. Now, along with Big Brother winner and boyfriend Hayden, they hope to go all the way.

3. Hayden (1/1): Big Brother, I mean, it is Survivor in (air quotes) "a house." So as far as training or preparation, I'm going to be more prepared than anybody else that hasn't already played this game.
4. Kat (1/2): Hayden has already won a show before. Like, this is my time. This is my game.

In Survivor: Samoa, Laura was a mother to her tribe. This time, she'll have to split her focus between her daughter Ciera and the game.

5. Ciera (1/1): I think that our ability to kind of balance each other out is really gonna benefit us. Laura M. (1/1): But yet, she's my heart. And nothing is harder than seeing somebody that you love suffer.

With 100 days playing the game, fan favorite Rupert, has never made it to the end. His wife, Laura, hopes to be the first in the family to win this game and emerge from the shadow of his legacy.

7. Rupert (1/1): I am returning to Survivor for my fourth time. Laura B. (1/1): I mean, this has always been about Rupert, and Rupert playing three times, and Rupert, Rupert, Rupert. Rupert: Now it's time for Laura.

After making some controversial statements in Survivor: One World, Colton left with a mysterious ailment and few fans. He's hoping fiance Caleb, will provide him with the maturity he needs.

9. Colton (1/1): I don't really know how people are going to respond to me. Last time, I was like, this big ball of anger. My goal, apart from winning this season, is to show people a different side of me, the new Colton. Caleb (1/1): I'm worried about Colton's reputation because he pissed a lot of people off. But I know a different Colton. This is going to be kind of a redemption for him.

When Candice played the game in Survivor: Cook Islands, she was a young med school student. Now she and her husband, John, both doctors, hope one of them can make it to the end.

11. Candice (1/1): We are two people who have been very successful. It could be something that people perceive as a threat. John (1/1): Absolutely, and being young and athletic, I think we're gonna have a big target on our backs.

Former NFL wife Monica, played the game for herself in Survivor: One World. Now she'll share the spotlight with her famous husband, Brad Culpepper.

13. Monica (1/1): Normally, it's that I'm Brad's wife, but when it comes to Survivor, I'm the wily veteran here. Brad (1/1): I play second fiddle to Monica. I'm the young rookie. Monica: And it's my turn to win and this time I brought some ammunition.

Tina, winner of The Australian Outback, has her sights set on a second title, but her daughter Katie, has plans on her own.

15. Tina (1/1): I told Katie our lives transcends this game but our family is very competitive. Katie (1/1): There is just one winner and there's two of us, and that poses a very difficult situation. I would love to beat my mother at her own game.

Tyson was blindsided in Tocantins and famously voted himself out of Heroes and Villains. Now with longtime girlfriend Rachel, he hopes to redeem himself.

17. Tyson (1/1): I've been disappointed by Survivor twice, but this time I actually feel like I'm in a pretty good spot. You know, in a game like this, I think that the loved ones aren't going to be prepared, and I'm going to slit their throats.

18. Rachel (1/1): Survivor was always Tyson's thing. I never thought in a million years I'd be out here. With the loved one's season it's going to be a game changer. It's going to be crazy out here.

Aras, the likable winner of Survivor: Exile Island, returns to the game with his brother Vytas, who has a much darker past.

19. Vytas (1/2): I was a drug addict. Heroin definitely led to my arrest. I spent a year in L.A. County Jail. Aras still has a lot of resentment against me.

20. Aras (1/1): So my brother was pretty abusive when we were younger and that inspired me to beat things at things I could beat him in. I don't know if me going on Survivor made my brother envious, but I'm sure that winning it did.

They will have one night alone in the jungle, a chance for the returning players to prepare their loved ones for what awaits them. It's not even Day 1, but the game has already begun. They have left behind the comfort and safety of their normal world to take part in the adventure of a lifetime. It's Survivor: Blood vs. Water. Twenty Americans forced to work together to build a new society while battling the elements and each other.

21. Kat (2/2): It is the most important thing in my entire life to beat Hayden Moss.

They must learn to adapt or they'll be voted out.

22. Gervase (2/2): She's a threat to me. At some point in time I'm gonna have to get rid of her.

In the end, only one will remain to claim the million-dollar prize.

23. Vytas (2/2): I want to win that money, I want to win this game, and I'm going to beat Aras to do it.

39 Days, 20 People, 1 Survivor!

Survivor 26: Caramoan

This is the Caramoan Islands, a stunning paradise, and a dangerous wilderness. These ten Americans are about to begin the adventure of a lifetime.

