Update

Happy New Year! It has been a fast couple of weeks since the beginning of the year. Our Christmas Concert, Bake Sale and Christmas Basket were a success and I would like to thank everyone for their participation, donations and help with everything. It means so much to the school to have your support. The students did a wonderful job and really took initiative to do their best and plan for the concert. They made our school proud.

School Council

The next school council meeting will be held on Wednesday, January 22, 2020 at 6:30pm. If you would like to become a member of this year's school council, feel free to come along to our meeting! If you have any items you would like to add onto the agenda please email the school.

Book Order

Our latest book order is due on January 17, 2020. Please contact the school if you have any questions.

School Website

We are hoping to have the school website up and running soon, please stay tuned for further updates.

Kindness Challenge

The school will be participating in a Kindness Challenge on January 27-31, 2020, where students will be involved in different activities to promote kindness. Further information for families will be sent home in a memo.
