

Is membership only open to African Americans?

No. Our membership is open to all ethnicities. National NABCJ and collegiate chapters have members of multi-ethnicities.

Is NABCJ a business?

No. NABCJ is a 501(c) 3 non-profit organization.

Can I join NABCJ today?

Applications are taken in September of each year.

What are the NABCJ-ASU membership requirements?

Students who are interested in becoming a member of the NABCJ- ASU Chapter must have a minimum 2.0 GPA. Be a current ASU student or faculty/staff. The annual membership (September to June) fee is $35 for student leadership and $25 for general members.

Do I have to be a criminal justice major to join NABCJ?

No. We welcome all majors.

What types of activities do you do?

- We hold monthly meetings and/ or events
- We participate in community service by partnering with government and social service agencies that focus on criminal justice initiatives such as corrections, juvenile justice, police and community relations, an equal right with the criminal justice system

What if I have additional questions about NABCJ?

- Please contact a faculty advisor. Their contact information is located on the NABCJ's main page.

What is the webpage for the Criminal Justice and Social Science Department?

- The website is www.alasu.edu/criminaljustice