1. Matt (1/1): It is definitely a surreal experience that I'm here and I'm going to be playing the game. [14/20, Pre-Merge, Pre-Jury]

They come from different walks of life.

2. Shamar (1/1): I've been on over sixty combat missions in Iraq, so as far as this game goes, they're lunch meat. [17/20, Pre-Merge, Pre-Jury, Medevaced]

But they have one thing in common, they are all Fans of Survivor.

3. Allie (1/1): I know enough about the game and I know enough about people that I think I'll make it to the very end. [19/20, Pre-Merge, Pre-Jury]

And first impressions are already forming.

4. Laura (1/1): There is one guy with glasses who seems particularly observant of everybody else. I think, he is going to be another strategist, besides myself. [16/20, Pre-Merge, Pre-Jury]
5. Michael (1/1): One of the blondes, good Lord, you could break her in two, I think, and she looks like she's, like, eighteen years old. I'm like, "What in the hell is she doing out here?" [11/20, Merge, 1st Juror]

But flying overhead, their competition. Ten Favorite Survivors from past seasons. Malcolm, one of the most popular to ever play came within one challenge of winning it all, but he dropped the ball. Cochran, the Survivor nerd. He betrayed his tribe and paid the ultimate price and he took Dawn down with him. He told her his plan to flip but she was too loyal to go along. Brenda, she used her looks to her advantage, but not everyone on her tribe was charmed. Erik was a fan on the first Fans vs Favorites and his inexperience showed. But Erik wasn't the only one to give up immunity. Brandon was willing to sacrifice everything to play the honest game his uncle, Russell Hantz, never could.

6. Brandon (1/1): You're not gonna screw me or they're gonna be consequences. [15/20, Pre-Merge, Pre-Jury, Impromptu TC due to aggressive behavior]

Andrea, the hardworking, farm girl. She flirted her way right out of the game. Corinne, she was good at making friends but even better at making enemies. Phillip, he was labeled crazy by his tribemates. But he aligned with one of Survivor's best and made it to the final three. Now he'll have to contend with an old rival, Francesca. But Phillip came out the victor when Francesca was voted out first.

7. Andrea (1/1): The theme of this season is people that made big mistakes. This is a chance to correct those mistakes. [7/20, Merge, 5th Juror]

What will happen when these explosive personalities collide? It is the ultimate challenge. Ten Favorites must work together while battling the elements and their egos. Ten Fans must learn the game fast or they'll be voted out. In the end, only one will remain to claim the million-dollar prize. 39 Days, 20 People, 1 Survivor!

Survivor 25: Philippines

We are in one of the most beautiful and remote locations in the world, the Philippines. Here, thousands of islands scattered over the southeast Asian Sea are home to waters and rainforests filled with countless animals, both beautiful and dangerous. Amidst the serenity of this majestic landscape, furious storms can arrive without warning. It is here where fifteen Americans, already divided into three tribes, have begun the adventure of a lifetime.

1. Jeff (1/1): I'm Jeff Kent. I played seventeen years of, uh, Major League Baseball. And I played in the world series where we had screaming fans on their feet with bases loaded. I've seen pressure. This is going to be a challenge for me, no doubt. But I'm hoping people won't recognize me. [10/18, Merge, 2nd Juror]
2. Zane (1/1): You know, I have people come up to me all the time and ask me about Frankenstein. He picked a little girl a flower. I mean, he strangled her after he gave it to her but, still, you know, he picked her a flower. And I-I think that-that's the way-- the way I feel about myself-- is I could strangle you or pick you a flower, it depends on what you pull out of me, you know what I mean? [18/18, Pre-Merge, Pre-Jury]

3. Lisa (1/1): My name is Lisa Whelchel and I played the character of Blair Warner on a show called The Facts of Life. Blair Warner would never, in a million years, be on Survivor but I'm very, very different from Blair. I'm a huge fan of Survivor. I've never missed a show, and at this point, I'm not going to say that I was on The Facts of Life as a kid. I'm getting to be just Lisa. [2/18, Merge, Runner-Up (T)]

Survivor is the most thrilling adventure game on television. It is also the most dangerous. Over 24 seasons, many of those who started the game were unable to finish. Pulled from the game with one question in their hearts: What could have been? What these castaways don't know is that three former players are returning for a second shot to finish what they started.

