Title: Speak Up

Author: Miranda Paul

Grade Levels: TK-1

Global Competence: Contribute to a better world

This spirited, picture book celebrates diversity and encourages kids to speak up, unite with others, and take action when they see something that needs to be fixed.

After reading the book, discuss interesting facts you have learned and generate a list of things you can do in your own community to contribute. Then create a drawing of your favorite idea.

Bag Contents:

- Book
- Journal
- Crayons

Directions:

1. Read the book aloud with a parent or guardian.
2. Discuss the key details you found interesting from the book.
3. Generate a list of things you can do in your classroom, at home, or in your community to “Speak Up” and create a better world.
4. After creating your list, draw a picture with crayons of your favorite idea you came up with.

Extended Learning:

1. Try to fulfill one of the options from the list you created.
3. Discuss what it means to contribute to make your world a better place. Discuss ways you can make a difference in your own community.
