

Be a Peer Tutor for English Learners at Redwood!

*Did you know there are students at Redwood who are learning English?
They are recent immigrants from countries all over the world.*

What is an EL Peer Tutor?

Peer tutors in EL class help students who are learning English. Many students arrived in the past year or two. They need help practicing pronunciation in English, understanding their homework, and getting along at Redwood.

Why?

- It is fun! You make new friends from different backgrounds.
- It is extremely helpful -You share your knowledge with others!
- You practice your Spanish and other languages
- You are exposed to multiculturalism
- You will be a part of a close-knit community. We have Field Trips, Parties, and more fun activities!
- It looks good on your resume

Peer Tutor Possibilities

- ELD English Language Development - Like your Spanish class, but in English. Readings, current events, grammar, cultural tidbits, all in English!
- ELD AW - Academic Workshop for English learners. Help them with their homework/projects, study for tests. More one-on-one.
- Levels 1-2 (Beginners/ Newcomers) and 3-4 of each (Intermediate and advanced)
- Be a Peer tutor in a subject with a “cluster” of about 5 English Learners, like in Science, English or Math.
- Smart Period!

Expectations

- Commitment (This is not a free period.)
- Peer Tutor (Grade!) vs. TA (Teaching Assistant - Credit)
- Dedication to helping others.
- Attendance
- Positive Attitude and friendliness
