

KASRA NOVIKOV-HAKANII – BEAST

In which he switches places with Zinovia .

Kasra is a member of the Decay of Angels and Russian Government agency The Eighth Order , also known as The Spiders . He's known widely as The Widow. Вдова.

Following the death of his father, Yamato Hakanii, in an act against the diplomatic attempts during the war, only two weeks after his commanding officer, Asuka Adimbola was killed in combat; Kiyoko Hakanii was left to care for a young Arashi Hakanii alone. Grieving the loss of two lovers, her ill body could not take it and neither could her mind. She took her life and left Arashi alone.

Arashi was taken in by Aleksei Novikov, who moved back to Russia following the end of the war. Through unclear circumstances; Leviathan was still created. Aleksei succeeded in the creation of the Sisters of Sin; but he and Salem were killed. Kasra lost his arm.

Following their deaths; Kasra wandered before learning of the book. With the help of the Russian Government, he established the Eighth Order.

Kasra's ability, Silence of the lone canary, turned to become the manipulation of his own blood how he saw fit; and those who consume his blood become susceptible to his suggestion and control.

Kasra is even more off putting and manipulative in this AU. An entire control freak; he comes off incredibly sadistic as opposed to cold. The sarcastic and apathetic parts of his personality become far more obvious; and he will do whatever to get what he wants. He searches for not only the book, but its guardian; Sitri Atropos. He's still an incredibly skilled killer and combatant; being trained by Aleksei and the Russian military to be a weapon of sorts. He has no quandaries with brainwashing or torturing someone to get what he needs.

The Eighth order is an organization originally created by Zeph (@angelorumn) for their oc Zinovia. It is a Russian government agency that remains secret, as legally it doesn't exist. They engage in less than legal aspects such as coverups, experimentation, disappearances, and more.

It consists of the Head/Leader, and then the Eight Legs/executives. They also work to keep Kasra's record clean despite his openness surrounding his prolific crimes as both a weapon of the Russian government, and a serial killer, as well as eliminating threats against him and aiding in a search for the book and ~~Siri Atropos~~. He doesn't have nearly the same tact and decorum as he does in the original universe, instead his kills are often artful shows of brutality and gore.