4. Russell (1/1): The last time I played, Survivor smacked me in the chops. And this time I'm smacking back. And either these people will run with me or I'm gonna have to run them over. That's it. [15/18, Pre-Merge, Pre-Jury]
5. Jonathan (1/1): I got injured in a challenge. It was awful. Do you know how on fire I am to win this thing? You know how much I can taste this? And you know how I can-- I can actually see it? 39 days from now I'll make a million dollars. [7/18, Merge, 5th Juror]
6. Michael (1/1): The whole 18 days that I was on Survivor: The Australian Outback was such an amazing adventure. The Kucha tribe was winning and the killing of the wild boar was a pretty big accomplishment. But I think the world saw that me falling in the fire was my greatest failure. I didn't see it that way. I think to dwell on "what if" would cheat what the adventure was for me. But I'm in love with the fact that I'm able to come out here and do it again. [2/18, Merge, Runner-Up (T)]

Will the veterans have what it takes to be the Sole Survivor? Or will a new castaway emerge to claim the million-dollar prize? 39 Days, 18 People, 1 Survivor!

Survivor 24: One World

I'm flying over a remote Polynesian island. Below me are 18 Americans who have already begun the adventure of a lifetime.

1. Colton (1/1): This is definitely my game. Girls love me. As far as guys, like, the guys aren't going to see me as a threat. [13/18, Pre-Merge, Pre-Jury, Medevaced]
2. Alicia (1/1): If I find out one of these dudes likes me, oh, they're going to get played. [5/18, Merge, 8th Juror]
3. Jonas (1/1): I have a ton of outdoor skills that people won't necessarily know because how badass could a sushi chef be? [12/18, Merge, 1st Juror]

They think they've got Survivor figured out.

4. Jay (1/1): I'm going to try to make a girl alliance. So I'm in with the females, as well as the males. [10/18, Merge, 3rd Juror]

They think they know the rules.

5. Michael (1/1): I've seen the game change. I think I'm ready for a twist. [11/18, Merge, 2nd Juror]

They think they've seen everything but they're in for a huge surprise. What they don't know, is this season, they'll be divided into two tribes and will live together on one beach. This is Survivor: One World. For the first time ever, two tribes, one camp, no rules. Who will stay true to their tribe, and who will form alliances with the enemy? It is the ultimate adventure. 39 Days, 18 People, 1 Survivor!

Survivor 23: South Pacific

Over the raging waters of the South Pacific, two of Survivor's most memorable players, Ozzy and Coach are returning for a shot at redemption.

1. Coach (1/1): I played this game twice. I haven't been successful. This time trying to control my sense of self-righteousness and judgment on the others. I'm back because this is one more shot for me to prove to everybody that I can own this game and that it can be done with honor and integrity. [2/18, Merge, 1st Runner-Up]

2. Ozzy (1/1): I've been the guy that's able to climb coconut trees and hunt fish. I've also been really strong in challenges, but I don't think I had the best strategy. This time I'm more mature and I've learned from my mistakes. I need redemption because I feel like I just haven't been able to lock my hands on the million dollars. I've almost been there a few times, I just haven't been able to finish. [4/18, Merge, 9th Juror, Voted out thrice]

This is Redemption Island Arena where their battle will begin. They'll be competing against each other and a new group of castaways, each with their own story to tell.

3. Cochran (1/1): I'm by far the most Survivor savvy player ever to play the game. I've never missed a single episode. At law school I wrote a prize-winning essay on Survivor. [8/18, Merge, 5th Juror]
4. Elyse (1/1): I don't have a great background in outdoorsman activities, but I'm Native American. So I'm hoping that somewhere in my ancestral background, the great spirits (laughs) of my past will impart on me some wisdom. [15/18, Pre-Merge, Pre-Jury]
5. Rick (1/1): I'm 51 years old. I own my own ranch in Utah-- cattle ranch. If you didn't train before you got here, I mean, if you didn't run, if you didn't learn how to build a fire, (blows raspberry) you might as well spit in the wind. [5/18, Merge, 8th Juror]
6. Stacey (1/1): I'm 44 years old. I'm a funeral director mortician. I have four children. Being the mother that I am, I'm gonna have my eyes and my ears open. You think I'm asleep, I'm not asleep. I'll be nosy as hell. [16/18, Pre-Merge, Pre-Jury]
7. Brandon (1/1): I am Russell Hantz's nephew. It's like being related to Hitler, but I don't think Hitler's nephew was running around saying, "Hey, I'm Hitler's nephew." I came out here to change the course of the Hantz family's name. [6/18, Merge, 7th Juror]

It is the ultimate challenge. Eighteen strangers forced to work together to create a new society while battling the elements and each other. They must learn to adapt or they'll be voted out. In the end, only one will remain to claim the million dollar prize. 39 Days, 18 People, 1 Survivor!

