

Factorio Mod Custom License

1. Commercial Use

This mod may not be used for commercial purposes. You are free to feature the mod in non-commercial media, such as streams or videos.

2. Modification and Derivative Works

- You may not modify the original files of this mod for redistribution. Personal private modifications are allowed for personal use only.
- You are allowed to create dependent mods that reference this mod without altering the original files. Any such mod must credit the original author and link to the original mod on the Factorio mod portal or other designated platform.

3. Distribution

- You may distribute the unmodified mod package as long as it is clearly attributed to the original author and a link to the original mod portal page is provided.
- Any distribution of altered versions of the original files is prohibited.

4. Attribution

- Any mods or projects that depend on this mod must provide appropriate attribution to the original author. The attribution must include a link to the original mod page and a clear indication that this mod is required for the derivative mod to function.

5. Limitation of Liability

This software is provided “as is,” without warranty of any kind. The author of the mod cannot be held liable for any damages or issues that arise from the use of this software.
