INTRODUCTION internship report - Lời mở đầu tại trung tâm Ngoại Ngữ

1.1. Internship aims:

Prior to the current development trend of the world, interpretation and translation become more urgent need than ever. All interactions in the fields of economics, culture, politics, health, defense, education, and eduction service among countries in the world can only be successful thanks to the important contribution of the translation factors. Therefore, as the world is drawing closer together, it is imperative that every country should do the same to remove the language barrier. And interpreters are the bridge to help link the nations together. This is a great opportunity to get in touch with famous politicians..

This demand is not much in quantity but an important profession. This is also a high income job with an average salary of 10-15 million per month. At the conference, high-level negotiation, the salary is calculated in hours from several hundred dollars or more. With some less common languages such as German, Italian ... the salary is higher.

The language barriers will lead to bad things and at the national level, there may be potential danger of war if there is no understanding of the language of the enemy. Therefore, the translator or interpreter has a very heavy responsibility in transmitting the language among people. It can be said, the success of work depends a lot on this translator.

In order to solve the problems encountered in communicating with international friends, as well as partner documents or contracts, translation services must be provided. Translation is important for both parties to understand each other better so businesses must have a partnership with a translation service to assist them when needed. It has both the unity and the brand of the business in the eyes of partners. Translation tasks will help students after graduation and practice will find good jobs with high income. Thus, internship plays an important role in improving fresh graduates' skills before working.

1.2. The reason for choosing the internship.

The internship helps the student to access the work environment in a company, so that conditions can compare and contrast between the theory, knowledge is learned in the school with the practice at the practice. Therefore, the student must choose a placement agency that has a job related to the student's field of study.

Established in 2004, StudyLink International Education Center is considered one of the centers providing international study consultancy services, English training and professional project management education, honesty and perfect for Vietnamese students. The services that the company is doing are using foreign language elements, especially English. With the great service, studylink is very suitable for students studying English language practice. So, this is one of the companies that can help students apply their knowledge in the field to real work. This helps me gain more knowledge, confidence and experience to enter the work environment in future.

1.3. The meaning of the internship and topic.

In each industry, translation has a role. In the sectors mentioned, education is the most used translation service. Most of the literary, philosophical, and supportive materials for cultivating are derived from languages other than Vietnamese. All of them are translated into Vietnamese correctly and out of meaning. To do this requires a professional translation team. Because each work has its own set of contexts and cultures, it requires the translator to have a double-eduction and understand the language.

The internship process helps students get familiar with the work environment, learn how to work and practice some work skills, communicate in the workplace, gather information and describe the reality. However, students do not have "complacent" that play that wasted all four years. Translation is a job that requires a lot of knowledge and experience. Therefore, students must always study, read, listen and collaborate while still being at university. Translation is a profession that many students choose to study foreign languages after graduation, especially the students have orientation translation-interpretion from the beginning. Knowledge of the school equips the student to be ready to step down the path to become translators at the publishing units, interpreters at companies, foreign corporations ... Not