Survivor 22: Redemption Island

We're on board a Mil-17 Helicopter piloted by the Nicaraguan Air Force, flying over the Pacific Ocean in Central America, where these Americans have already begun the adventure of a lifetime. Each castaway is arriving with nothing but the clothes on their back and their own unique story.

1. Phillip (1/1): I'm the C.E.O. of my own software company. But are there other layers to me? Absolutely. I'm a former Federal Agent. That's right, Special Agent Sheppard. That was my first and middle name for years. [2/18, Merge, 1st Runner-Up]
2. Matt (1/1): My faith is everything. My entire life revolves around it. I pray every day as I strive to become more like my savior. [7/18, Merge, 6th Juror, Voted out twice]
3. Ralph (1/1): They will call me a redneck, one crazy, stupid bastard. We ain't ever had a dumb ass to win the game, have we? Maybe it's my turn. [9/18, Merge, 4th Juror]

It's the ultimate challenge, a group of strangers forced to work together while battling the elements and each other. They must learn to adapt or they'll be voted out. In the end, only one will remain to claim the million dollar prize. 39 Days, 18 People, 1 Survivor!

Survivor 21: Nicaragua

This is Nicaragua: remote, mysterious, dangerous. Straddled between the raging waters of the Pacific Ocean and the Caribbean Sea. It's where ancient rainforests battle for survival against some of the world's youngest and most active volcanos. This rugged land has resisted taming since the days of the conquistadors and it is where twenty Americans have already begun the adventure of a lifetime.

1. Fabio (1/1): Everywhere you look there's monkeys hanging from things. There's dangerous animals here. It's like, it's real. There's no-- there's no fences like the zoo. [1/20, Merge, Sole Survivor]
2. Jimmy J. (1/1): I'm Jimmy Johnson. I'm sixty-six years old and I've won two collegiate national championships. I've won two Super Bowls. What could top it off better than to win Survivor? [18/20, Pre-Merge, Pre-Jury]

They think they've already been divided into two tribes. Though they have not spoken, first impressions are already forming.

3. Jimmy T. (1/1): I noticed the older gentleman looks like a mafia boss and he looks like he wants to boss people around and I'm not the kind of character that likes his buttons pushed. [17/20, Pre-Merge, Pre-Jury]
4. Alina (1/1): There's an old gray-haired guy that's just pissing me off already. He seems like the kind of guy who's gonna step into the leadership position. I hope he does 'cause he'll just get kicked off right away. [12/20, Merge, 1st Juror]

Forced to work together, they must learn to adapt or they'll be voted out.

5. Brenda (1/1): I'm single. (laughs) I am single, single, single. Very single. And flirting is something that I'm going to use if I have to. [10/20, Merge, 3rd Juror]

In the end, only one will remain to claim the million dollar prize. 39 days, 20 people, 1 Survivor!

Survivor 20: Heroes vs. Villains

The South Pacific. Thousands of islands lay scattered across the world's most beautiful ocean. But for centuries, man has traveled these waters to meet in combat. From brutal tribal warfare to the epic battles of World War II, this is a place where rivals have long traveled to settle old scores. It is the perfect setting for our biggest showdown yet.

Welcome to the 20th season of Survivor. Over the past ten years, Survivor has traveled to some of the most desolate, dangerous and exotic places in the world. Over 300 people have tested themselves in the most difficult and groundbreaking show on television. We have gathered 20 of them to play one more time.

These are ten of your favorite heroes versus ten of the most notorious villains.

