

free! extra content masterdoc

hi! it's celeste. as someone who has loved free! since 2013 and has been active in the fandom ever since, i wanted to archive all the official content released and made available over the years, thanks to our translators' hard work. i hope all free! fans will find this masterdoc helpful.

this document is always a work in progress: it'll be updated with new content as it gets released and, eventually, all the pages linked here will be archived.

suggestions and submissions are always welcome! if you find any content that i missed (download links for audio tracks are especially appreciated), or want to suggest any improvements, please feel free to contact me at @eternalblue on twitter and i'll make sure to add it, if the source is reputable.

enjoy! please keep loving free! for a long time.

if you want to support me: ko-fi ♥
