7:14pm Meeting called to order.

Number of persons present: 12 (only 3 were non-board, admin, or presenters)

Agenda:

- Welcome (Ramata Diop, President)
- Bylaws (Becca Jones-Albertus, Secretary) - Every 3 years we need approval by our membership. It's time again.
  - Proposed bylaw changes were presented - primarily the changes are to the officer positions as most of the bylaw text is template language. The proposal is to decrease from 2 secretaries (corresponding and recording) to one, and to add 3 vice president positions:
    - Executive Vice President (VP) to provide back-up to the President, fill in duties of any vacant VP positions
    - VP of Events to oversee the many events the PTSA runs
    - VP of Communication to focus on best use of the many modalities of communication to reach our diverse community
  - Members requested more time to review the bylaws before voting.
  - The draft bylaws are at the end of this document so members can review ahead of the May meeting, for vote at the May meeting. Highlighted in yellow are the areas of the template that we are able to edit.
- Treasurer's Report
  - $22,433 in the bank as of 2/28/25. This does not include books and basketball revenues.
  - We don't have further fundraising plans this year, so total income is likely to stay about $18,684.
  - Budget was approved
- Upcoming events - There are lots of upcoming events hosted by the school and PTA. Learn about them and ask questions.
- MoCoCap College and career counseling (see video recording) - Maryland is beginning to take your students on their college and career journey. Learn more about what they are doing and how it impacts your child.
  - MoCoCap is a partnership with 3 local colleges (including Montgomery College) and MCPS
  - This is to support the legislative directive that all MCPS students self-identify a post-secondary pathway by 10th grade
  - Career Advising Coaches will lead students in identifying their strengths, interests and values, including a framework for understanding personality preferences (RIASEC), that will help identify potential jobs of interest: Realistic (doers), Investigative (thinkers), Artistic (creators), Conventional (organizers), Enterprising (persuaders) and Social (helpers)

- There's an O*NET Interest profile with about 60 questions that helps identify what kinds of careers students may like
- Coaches will also help planning explorations experiences so students can learn more about career industries and jobs (on-campus at schools and off-campus at businesses)
- Sample careers were passed out and attendees identified which one of the 6 RIASEC elements fit those careers
- RIASEC is introduced with 6th graders and then students get deeper in 7th grade, talking about what you need to learn in school for the RIASEC theme you're choosing
- Principal Martin's State of the School update - Learn more about her vision for TPMS and how we're meeting it!
  - Discussed how MoCo Cap and the recent visits from high schools for 7th graders are providing preparation for 7th graders to reduce the stress felt around the 8th grade high school application/choice process. Also helps guide students through the process of learning and growing and preparing for their futures. The school is working to align MoCo Cap with the learning in the school
  - TPMS core values: STRIVE
    - Share responsibility for our community
    - Triumph over challenges
    - Respect the space we're in
    - Inquire with thoughtful questions
    - Value the worth of others
    - Engage in our learning
  - TPMS experience
    - Academic achievement: COVID really disrupted the status quo of education and we've had to reestablish the strong instructional in-person skills, striking a multi-modal balance with online tools
      - School system measures our progress through the Maryland school report card. TPMS got 63.2%, a 4-star rating. You can see more if you search for "Maryland school report cards" and look up TPMS
      - We made strong improvement in school quality and student success, which includes attendance metrics and a survey sent to educators and students
      - There are celebrations and calls to action in the data
      - This is used along with MAP assessments, district assessments and extended writing prompts to measure student growth, hit the targets, and inform our instruction.
      - PTSA has helped teachers get differentiated learning which has been really helpful
    - College and career readiness: Goal this year was to theme out each grade level and what they do to prepare for the future. Still a work in progress. 6th grade is helping students transition into middle school and exploring career themes, 7th grade is starting to think about high school and 8th grade is about building independence and preparing for the high school transition

- HBCU college fair in February - took a bus of students
- MC experience for 8th grade students - hopefully families have gotten a permission slip to tour Montgomery College and learn about the programs there
- School safety & well-being: TikTok challenges have been really hard. Focusing on making connections to build community of safety and well-being. Weekly STRIVE lessons help. Celebrating one another, including the very high honor roll and straight A populations.
  - Majority of students want STRIVE to continue each week (from bell schedule survey). The county requires advisory, but STRIVE is the TPMS umbrella that meets the advisory requirement
  - Monthly working lunches with SGA
  - Student surveys required in each class to help improve outcomes (reduce barriers in learning)
- Accessibility & Visibility: each administrator has a walking desk and works on the floor for more visibility. Is a nice connection.
- Counseling services: Provide everything from academic support to social-emotional to peer-conflict. They bridge the connect between home and school. Visits to counseling center by month range from 61 to 246. Also have two reboot rooms (quiet space and movement space) that child can self identify for or teachers can send. Have had 801 visits so far this year, and has been serving students really well.
  - Also have parent community coordinator, social worker, school psychologist and partnerships with community organizations to meet different needs
- Community - rebuilding a sense of community in collaboration with the PTSA
  - Cultural month celebrations (e.g., drumming circle)
  - Multicultural nights
  - Turkey trot
  - SGA dances
  - Cafecitos and parent coffees to reach those voices that are under-represented including hispanic/latinx, Ethiopian & Eritrean families, African Diaspora families, Special Education families
- STRIVE to help the school feel smaller for students and install a sense of school pride and have fun (house competition days)
- Enrichment - have 48 clubs and activities (including beekeepers club and yoyo club added since the beginning of the year due to interest)
  - Request to add an end-date column for afterschool activities so parents know when they end

- It is possible for kids to juggle clubs in and out to participate when clubs occur in the same time slots
- Partner with Rec Extra to bring this many clubs and activities
- WE SHINE program has a speaker series by experts in fields to provide inspiration and enrichment, students do passion projects in the different STEAM areas (self guided or with a mentor) which are exhibited on a WE SHINE night
- Other opportunities like French week, theater field trip, Latino Legacy week, Finance park, outdoor education, folklore and mythology, Six Flags and the GSA pride summit

Other Questions

- Question about the Principal intern - we are allocated an additional assistant principal to make a 5 person administrative team since we will exceed 1200 students next year. The principal intern will fill that slot next year and then we may hire to fill the position the next year if the intern does not stay.
- Trying to keep classroom sizes around 30. Intervention classes are smaller and PE and other electives are larger.
- Some electives were cut if they were taught by non-elective teachers: horticulture, creative writing and forensics
- Wanted to expose 6th graders to more of the electives and also had logistical aspect of trying to meet all the schedule needs that was harder when grades had more elective choices. Will also help retain teachers while going through bell schedule change.
- Recruiting for 2025-26 PTSA Board - Elections are at our next PTSA meeting in May.
  - Please contact Becca Jones-Albertus (beccaj@gmail.com) if interested in learning more.
- Special Education Committee is forming. Please join us on April 8th from 6:00-7:00pm

Meeting adjourned at 8:57pm