1. Rupert (1/1): In my world, I've always tried to show that good will win. [6/20, Merge, 7th Juror]

2. Russell (1/1): I'm a villain. I think villains are smarter than heroes because they don't mind stabbing somebody in the back to get where they want to get. It's a fact-- it's a proven fact. Google it. [3/20, Merge, 2nd Runner-Up]
3. J.T. (1/1): The Heroes are definitely people I would rather play the game with. The Villains are the people I've always been against. So this is perfect for me to be on the Heroes' side and battle it out against these punks I don't like anyway. [10/20, Merge, 3rd Juror]
4. Jerri (1/1): I've been labeled things like, "She-devil in a blue bikini." "The wicked witch of the West." "Man-eater Mathey" -- that was my favorite one. (chuckles) [4/20, Merge, 9th Juror]
5. James (1/1): I'm back here to do what I came to do the first time-- get to the end and make the money. So I'm definitely coming back to redeem myself. [14/20, Pre-Merge, Pre-Jury]
6. Coach (1/1): This time, I slay everyone and trust no one. This is my chance for redemption. [12/20, Pre-Merge, 1st Juror]
7. Tom (1/1): I'm not in the shape I was last time, but I still think that I could hang in there as tough as any guy next to me. [16/20, Pre-Merge, Pre-Jury]
8. Rob (1/1): But these people are smart, they'll get rid of me right away. It's the smartest thing they could do, but they won't. They never do. [13/20, Pre-Merge, Pre-Jury]
9. Colby (1/1): I'm almost a decade older than I was the first time. So to me, it's a test to see if I still got it. [5/20, Merge, 8th Juror]
10. Sandra (1/1): Last time I was mean, and this time I'm meaner. You know, I'll lie. I don't care. But I'll make up a good lie. [1/20, Merge, Sole Survivor]
11. Cirie (1/1): People think they know me. They really don't know me. (laughs) I'm a gangster in an Oprah suit. But I'm not, like, the mean gangster. I'm a nice gangster with a smile, you know? (laughs) [17/20, Pre-Merge, Pre-Jury]

It is still the ultimate challenge: 20 people forced to work together while battling the elements and each other. They must learn to adapt or they'll be voted out. In the end, only one will remain to claim the million dollar prize. 39 Days, 20 People, 1 Survivor!

Survivor 19: Samoa

Deep in the heart of the South Pacific lies one of the most mysterious and isolated islands in the world, Samoa. A land that's steep, volcanic mountains, towering waterfalls, fierce rainstorms, rugged coastlines, virtually untouched by civilization. And surrounded by an ocean that's home to a diverse marine life. Here's where these twenty Americans are beginning the adventure of a lifetime. Though they've not yet spoken, first impressions are already forming.

1. Brett (1/1): This lady with her free-flowing mullet, she's probably some super outdoors woman that will naturally step forward as our leader. [4/20, Merge, 9th Juror]
2. Shambo (1/1): Dude, I'm a people magnet. People have gravitated to me my entire life. It's like, "Oh, my God! This chick rocks! We love her!" [6/20, Merge, 7th Juror]
3. Marisa (1/1): There's a guy who looks as tough as nails. He looks like a pitbull. He's like-- I wouldn't want to mess with him, that's for sure. [20/20, Pre-Merge, Pre-Jury]
4. Russell H. (1/1): I plan on making it as miserable as possible, making it hell for everybody to get what I want. [2/20, Merge, 1st Runner-Up]
5. Betsy (1/1): When I first started being a police officer, I believed every single person I met. But now, I don't believe anybody anymore. [18/20, Pre-Merge, Pre-Jury]

Twenty strangers forced to work together while battling the elements and each other. They must learn to adapt or they'll be voted out. In the end, only one will remain to claim the million dollar prize. 39 Days, 20 People, 1 Survivor!

Survivor 18: Tocantins

This is Brazil, known for its beautiful people, the world's greatest soccer, spectacular beaches and the most vibrant and dynamic cities in the world. But for these sixteen Americans, their adventure will play out in one of the most deserted and unforgiving sections of Brazil--Tocantins. The temperatures in this high desert are brutal and can top 120° and sudden storms can ignite dangerous wildfires in an instant. This vast region covers over 100,000 square miles and is one of the most isolated places on Earth. The rivers, if you can find them, provide the only source of water, but you'll have to share it with every other wild animal trying to survive. They've traveled for days to get here. They've already been divided into two tribes: Jalapao in red, and Timbira in black. And although no one has spoken to each other, first impressions are already forming.

