

Subject: Building Trust & Sensitivity: Tailored Copywriting & Social Media for A.D. Valor
Technical Cleaning

Hi Ben,

I found your website at <https://valortechnicalcleaning.com/> on Google Maps. Impressed by your dedication to providing meticulous services in an industry that demands sensitivity and professionalism, I couldn't help but reach out. I also noticed that your business is US Army veteran owned and operated.

In an industry like yours, effective communication is paramount. Given the nature of forensic cleaning services, maintaining a delicate balance of care, tactfulness, and empathy in your public communications is crucial.

Would you be open for discussion on how effective copywriting and social media management could help with customer engagement while keeping the sensitivity especially for this line of business?

Looking forward to hearing from you. Thank you.

Kind regards,
Harrih
