

Medical School Application Advising Services!

I'm a current medical student who successfully navigated the competitive world of medical school admissions. I was accepted to 5+ medical schools, including several top-ranked programs, and now I'm here to share my insights and guidance with you.

I scored a 518 on the MCAT and interviewed at more than 10 schools. With experience crafting standout personal statements, preparing for interviews, and building a competitive application, I offer in-depth, personalized advice on every step of the med school admissions process.

I know how overwhelming and confusing this journey can be—I figured it out on my own and want to make that process smoother for others. That's why I'm passionate about making high-quality, affordable advising accessible to students from all backgrounds.

I offer personalized guidance in areas such as personal statement reviews, interview preparation, application strategy, and study schedules. Our goal is to help you present your best self and navigate the admissions process with confidence.

Having gone through it successfully, I understand this process inside and out—and I'm excited to help you reach your goal of becoming a physician. Let me help you present your strongest application and approach this journey with confidence!

Payment and Policies

Payment Methods

I accept payments via PayPal, Venmo, Zelle, and cash. Please note that payment is required upfront before any services are rendered. This ensures a commitment from both parties and secures your booking.

Turnaround Time

Standard turnaround is 3-5 business days for most essay reviews. Rush review options are available for faster service.

Refund Policy

Refunds are only possible for essay reviews and will be considered on a case-by-case basis. If you are unsatisfied, contact us to discuss revisions or other solutions.

Revision Window

Revisions must be requested within one day of receiving feedback unless an unlimited revision package has been purchased.

Cancellation Policy

Sessions canceled within 24 hours of the scheduled time will not be rescheduled or refunded. Please plan accordingly to avoid missed appointments.

Academic Integrity

We do not write or complete work on behalf of students for academic credit. All services — including tutoring, advising, and essay editing — are intended to provide educational support only. Clients are responsible for ensuring their use of these services complies with the academic integrity policies of their institutions.

No Guarantees

While we offer high-quality guidance based on personal and professional experience, we cannot guarantee admission to any school or program, improved grades, or test score outcomes. All results depend on individual effort, application strength, and external factors beyond our control.

Liability

We are not liable for any outcomes related to your academic performance, school decisions, or use of the materials and advice provided. Clients agree to use all content and feedback at their own discretion and risk.