1. Erinn (1/1): Tall, spiky hair, model boy. Love him. He just seems like a good guy to have around. [3/16, Merge, 7th Juror]
2. Tyson (1/1): The younger brunette-- she comes off to me as kind of being... the bitch. [8/16, Merge, 2nd Juror]
3. Stephen (1/1): We have the strung-out old lady, and it is sort of encouraging to have her because you know you're not going to be the first to go. [2/16, Merge, Runner-Up]
4. Sandy (1/1): The real tall boy-- I think he's like a geek. I think I should be able to lead him around real easy. [13/16, Pre-Merge, Pre-Jury]
5. Sierra (1/1): I've been sick. I got some bad tonsils. I've been trying to hide it so I don't get voted off. [7/16, Merge, 3rd Juror]
6. Coach (1/1): This blonde-- I have an unfortunate feeling she's going to crumble. [5/16, Merge, 5th Juror]

They come from different walks of life. Sixteen Americans forced to work together to create a new society while battling the elements and each other. They must learn to adapt or they'll be voted out. In the end, only one will remain to claim the million dollar prize. 39 Days, 16 People, 1 Survivor!

Survivor 17: Gabon

This is Gabon, one of the last, untouched places on the planet. Eighteen Americans have been flown across the world and dropped here in the wild, with nothing but their street clothes. They're being led to one of the most remote places in Africa. They come from different walks of life.

1. Crystal (1/1): I am a 2004 Olympic gold medalist in the women's 4x400 meter relay. I'm gonna use my blazing speed to win the hell out of this game. [6/18, Merge, 5th Juror]
2. Bob (1/1): In the winter time, I teach high school physics. In the summertime, I lapse into commercial fishing. [1/18, Merge, Sole Survivor]
3. GC (1/1): I wasn't the best kid as a teenager and stuff. I was doing some things I'm not proud of, but, you know, I'm grown now, and I can't believe that I actually have a chance to win a million dollars. [14/18, Pre-Merge, Pre-Jury]

4. Ace (1/1): I'm from America, but I grew up very well going to different countries, flying on Concordes and being in the best hotels with money. [12/18, Pre-Merge, Pre-Jury]

Forced to work together, they must create a new society while battling the elements and each other.

5. Matty (1/1): This is Earth's last Eden and I can see why. It's untouched land and it's amazing. [4/18, Merge, 7th Juror]

They must learn to adapt or they'll be voted out. In the end, only one will remain to claim the million dollar prize.

6. Marcus (1/1): It's completely awesome to be thrown into the world that is about to start. It was just like, "Okay, here we go." [10/18, Pre-Merge, 1st Juror]

39 Days, 18 People, 1 Survivor!

Survivor 16: Micronesia

We are flying over the beautiful islands of Micronesia. Crystal-clear water, magnificent coral reefs, and one of the most stunning collections of underwater sea life in the world. Just below me are ten Americans who are about to begin the adventure of a lifetime. They share only one thing in common-- they are all fans of Survivor. These fans have finally been given the chance to be a contestant in their favorite game, but they're completely unaware that they'll be playing against some of their favorite Survivors from seasons past.

1. Jonathan (1/1): You could be a fan of the Boston Red Sox, man, but you don't want to play against the Boston Red Sox. You're going to get your ass handed to you. [15/20, Pre-Merge, Pre-Jury, Medevaced]
2. Jonny Fairplay (1/1): I played a perfect game last time. I consider myself the greatest player in the history of the game. [20/20, Pre-Merge, Pre-Jury]

3. Parvati (1/1): Coming back, I'm playing really aggressively, and pretty much, it's no holds barred for me. [1/20, Merge, Sole Survivor]
4. Yau-Man (1/1): The only reason to come back is for the million dollars. That's the only reason I'm going to put up with a lot of suffering and bugs and smelly people. [18/20, Pre-Merge, Pre-Jury]
5. Cirie (1/1): People at home watching identify with me. I'm like the person at home watching on the couch. Remember? I was the couch potato. [3/20, Merge, 8th Juror]
6. James (1/1): I could almost be on the Fans' side, because I'm a fan of all these people. So for me to see, like, Yau and Ozzy over here was like crazy. [7/20, Merge, 4th Juror, Medevaced]
7. Ozzy (1/1): Everybody wants to beat me now, and hopefully I can tap into that same kind of energy and will that I had last time. [9/20, Merge, 2nd Juror]

It is the ultimate game with a new twist-- ten of Survivor's biggest fans taking on ten of their favorite players. For the next 39 days, they'll be forced to work together, creating a new society, while battling the elements and each other. They must learn to adapt or they'll be voted out of the game. In the end, only one will remain to claim the million-dollar prize. 39 days, 20 people, 1 Survivor!
